After 1st March, 1859, the price will be raised to Three Dollars.

The Publishers are obliged to make this arrangement in order to save themselves from loss, and to induce a prompt return for their outlay; this Edition of the Manual exceeding by one-half the size when the price was announced at Two Dollars.

The Municipal Laws of Upper Canada are in importance second to none of the laws in Canada. Every Municipal Corporation is a small parliament possessed of extensive but yet limited powers. To ascertain in every case the existence or non-existence of a power—the nature of it—its precise limit, and the mode in which it should be exercised, is the object of all who are in any manner concerned in the administration of Municipal affairs. When it is considered that in the first instance these matters must be determined by Municipal Corporations themselves, seldom composed of men versed in the laws, often acting without the aid of professional advice, the importance of a Guide becomes manifest. That guide it is the object of the undersigned to provide.

Hitherto, in consequence of the multitude of legislative enactments, sometimes inconsistent, often unintelligible, the correct understanding of Municipal law, was a work of labour, and that labour anxious and protracted. Not only Municipal Councillors but Municipal Officers, not only Municipal Officers but Lawyers, not only Lawyers but Judges were sorely puzzled to determine the law on questions of even every day occurrence. Since 1849 to the present time, owing in great part to this perplexity, the Courts have been called upon in not less than one hundred and fifty cases to enunciate principles for the guidance of Municipal bodies, a knowledge of which is indispensable to all directly or indirectly interested in the working of Municipal Law. The decisions were, when pronounced, practical commentaries on Municipal law. They are to-day as much so as when pronounced. Though the law has been consolidated it has not been much altered.

Consolidation is not only an immense benefit to all who may have occasion to use the law, but to the person who undertakes to illustrate it by the light of adjudged cases. This, Mr. Robert A. Harrison, Barrister-at-Law, well known as one of the Editors of the Law Journal, and as the author of several Law Books in general use, one of which has been highly commended, even by the English press, has done in the new edition of the Manual now presented to the public. The Manual embraces, besides the Consolidated Municipal Act of last session, all other Acts to which Municipal officers and others may in the performance of their duties find it necessary to refer, and forms the most complete and reliable work of its kind ever published in Canada. The notes are written in a plain and popular style, such as may be comprehended by all who understand the English language. The information given is of a nature indispensable to all concerned in the administration of Municipal Law, who are desirous of avoiding mistakes and consequently litigation; and, to make the book still more valuable, it is accompanied by an Index of Easy Reference prepared on the most approved principles.

PREFACE.

In the prospectus issued for this work it was said that the Municipal Laws of Upper Canada are in importance second to none of the laws of the Province, and that every Municipal Corporation is a small Parliament, possessed of extensive but yet limited powers. It was then pointed out, that to ascertain in every case the existence or non-existence of a power—the nature of it—its precise limit and the mode in which it should be exercised is the object of all who are in any manner concerned in the administration of Municipal affairs.

When it is considered, that in the first instance these matters are to be determined by Municipal Councils, seldom containing Members versed in the laws, often acting without the aid of professional advice, the importance of a guide becomes, as said in the prospectus, manifest.

That guide it has been the aim of the Editor in the following pages to produce. He now proposes as briefly as possible to state upon what principles and in what manner he has performed his task.

The Legislature, having by the consolidated Act of the present year, classified many Municipal enactments and repealed many of those that were effete or thereby rendered useless, the Editor with the assistance of legal friends of greater experience than himself, in the first place, applied himself to the work of expounding the Consolidated Act by the light of adjudged cases. This he did patiently and assiduously, noting latent difficulties and explaining as far as possible all difficulties of every kind that occurred to him. The result is a body of notes more elaborate than he contemplated when he began his labors. All decisions reported in time for his pen, have been carefully epitomized and introduced into the notes so written.

Having in this manner continued his labors until the completion of the Consolidated Act, he next turned his attention to other Acts of a like kind, promiscuously scattered through the twenty-two volumes containing the Provincial Statutes. Beginning at the first Act he selected in chronological order such acts as from their nature a person would expect to find in a Municipal Manual, until he reached the last Act of the kind now in force. The result is a large collection of Acts and parts of Acts added to the end of the Consolidated Municipal Act.

One great difficulty which the Editor experienced from first to last, was to publish all Acts at all of use to Municipalities, and yet to keep his book in a single volume of moderate dimensions. To accomplish this, Acts have been abbreviated by the omission of mere formal matter, Acts of a private nature and so of little public utility have been in some places abridged by the statement of substance only, and in others nothing has been given except the title or heading, when expressive of the object. Other Acts, such as those regulating the inspection of Beef, Pork, Ashes and the incorporation of Road and other Companies have, because of their great length and comparatively speaking little general utility, been entirely excluded. So have the Common School and Grammar School Acts. The reason of the exclusion of the latter is that they are contained in "The Educational Manual," a small work within the reach of all, and it is presumed in the possession of all engaged in the execution of those Statutes.

The arrangement adopted has been the chronological, in preference to the analytical. The reason being that by such an arrangement the growth of the law is opened up to public view, while for convenience of reference the addition of a very full analytical Index imparts to the work all the benefits of analysis. Thus, under Toronto, Kingston, Hamilton, &c., in the Index will be found references to Acts applying specially to these Cities though published in different parts of the Volume. To make the Chronological arrangement still more effective, the Editor has, as a rule, in the margin of each Statute wherever it is altered or affected by a subsequent Statute, made a reference to the subsequent statute. The object of this is to guard against reading any one provision as the only or whole law on the subject wherever there are others which ought to be read in connexion with it.

For the convenience of the legal profession as well as for the information of all concerned, the Rules of Court governing contested Municipal Elections, have been added in the appendix and noted in the general Index like other parts of the Work. In the appendix will also be found a form of By-law to contract a debt by borrowing money. The utility not to say necessity of such forms is well known. In the preparation of this edition of the MUNICIPAL MANUAL, the Editor had neither the time nor the materials to enable him to give a complete set of Municipal Forms. He, however, did what he could towards supplying the void by preparing a form of a By-law of more general use than that of any other form of By-law. His reasons for so doing were two fold. First, to furnish a model whereby other By-laws may be drawn. And secondly, to furnish a form for that By-law, which of all others must essentially be correct both in form and in substance.

Great responsibility rests upon those who undertake to prepare by-laws, on the legality or illegality of which large monied transactions are made to depend. Some form must be observed; and yet a close adherence to technical nicety may in certain cases work positive injustice. Were it possible to secure for money by-laws the stamp of legality, so as to remove all suspicion of informality, irregularity or illegality, the effect would be eminently beneficial. It would beget a spirit of confidence, alike of advantage to the seller and to the buyer of Municipal debentures. Less room would be left for speculation or trade in the fears of men or contingencies of law, and more stability be imparted to the negotiation of Canadian Municipal Securities; one consequence of which—and not the least—would be, that the market value of all such securities would be proportionably increased. The only mode likely to attain so desirable an end that at present occurs to the Editor, would be to require all by-laws of this kind to be approved by some public functionary, and, when approved, to be unimpeachable on the ground of informality or want of technical accuracy. Such is the principle applied to by-laws passed to raise money on the credit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. It is enacted, that “no informality or irregularity in any such by-law, or in the proceedings relative thereto, anterior to the passing thereof, shall in any manner affect the validity thereof, after the Governor-General in Council shall have approved of such by-law; but the order in Council approving such by-law shall be held to cover any such informality or irregularity, and the by-law shall be valid to all intents and purposes.” (16 Vic. cap. 123, sec. 5.)

It is easy to perceive how efficacious would be this seal of approval, if applied to all money by-laws. The object of it is to secure the confidence of the public. That object is as much needed in the case of any ordinary money by-law, as one to raise money on the credit of the Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund; and if beneficial in the one case, the Editor cannot help suggesting that the benefits ought, by some appropriate machinery, to be extended to all similar cases. Indeed the Legislature have, in other instances, partially affirmed the principle. It is by the Consolidated Municipal Act enacted, that "in case a by-law by which a rate is imposed has been specially promulgated in the manner specified, no application to quash the by-law shall be entertained after six calendar months have elapsed since its promulgation," (sec. 195,) and that "in case no application to quash any by-law so specially promulgated is made within the time limited for that purpose, the by-law, or so much thereof as is not the subject of any such application, or not quashed upon such application, so far as the same ordains, prescribes or directs any thing within the proper competence of the Council to ordain, prescribe or direct, shall, notwithstanding any want of substance or form, either in the by-law itself or in the time or manner of passing the same, be a valid by-law." (Sec. 200.)

With these observations, the present edition of the MUNICIPAL MANUAL is submitted to the public. Of the public, the Editor has only one request to make. It is, that imperfections are not to be attributed to neglect, but to circumstances—such as want of time and want of space—over which he, however well disposed, had no control.

THE MUNICIPAL MANUAL.

22 VIC. CAP. 99.

*An Act respecting the Municipal Institutions of Upper

[Assented to 16th August, 1858.]

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Preamble.
Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

(a) It has been objected to Statutes, both Imperial and Colonial, that the sections are generally loaded with a redundancy of provisos and a no less redundancy of words. For the first, the remedy suggested is distinctness of subjects, short clauses, short sentences, and the avoidance of useless tautology. For the second, the use of the present instead of the future tense, which is a more familiar style of writing, and prevents the frequent use of the word "shall" as a mere auxiliary, expressing the future at one time and obligation or penal consequences at another. So far as the editor can judge, the framers of this act, alive to the nature of such objections, have not failed to supply the appropriate remedies. The absence of proviso upon proviso, and the substitution of short and complete clauses, manifests a laudable desire to avoid all ground of objection on the first head. The use of the present, instead of the future tense throughout the act also attests the anxiety of the framers to avoid obscurity. The propriety of this course depends upon the principle, that in a statute as at common law, the law is supposed to be at all times speaking. The use of the future tense rests upon the principle that a statute speaks at and from the time that it becomes a law, and that so speaking, as it were prospectively, its provisions must be expressed in the future tense. If it be a correct rule that a law speaks at all times as ever present, the correctness of framing it in the present tense cannot be denied, and this, whether the law is to be applied to present or passing, or to past, or to future events. This style pervades some important imperial statutes, such as the 15 & 16 Vic. cap. 44, and the 17 & 18 Vic. cap. 104, both of which are not only modern, but drawn with unexampled care. The effect of reading a statute thus framed, is that the Legislature is regarded as always present—pronouncing the law so long as the law exists—the consequence of which is that the law meets every event to which it is applicable, as the event arises. When it is considered that this act is for the guidance and

Commencement of Act. 1.—This Act shall come into force on the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight. (b)

Municipal Corporations 2.—The inhabitants of every County, City, Town, Village, Township, Union of Counties, and Union of Townships, incorporated at the time this act takes effect, shall continue to be a body Corporate, and every Police Village then existing shall continue to be a Police Village, with the Municipal boundaries of every such Corporation and Police Village respectively then established. (c) government of Municipal Councils; themselves law-makers, throughout the length and breadth of Upper Canada, the importance of simplicity and perspicuity cannot be overrated. In the same spirit, we find the old system of numbering sections by Roman numerals abandoned in favor of the plain or Arabic numerals. Even by the most illiterate the figures "818" are, as symbols of numbers, more easily recognized than "CCCXVIII." The idea conveyed by the one is as it were intuitive to the mind, the other is acquired by a mental process more or less prolonged. In other words, what is known in the one case the moment the eye sees it, in the other is only known by a process of as it were spelling. Though small in itself, this change will be great and beneficial in its consequences, and is highly to be commended. The act and every provision of it is to be deemed remedial. Whether its immediate purport is to direct the doing of any thing which the Legislature deems for the public good, or to prevent or punish the doing of anything which it deems contrary to the public good, the act is to receive such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as will best ensure the attainment of the object of its passing, and according to its true intent, meaning and spirit. (12 Vic. cap. 10, s. 6, sub-a. 28.)

(b) From the moment this act takes effect, several statutes and parts of statutes, inconsistent with it and specifically described, are by express enactment repealed. (See sec. 403.) On every act professing to repeal or interfere with the provisions of a former law, it is a question of construction whether it operate as a total, partial, or temporary repeal. The word "repealed" is not to be taken in an absolute, if it appear upon the whole act to be used in a limited sense. Where several acts of parliament upon the same subject had been totally repealed, and others repealed in part, it was held that it must have been the clear intention of the legislature that only the part of an act particularly pointed out should be repealed. (Dwarris on Statutes, 534.) The law does not favor a repeal by implication. Where however between an old and a later statute or legislative provision there is a plain repugnancy, the latter, as being the last declared intention of the legislature, must be taken to have superseded the former. (Ib. p. 533.)

(c) Under the 175th and 176th sections of the repealed Statute 12 Vic. cap. 81, it was held that the Township Councils and not County Councils were entitled to receive money due to the old District Coun-

NAMES AND GOVERNING BODY.

1.—CORPORATIONS.

4.—The name of every Body Corporate continued or erected under this Act, shall be The Corporation of the County, City, Town, Village, Township, or United Counties, or United Townships, (as the case may be) of (naming the same.) (d) vills, when the debt was due to the locality, as for making roads in a township. (Municipal Council of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham v. Bull et al, 8 U. C. Q. B. 875.)

(cc) See sec. 406 et seq.

(d) Words making any number of persons a Corporation or body politic and corporate, are construed to vest in the Corporation power to sue and be sued—contract and be contracted with by their corporate name—to have a common seal, and to alter and change the same at their pleasure, and to have perpetual succession, and power to acquire and hold personal property or moveables for the purposes for which the Corporation is constituted, and to alienate the same at pleasure, and also, when not otherwise provided, to vest in a majority of the members of the Corporation the power to bind the others by their acts, and also to exempt the individual members of the Corporation from personal liability for its debts or obligations or acts, provided they do not contravene the provisions of the Act incorporating them. (12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 24; see also 7 Wm. IV. cap. 14, s. 14.)

To consider these powers more in detail.

The first in order is "to sue and be sued." A Municipal Corporation, like an individual, under the limitations involved in its constitution and organization, may have recourse to the Courts of the country to enforce rights and redress wrongs. So one Municipal Corporation may sue another. (Huron District Council v. London District Council, 4 U. C. Q. B. 302.) So a Municipal Corporation may be sued for a breach of contract, and in certain cases for wrongful acts not arising out of contract. Thus a Municipal Corporation may be sued for nuisance, for instance, illegally obstructing a drain or water course, so as to injure the owner or owners of land adjoining. To support an action against a Municipal Corporation of the nature suggested, although it is not necessary to show any authority under seal to the person or persons who under the supposed instructions of the Corporation actually did the wrongful act, something must be shown to connect the Corporation as a body with the doing of the act. (Farrell v. The Mayor and Town Council of London, 12 U. C. Q. B. 848.) If the Corporation had a right to do that which they are charged to have wrongfully done, it seems they may plead in general terms that they did the act complained of as they lawfully might for reasons assigned. (Brown v. The Municipal Council of Sarnia, 11 U. C. Q. B. 87.)

Provisional
Corporations

5.—The inhabitants of every Junior County upon a Provisional Council being or having been appointed for

The second power is to "contract and be contracted with." It is a principle applicable to all Corporations, that they must contract under seal. To this principle there are some exceptions. One of some moment has been created with regard to Municipal Corporations. It is that such a Corporation is liable to be sued in an action of debt on simple contract for the price of goods furnished, or labor done at their request and accepted by them. (Fetterly v. The Municipality of Russell and Cambridge, 14 U. C. Q. B. 488.) Though in such a case there be no contract under seal, the law implies an undertaking by a Corporation to pay for labor and materials employed in their service, and of which they have accepted and are enjoying the benefit, provided the purpose for which the labor and materials have been applied is one clearly within the legitimate object of their charter. (Barillett v. The Municipality of Amherstburgh, 14 U. C. Q. B. 152.) The exception, however, does not extend to work, &c., to be done, but is confined to work in fact done and accepted. Thus no man can sue a Municipal Corporation for not allowing him to make, for example, a road unless he show a contract under seal binding the corporation to allow him to do that which he says they wrongfully prevent. (16) An individual dealing with a corporation, through its council or the members of the governing body, is bound to notice the objects and limits of their powers and the manner in which those powers are to be exercised, and it is of much consequence that it should be borne in mind that their acts when beyond the scope of their authority or done in a manner unauthorized, are in general nugatory and not binding on the corporation. (Ramsay et al v. The Western District Council, 4 U. C. Q. B. 374.) No action can be sustained for a breach of duty against the head of a Corporation in not applying the seal to make a contract between the Corporation and an individual, founded on a refusal which (if there had been a previous valid contract) would have constituted a breach of it; in other words, there cannot be a remedy against the head of a Corporation, equivalent to a remedy on the contract against the Corporation, had the contract been duly made so as to create a valid and binding agreement. (Fair v. Moore, 8 U.C.C.P. 454.) See further, notes to sec 221 and following sections.

The powers of a Municipal Corporation to have a common seal, &c., to acquire and hold personal property or moveables, &c., and alienate the same at pleasure are too well known, and too thoroughly understood to need comment in this place. The right of a corporation to acquire, hold and alienate real estate, generally depends upon the special provisions of the statute or charter. The power, when not otherwise provided, of a majority to bind the others by their acts, and also the exemption of individual members of the Corporation from personal responsibility will engage attention hereafter.

The next subject which it is proposed to consider is the corporate name of the Municipal Corporation. It is The Corporation of the County, City, Town, Village, Township, or United Counties, or United Townships (as the case may be) of (naming them). Thus, "The Corporation of (the City of Toronto)," and not as heretofore "The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Toronto." So "The Corporation of (the County of Middlesex)," and not as heretofore "The the County, shall be a Body Corporate under the name of The Provisional Corporation of the County of (naming it.)

6.—The powers of every Body Corporate under this Act, shall be exercised by the Council thereof. The Councils to govern.

2.—POLICE VILLAGES.

7.—The Police regulations of every Police Village, shall be enforced through the Police Trustees. Trustees in Police Villages to govern.

NEW MUNICIPALITIES.

COUNTIES AND TOWNSHIPS.

8.—The inhabitants of every County or Union of Counties erected by Proclamation into an independent County or Union of Counties, and (e) of every Township or Union of Townships erected into an independent Township or Union of Townships, and of every locality erected into a City, Town, or Incorporated Village, and of every County or Township separated from any Incorporated Union of Counties or Townships, and of every County or Township, or of the Counties or Townships if more than one, remaining of the Union after the separation, being so erected or separated after this Act takes effect (f), shall be a Body Corporate under this Act. Extension of Corporate Municipalities.

NEW POLICE VILLAGES.

9.—On the Petition of any of the inhabitants of an unincorporated Village, the Council or Councils of the County or New Police Villages.

Municipal Council or Municipality of the County of Middlesex, &c." The proper corporate name of a Municipal Corporation ought to be used on all occasions, and in all places. But it has been decided that a By-law of a Municipal Council is valid if it appear on the face of it to have been enacted by a Municipal body having authority to make the By-law under the Municipal Laws. (In re Hawkins v. The Municipal Council of Huron, Perth, and Bruce, 2 U. C. C. P. 72; Fisher v. The Municipal Council of Vaughan, 10 U. C. Q. B. 492; In re Barclay and the Municipal Council of Darlington, 11 U. C. Q. B. 470.) It was however held differently as to the invalidity of a rule in a proceeding against a Municipal Corporation. (In re Sams v. The Corporation of Toronto, 9 U. C. Q. B. 181.) Now that uniformity in name has been established, it is apprehended the Courts will be less inclined than ever to overlook laxness in the description of corporate names.

(e) In reading this section, the words "the inhabitants" are to be understood as repeated in each succeeding clause, that is, before the words "of every," wherever they occur.

(f) Section 2 applies to existing corporations, but this section seems to be prospective only, that is, applicable only to Municipalities hereafter to be erected, and applies to them by whatever authority created.

Counties within which the Village is situate, may, by By-law, erect the same into a Police Village, and assign thereto such limits as may seem expedient. (g)

NEW INCORPORATED VILLAGES.

When population 100.
County Council may by By-law incorporate new Villages and name place for 1st election and returning officer.

10.—When the census returns of an unincorporated Village (h) with its immediate neighbourhood, taken under the direction of the Council or Councils of the County or Counties in which the Village and its neighbourhood are situate, shew that the same contain over seven hundred and fifty inhabitants, and when the residences of such inhabitants are sufficiently near to form an incorporated Village, then, on petition by not less than one hundred resident freeholders and householders of the Village and neighbourhood, the Council or Councils of the County or Counties in which the Village and neighbourhood are situate shall, by By-law, erect the Village and neighbourhood into an Incorporated Village, apart from the Township or Townships in which the same are situate, by a name and with boundaries to be respectively declared in the By-law, and shall name in the By-law the place for holding the first Election, and the Returning Officer who is to hold the same.

When the Village lies within two counties, how to be annexed to one of them by the Councils or Governor.

11.—When the newly incorporated Village lies within two or more Counties, the Councils of the Counties shall, by By-law, annex the Village to one of the Counties; and if within six calendar months after the petitions for the incorporation of the Village are presented, the Councils do not agree to which County the Village shall be annexed, the Wardens of the Counties shall memorialize the Governor in Council, setting forth the grounds of difference between the Councils; and thereupon the Governor, shall by Proclamation, annex the Village to one of such Counties. (i)

When by the Governor.

12.—In case the Wardens do not within one month next after the expiration of the six months memorialize the Governor as aforesaid, then one hundred of the freeholders and householders on the census list may petition the Governor to

(g) This clause of course does not apply to Villages either incorporated or already made Police Villages.

(h) Unincorporated Village—An expression which includes Police Villages, which Villages are not corporate bodies, like other Municipalities. (Sec. 402, subsec. 1.)

(i) The annexation is in the first instance left to the County Councils jointly. If they do not pass the necessary by-law within six months from the time the petition for incorporation is presented, the Wardens are to notify the Governor in Council thereof, and he is then to cause the annexation by proclamation.

settle the matter, and thereupon the Governor shall, by Proclamation, annex the incorporated Village to one of the said Counties. (j)

13.—In case the Council of an Incorporated Village petitions the Governor to add to the boundaries thereof, the Governor may, by Proclamation, add to the Village any part of the localities adjacent, which from the proximity of streets or buildings therein, or the probable future exigencies of the Village, it may seem desirable to add thereto.

Additions to

ERECTION OF VILLAGES INTO TOWNS, AND TOWNS INTO CITIES.

14.—A census of any Town or Incorporated Village may at any time be taken under the authority of a By-law of the Council thereof. (k)

Towns and
formed.

15.—When it appears by the census return taken under any Act of Parliament (kk), or under any such By-law (l), that a Town contains over fifteen thousand inhabitants, the Town may be erected into a City; And when it appears by the return that an Incorporated Village contains over three thousand inhabitants, the Village may be erected into a Town: But the change shall be made by means of and subject to the following proceedings and conditions:

Town containing over fifteen thousand and Inhabitants may be made a City; and Village containing over three thousand a Town.

Firstly—In case the Council of the Town or Village, for three months after the Census return, inserts a notice in some newspaper published in the Town or Village, or if no newspaper is published therein, then in case the Council has for three months posted up a notice in four of the most public places in the Town or Village, and inserted the same in a newspaper published in the County in which the Town or Village is situate, setting forth in the notice the intention of the Council to apply for the erection of the Town into a City, or of the Village into a Town, and stating the limits intended to be included therein;

1st—Notice to be given.

(j) In case of the neglect or refusal of the Wardens to do as in the last section provided, a remedy is here given.

(k) This is a new provision, adopted in order to facilitate the formation of Villages into Towns, or Towns into Cities, whenever the population is sufficiently increased. The 20 Vic. cap. 67, which is now repealed, applied only to the incorporation of Villages, and not to the advancement of Towns to Cities.

(kk) The 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 49, providing for the taking of a periodical census, is here referred to.

(l) Any such By-law, i. e., a By-law passed pursuant to the last section.

2nd.—Proof of publication of notice and of census

3rd.—Proclamation in case of a Village.

4th.—Existing debts to be adjusted.

5th.—Governor may proclaim such City or Town

Secondly—And in case the Council applying, proves the publication to the Governor in Council; and procures the census returns to be certified to him under the signature of the Head of the Corporation and under the Corporate seal; (m)

Thirdly—Then in the case of a Village, the Governor may, by Proclamation, erect the Village into a Town by a name to be given thereto in the Proclamation; (n)

Fourthly—And in case the application is for the erection of a Town into a City,—if the Town has moreover paid to the County of which it formed part, such portion, if any, of the debts of the County as may be just (o), or if the Council of the Town has agreed with the Council of the County as to the amount to be so paid, and the periods of payment with interest from the time of the erection of the new City, or in case of disagreement if the same has been determined (as it shall be) by arbitration under this Act (p); and if the Council proves to the Governor in Council the payment, agreement or arbitration; (q)

Fifthly—Then the Governor may by Proclamation erect the Town into a City, by a name to be given thereto in the Proclamation. (qq)

16.—The Governor may include in the new Town or City, such portions of any Township or Townships adjacent thereto, and within the limits mentioned in the aforesaid notice (r)

(m) This and the preceding subsection apply both to Towns and incorporated Villages.

(n) A distinction is here to be observed between Towns and Incorporated Villages. This subsection applies to Incorporated Villages only.

(o) This subsection applies to Towns only. It is an additional condition precedent to the application. It is rendered necessary in the case of a Town, as distinguished from a Village, because when a town becomes a City it is no longer, like a Village becoming a Town, still within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Council of the County, as respects debts and rates and representation by Reeves in the County Council.

(p) See sec. 386, et seq.

(q) Three methods are provided. First, actual payment. Second, a mutual agreement as to the amount and time of payment. Third, an arbitration in case of disagreement.

(qq) The first and second subsections contain the conditions as to Villages becoming Towns—the first, second and fourth, as to Towns becoming Cities.

(r) Aforesaid Notice. The notice intended is that mentioned at the end of subsection 1 of the last section, and shows how important it as, from the proximity of streets or buildings, or the probable future exigencies of the new Town or City, the Governor in Council may consider it desirable to attach thereto.

17.—The Governor may divide the new Town or City ^{Wards.} into Wards with appropriate names and boundaries, but no Town shall have less than three Wards, and no Ward less than five hundred inhabitants. (rr)

18.—In case any tract of land so attached to the Town or City belonged to another County, the same shall, thenceforward for all purposes cease to belong to such other County, and shall belong to the same County as the rest of the Town or City. (s) ^{Lands detached from Counties.}

NEW DIVISION OF WARDS IN CITIES AND TOWNS.

19.—In case two-thirds of the Members of the Council of a City or Town do in Council (ss) before the Fifteenth day of July in any year, (t) pass a resolution (u) affirming the expediency of a new division into Wards being made of the City or Town or of a part of the same, (v) either within the existing limits or with the addition of any part of the localities adjacent, which from the proximity of streets or buildings therein, or the probable future exigencies of the City or Town, it may seem desirable to add thereto respectively, (w) the Governor may by Proclamation divide the City or Town, or such part ^{New division of Wards in Cities and Towns.}

is for the notice to express clearly the limits of the Town or City as proposed by the Council.

(rr) Villages are not to be divided.

(s) Towns and Cities for some purposes continue parts of the County in which situate, and this section provides for the annexation of tracts detached under the foregoing clauses.

(ss) This it is apprehended means a majority of two-thirds of the whole number of Councillors, and not merely two-thirds of a less number present at the meeting, though the number present be sufficient to form a quorum for ordinary business.

(t) It ought to be observed that the time is here expressly limited. If the act authorised be done after the time limited, it would be a nullity.

(u) A Municipal Council ordinarily does public acts through the instrumentality of a formal by-law. No by-law is however here necessary. A formal resolution is all that is required. One difference between a by-law and a resolution is that the former must bear the corporate seal and the latter need not do so.

(v) A change in one or more Wards of a City or Town, without disturbing the remaining Wards, is contemplated.

(w) This admits of tracts of adjacent Townships being added to Cities or Towns and annexed to specific Wards.

thereof into Wards, as may seem expedient; and may add to the City or Town any part of the adjacent Township or Townships, which the Governor in Council on the grounds aforesaid considers it desirable to attach thereto. (x)

LIBERTIES IN CITIES ABOLISHED.

EXISTING BY-LAWS CONTINUED.

21.—When a Village has been incorporated, or an incorporated Village or Town has been with or without additional area, erected into a Town or City, the By-laws in force therein respectively shall continue in force until repealed or altered by the Council of the new Corporation. (z) But no such By-laws shall be repealed or altered unless they could have been or can be legally repealed or altered by the Council which passed the same. (a)

By-laws to continue in Cities, Towns and Villages.

When not to be repealed.

When the limits of a Municipality are extended

22.—When an addition is made to the limits of a Municipality, the By-laws of the Municipality shall extend to the additional limits, and the By-laws of the Municipality from which the same has been detached shall cease to apply to the addition, except only By-laws relating to Roads and streets,

(x) It would seem to be in the discretion of the Governor to fix or define the Wards, or make any necessary alterations therein, but it is probable that the wishes of the Town or City Council would be complied with by him. It may therefore be important that the resolution should explicitly state the changes or additions deemed expedient by the Council. No published or other notice of the intended application is required.

(y) Under former statutes, there were Liberties and Outer Wards attached to Cities; but it is believed that all such have been, before the passing of this statute, incorporated in the Cities, and made Inner Wards thereof, and it is not deemed expedient to authorize either Liberties or Outer Wards for the future.

(z) This section relates to Villages newly incorporated, to Villages already incorporated made Towns, and to Towns made Cities. An unincorporated Village is subject to the jurisdiction and by-laws of the Township and County Councils. Villages and Towns incorporated are themselves Municipalities, independent of Township Councils. The design of this section is to continue the by-laws of the Township Council in a Village newly incorporated, until the by-laws are altered by the Council of the Village. So also the by-laws of an incorporated Village when it becomes a Town, and of a Town when it becomes a City, are continued until duly repealed.

(a) The object of this part of the section is to prohibit the repeal by the new Council of by-laws securing the payment of debentures, &c., which could not be repealed by the old Municipal Council.

and these shall remain in force until repealed by By-laws of the Municipality added to. (b)

LIABILITY TO DEBTS TO CONTINUE.

23.—In case of the formation of an incorporated Village, or of the erection of an incorporated Village into a Town, or of a Town into a City, the Village, Town or City, shall remain liable to all the debts and liabilities to which the Village or Town was previously liable, in like manner as if the same had been contracted or incurred by the new Municipality. (c)

Liability to debts to continue.

24.—After an addition has been made to a Village, Town or City, the Village, Town or City shall pay to the Township or County from which the additional tract has been taken, such part (if any) of the debts of the Township or County as may be just; (d) and in case the Councils do not within three months after the first meeting of the Municipality to which the addition has been made, agree as to the sum

And in case of an extension of limits.

(b) The object of this section is to extend the existing by-laws of a Municipality to tracts of land added to the Municipality after the passing of the by-laws, and to indicate the exemption of such tracts of land from the operation of the by-laws of the Municipality to which they formerly belonged. Even the operation of by-laws of the old Municipality creating debts, &c., are thus got rid of; but by-laws relating to roads or streets, within the limits of such tracts, are continued until repealed by the Council acquiring jurisdiction over the same. With regard to by-laws creating debt, secs. 23 and 24 of this act ought to be read in connexion with the one here annotated.

(c) This strengthens the provisions contained in previous sections for the protection of creditors. The first line of the section appears to be new and now for the first time enacted. Formerly, Junior Townships and Junior Counties only after separation were still made liable to existing debts. The present section extends the liability to a newly erected Incorporated Village, i. e. renders it still liable for debts of the Township at the time of the incorporation of the Village. A Village made a Town of course remains subject to its debts, being in effect the same Municipality advanced to a Town. So if a Town be erected into a City. The effect of this section is that a village newly incorporated remains liable to pre-existing township debts, and towns and cities respectively remain liable for the debts contracted by them while they were incorporated villages or towns. It is apprehended that with regard to Villages the section is not retrospective, that is, does not apply to Villages formed before the act takes effect.

(d) The effect of sec. 22 is to exempt tracts of land annexed from the debts of the Municipality to which they formerly belonged; and the effect of this section, read in connexion with it, is to render the Municipality to which the annexation is made liable to compensate the former Municipality a reasonable proportion of the pre-existing debts.

to be paid, or as to the time of payment thereof, the matter shall be settled by arbitration under this Act. (e)

COUNCILS AND OFFICERS TO CONTINUE.

Former Councils and Officers to exercise jurisdiction over new Municipalities, &c., until new Councils are organized.

25.—When any place is erected into an incorporated Village, or an incorporated Village into a Town, or a Town into a City, the Council and the members thereof having authority in the place or Municipality immediately before such erection, shall, until the Council for the newly erected Corporation is organised, continue to have the same powers as before; and all other Officers and Servants of the place or Municipality shall, until dismissed or until successors are appointed, continue in their respective offices, with the same powers, duties and liabilities as before. (f)

WITHDRAWAL OF TOWNS FROM THE JURISDICTION OF THE COUNTY.

Towns may be withdrawn from jurisdiction of County by By-laws on certain conditions.

26.—The Council of any Town may pass a By-law to withdraw the Town from the jurisdiction of the Council of the County within which the town is situated, upon obtaining the assent of the electors of the Town to the By-law in manner provided by this Act, (g) subject to the following provisions and conditions:

Amount to be paid by Town towards expenses of administration of justice to be settled.

1.—After the final passing of the By-law, the amount which the Town shall pay to the County for the expenses of the administration of Justice and the use of the Gaol, as well as for the then existing debt of the County, if not mutually agreed upon, shall be ascertained by arbitration under this Act; (h) and the agreement or award shall distinguish the amounts to be annually paid for the said expenses, and for the then

(e) Resort is to be had to arbitration only in case the Councils do not, within three months after the first meeting of the Municipality to which the addition has been made, agree as to the sum to be paid, or as to the time of payment. As to the arbitration in case of disagreement, see sec. 386 et seq.

(f) This continues the jurisdiction of the Township Council and officers, &c., over a newly incorporated Village, and so of the Council and officers of Villages and Towns respectively, until the organization of the first Council of the new Municipality.

(g) Cities are not subject to the jurisdiction of County Councils, but are as it were Counties of themselves. It is not so with Towns. The object of this section is to enable Towns to withdraw from the jurisdiction of County Councils. The provision is a new one. In the event of it being used, the conditions expressed in the subsections should be carefully observed.

(h) Arbitration is to take place in the event of disagreement. See sec. 386 et seq.

Matters to be considered in settling the same.

(j) The rule laid down is a fair one. Where the Town has contributed towards building roads or bridges outside of its limits, credit is to be given; but when the roads, &c., are within the limits, it is to be debited with a fair proportion of the outlay. In addition, the Town is to receive credit for the value of its interests in all County property, except roads and bridges within the Town.

6.—After the lapse of five years from the time of the agreement or award, or such shorter time as may be stated in the agreement or award, a new agreement or a new award may be made, to ascertain the amount to be paid by the Town to the County for the expenses of the administration of Justice; (n)

Property after withdrawal.

7.—After the withdrawal of a town from the County, all property theretofore owned by the County, except Roads and Bridges within the Town, shall remain the property of the County. (o)

TOWNSHIPS.

ERECTION OF NEW TOWNSHIPS.

New Townships beyond the limits of Incorporated Counties may be attached thereto.

27.—In case a Township is laid out by the Crown in territory forming no part of an Incorporated County, the Governor may by Proclamation erect the township, or two or more of such Townships lying adjacent to one another, into an Incorporated Township or Union of Townships, and annex the same to any adjacent Incorporated County; (p) and the proclamation shall appoint the Returning Officer who is to hold, and the place for holding, the first Election in the Township or Union of Townships. SEPARATION OF UNITED TOWNSHIPS.

(n) This is not to be understood as referring merely to the expenses of the administration of criminal Justice; for they are to be defrayed by the Province. (9 Vic. cap. 58.)

(o) This is a fair result of the preceding subsections.

(p) The provision contained in this section is entirely new. Before the passing of this act no Township could, for the purposes of election and municipal government, be organized until it contained a certain population. Here no such requirement is made. The Governor is enabled by proclamation to incorporate new Townships, separately or in unions.

(q) As to Elections, see sec. 81 and following sections.

(r) Resident freeholders and householders. There must be at least one hundred residents, and these residents must be either freeholders or householders, it matters not in what proportion. Females are not in terms excluded, though it is doubtful whether the law intends them to be included. (See sec. 75.)

29.—In case a Junior Township had at least fifty but less than one hundred resident freeholders and householders (v) on the last revised assessment roll, (w) and two-thirds of the resident freeholders and householders of the Township, petition the Council of the County to separate the Township from the Union to which it belongs; (x) and in case the Council considers the Township to be so situated, with reference to streams or other natural obstructions, that its inhabitants cannot conveniently be united with the inhabitants of an adjoining Township for Municipal purposes,—the Council may by By-law, separate the same from the Union; (y) and the By-law shall name the Returning Officer who is to hold, and the place for holding, the first Election under the same. (z)

When Junior Township containing less than 100, but exceeding 50, it may be separated and how.

ANNEXATION OF GORES.

30.—The Governor may, by Proclamation, annex to any Township, or partly to each of more Townships than one, any Gore or small tract of land lying adjacent thereto and not forming part of any Township, and such Gore or tract shall thenceforward for all purposes form part of the Township to which it is annexed. (a)

The Governor may annex Gores to adjacent Townships.

(s) The assessment roll is under the Assessment Act revised and finally passed by the Court of Appeal constituted by that Act. (16 Vic. cap. 182, s. 30.) The roll so revised and passed is the one here mentioned.

(t) The day of separation is postponed until the new year, that is, till the period is at hand for the yearly election of Municipal Councillors. (See sec. 87.)

(u) When the Junior Township attains the required population, the separation is to take place by operation of law.

(v) See note r to the preceding section.

(w) See note s to same.

(x) The petition may, under the circumstances stated, be made at any time of the year.

(y) The power of the County Council to interfere is only when it considers the Township to be so situated with reference to streams or other natural obstructions that its inhabitants cannot conveniently be united for municipal purposes with the inhabitants of an adjoining township. (See sec. 81.)

(z) It is to be observed that the By-law is to fix the place for holding the first election of Councillors, and to name the Returning Officer, neither of which is mentioned in the preceding section. The time is however fixed by sec. 82, subsec. 5. (See further, sec. 87.)

(a) This appears to be taken from statute 12 Vic. cap. 11, sec. 2, which authorized such annexation for all purposes, including of

ANNEXATION OF NEW TOWNSHIPS.

New Townships, &c., within the limits of Incorporated Counties, to be united to adjacent Townships, and how.

31.—In case a Township is laid out by the Crown in an incorporated County or Union of Counties; or in case there is any Township therein not incorporated and not belonging to an incorporated Union of Townships,—the Council of the County or United Counties shall, by By-law, unite such Township for Municipal purposes, to some adjacent incorporated Township or Union of Townships in the same County, or Union of Counties, and if such adjacent Township or adjacent Union is divided into Wards, then also to one Ward or partly to each of two or more Wards thereof. (b)

Townships not incorporated or united may be formed into unions, and how.

32.—In case of there being at any time in an incorporated County or Union of Counties two or more adjacent Townships not incorporated and not belonging to an incorporated Union of Townships; and in case such adjacent Townships have together not less than one hundred resident freeholders and householders within the same,—the Council of the County or Union of Counties may, by By-law, form such Townships into an independent Union of Townships. (c)

Townships in different Counties.

33.—In case the United Townships are in different Counties, the By-law shall cease to be in force whenever the union of the Counties is dissolved. (d)

SENIORITY OF TOWNSHIPS.

34.—Every Proclamation (e) or By-law forming a Union course municipal purposes. The Proclamation must it is presumed, as usual in the case of Crown Proclamations, be under the Great Seal of the Province. (Keyley v. Manning, Cro. Car. 180.)

(b) There are in some Counties tracts of land not surveyed or laid out in Townships, and this section requires the County Council of any such County to unite new townships when laid out with some adjacent Township or Townships, in order that the inhabitants may at once enjoy municipal rights and be subject to municipal liabilities.

(c) Under this section, Unions may be formed of two or more new townships, instead of annexing them to old townships. This can only be done when the joint population of resident freeholders and householders is not less in number than one hundred.

(d) No case can arise under this section, unless the Union have been made by the Council of United Counties of Townships in different Counties of the Union. When such has been done, and the Counties afterwards become separated, provision is made for the separation of the United Townships. The fact that the By-law is in such an event to "cease to be in force" as near as may be restores the Townships to the situation in which they were before the By-law passed.

(e) For instance, under sec. 27.

COUNTIES.

NEW COUNTIES.

35.—The Governor may, by Proclamation, form into a new County, any new Townships not within the limits of an Incorporated County, and may include in the new County one or more unincorporated Townships or other adjacent unorganized Territory, (defining the limits thereof) not being within an Incorporated County, and may annex the new County to any adjacent Incorporated County; or in case there is no adjacent Incorporated County, or in case the Governor in Council considers the new County, or any number of such new Counties lying adjacent to one another and not belonging to an Incorporated Union, so situated that the Inhabitants cannot conveniently be united with the inhabitants of an adjoining Incorporated County for Municipal purposes, the Governor may, by the Proclamation, erect the new County, or new adjacent Counties, into an independent County or Union of Counties for the said purposes, and the Proclamation shall name the new County or Counties. (h)

New Counties how formed by proclamation and annexed or united.

(g) The order of seniority of United Townships is to be declared in the Proclamation or By-law, as the case may be, and the seniority is to be governed by population, so that the more populous Township is to be the senior.

(h) The provisions of this section are new. They facilitate the formation of Counties and Unions of Counties in newly organized tracts of land, without the necessity of express Acts of Parliament.

(i) There is to be not only seniority among United Townships, but seniority among United Counties. While among the former seniority is to be determined by population, among the latter it is to be determined by the situation of the County Court House and Gaol. This was the old law.

By the 12 Vic. cap. 78, sec. 19, and 12 Vic. cap. 79, sec. 8, that upon the disuniting of a Junior County from a Union of Counties there shall be a separate Registry of Titles for such County, as for other Counties generally in Upper Canada. By the 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 5, sec. 2, that each County entitled to a Representative in Parliament shall have a separate Registry Office for the registration of titles, and that Registrars shall be appointed accordingly. By the 22 Vic. cap. 96, provision is also made for the establishment of separate Registry Offices in Cities, Junior Counties before separation, and Ridings of Counties.

(p) It ought to be observed that the gaol and court-house are to be erected before an agreement respecting the debts of the Union is to be entered into, and then and not till then the County about to be separated is to arrange with the remaining County or Counties for a due proportion of the joint debts. In case the Councils do not agree as to the amount or periods of payment, they are to arbitrate. (See sec. 48.)

(a) The reason is plain. Though the members of the Provisional Council are also members of the Council of the Union, yet in this negotiation, the matter lies between the Provisional Council on the one hand and the Council of the Union on the other. And the Provisional Council being for this purpose an independent and interested body, it follows that the interest of the Union, which is virtually the interest of the senior or remaining County or Counties should be protected by the Councillors of the senior or remaining County or Counties.

(c) The sum to be paid by the junior to the senior or remaining County or Counties, is "the amount so agreed upon or settled," that is, either the amount agreed upon between the Counties without arbitration, or the amount settled by arbitration.

(d) Nothing is here said as to the rate of interest. (See 22 Vic. c. 85.)

WHEN A JUNIOR COUNTY MAY BE SEPARATED.

51.— After such appointments are made, the Governor shall, by proclamation, separate the Junior County from the Senior or remaining County or Counties, and shall declare such separation to take effect on the first day of January next after the end of three calendar months from the date of the Proclamation; (i) and on that day the courts and officers of the Union shall cease to have any jurisdiction in the Junior United Counties, when and how to be separated by Proclamation.

(f) The necessity for and object of these preparatory appointments are obvious.

(g) That is the day when the junior County for Municipal and Judicial purposes becomes a separate and independent County.

(h) By the Registry Act of 1846, it is provided that the Registrar is to keep his office in the place named in his commission, or at such other place as may be appointed by proclamation (9 Vic. c. 34, s. 4); and by the Registry Act of last session, intitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of Separate Registry Offices in Cities, Junior Counties, and Ridings of Counties, in Upper Canada," it is made lawful for the Governor of this Province, so often as he shall deem the circumstances of any City, or of any Junior County of an Union of Counties, or Riding of a County or Counties not set apart for judicial or municipal purposes, such as to call for or render expedient and advisable the establishment therein of a separate Registry Office for the registration of deeds, conveyances, wills, judgments, and other documents or incumbrances which may affect any lands, tenements or hereditaments, within such City or Junior County or Riding of a County or Counties, by an Order in Council to cause to be issued a Proclamation under the Great Seal of this Province, and thereby to set apart and establish a Registry Office for such City or Junior County or Riding of a County or Counties, and in the case of a Junior County or Riding of a County or Counties, to name some place where the office of the Registrar shall be held until the dissolution of such Union of Counties or erection of such Riding into a separate County, and the fixing therein of a County Town; when such Registry Office shall be removed to and kept in such County Town. (22 Vic. cap. 95, sec. 1.)

(i) It will be seen that the separation does not necessarily take place on the first day of January next after the proclamation, but next after "the end of three calendar months from the date of the proclamation." So that if three calendar months of the expiring year do not remain after the date of the proclamation, the separation will be deferred until the first day of January in the second year, reckoned from the date of the proclamation.

(j) This is a very important provision. Every word of it deserves attention. It is, that on the day when the Junior County becomes separate and independent "the Courts and Officers of the Union shall cease to have any jurisdiction in the Junior County." Who are "Officers of the Union?" Is a commissioner for taking affidavits, appointed by the Courts, such an Officer? Though there is room for argument that he is not, the better opinion would appear to be that he is. (See McWhirter v. Corbett, 4 U. C. C. P. 208; Carver v. Sullivan et al, 1b. 298; Glick v. Davidson, 15 U. C. Q. B. 591; Fleming v. McNaughton, 16 U. C. Q. B. 194.) When the jurisdiction of all such officers after the separation, as to the County separated, is to cease. No provision is here made for a continuance of their authority in the County separated, dependent on residence in that County, or any other circumstance.

(k) The section applies only to pending actions, informations, indictments, or other judicial proceedings, &c., to be tried by a jury. The reason is that in any such proceeding, the jury is to be summoned from the United Counties, or separated County, as the case may be.

(l) It seems to be in the discretion of the Court or Judge to grant or refuse the application.

&c., are situate. (Sec. 36.) The object of this section is to fix the County in which pending proceedings are to be continued, when no order has been made under the preceding section for changing the venue to the Junior County after its separation. No provision is made for the change of the style of venue. If no change be made, of course the jury would be summoned from the Senior or remaining County or Counties; so all other proceedings connected therewith would be conducted therein.

(p) Such as Assizes, Quarter Sessions, County Courts, and Surrogate Courts, but not Division Courts, unless it be the Court for the Division in which the County Town is situate.

(q) This of course means after the Junior County has become an independent County by the separation.

(r) Offences which may be made the subject of indictment and are below the crime of treason may be divided into two classes—felonies and misdemeanors. The term felony appears to have been long used to signify the degree or class of crime committed, rather than the penal consequence or forfeiture occasioned by the crime, according to its original signification. The proper definition of it, however, as stated by an excellent writer, recurs to the subject of forfeiture, and describes the word as signifying an offence which occasions a total forfeiture of either lands or goods or both, at common law; and to which capital or other punishment may be superadded, according to the degree of guilt. With regard to felonies created by statute, it seems clear that not only those crimes which are made felonies in express words, but also all those which are decreed to have or undergo judgment of life and member by any statute, become felonies thereby, whether the word "felony" be omitted or mentioned. The word "misdemeanor," in its usual acceptation, is applied to all those crimes and offences for which the law has not provided a particular name, and they may be punished according to the degree of the offence, by fine or imprisonment or both. A misdemeanor is in truth any crime less than a felony; misdemeanors comprehending all indictable offences which do not amount to felony as perjury, battery, libels, conspiracies, and public nuisances. (Russell on Crimes, i. 44.)

(s) Under certain circumstances, crimes of a given nature may be tried and punished without indictment, that is summarily, by a magistrate. (20 Vic. cap. 29; 22 Vic. cap. 55.)

unless a Judge of one of the Superior Courts of Common Law orders the proceedings to be conducted in the Junior County, in which event the prisoner or recognizances (as the case may be) shall be removed to the latter County and the proceedings shall be had therein; (t) and when in any such case the offence is charged to have been committed in a County other than that in which such proceedings are had, the venue may be laid in the proper County describing it as formerly "one of the United Counties of, &c." (t) By sec. 52, the power to change the venue can only be exercised where the indictment, &c., is pending. This section impliedly authorises a change before indictment found.

(u) The form of venue here given ought to be well observed.

(v) Provision is here made for the case of a person arrested or held to bail on civil process; and if imprisoned, it is not only declared in what prison he shall be confined, but in what county proceedings shall be carried on, that is, in the County in which he was arrested. No Judges order is in terms made necessary.

60.—After the dissolution of a Union of Townships, the following shall be the disposition of the property of the Union. (o)

(l) Thus while the debtor is on the limits he may enjoy the whole of the United Counties; if committed to close custody he is to be rendered to the Sheriff of the County, whether Junior or Senior, in which he was arrested.

Hence it is enacted by the section here annotated, that the head and members of the Provisional Council of the Junior County, and the officers, &c., shall be the head, &c., and the officers, &c., of the new Corporation.

(n) The effect of this section is to continue existing By-laws of the Union in both the Senior and Junior Counties and Townships respectively, after a separation, subject to the powers of each independent Council, to repeal or alter the same when the Council of the Union might have done so.

(p) The word "assets" is a word well known to the law. It is derived from the French word "assez"—enough. It has a restricted and an enlarged sense. In its restricted sense it means goods enough to discharge that burden which is cast upon an executor, &c., in satisfying the debts of a testator, &c. In its enlarged sense, as used in the Municipal Act, it means property as opposed to liabilities. In the section under consideration, provision is in the first subsection made for the disposition of the "real property of the Union situate in the Junior Township." In the second subsection, of the "real property of the Union situate in the remaining township or townships of the Union." Then, in the subsection here annotated, of "the other assets of the Union."

(q) As may be just. A very vague but under the circumstances as definite an expression as could well be used. The design of the enactment is that the Township Councils should in the first instance come to an understanding or agreement. Failing this, resort must under the next subsection be had to arbitration.

(u) Here we have declared the separate liability of each County or Township to the creditors of the Union, irrespective of the adjustment made under preceding sections between the Counties or Townships of the Union. Though it may be agreed by the adjustment that one County or one Township shall assume and pay all the debts of the Union, creditors are not bound by any such arrangement. No arrangement that may be made without the assent of the creditors can absolve the remaining Counties or Townships of the Union. Each County and Township is liable to contribute towards the satisfaction of the joint debts. (But see sec. 64.) The liability, as will be seen by the next section, exists in some cases though the debentures upon which the liability arises be issued by the Senior County, &c., alone, after the dissolution of the Union.

(v) In the reading of this section there are three points to be noted. First, that after the dissolution, the Council of the remaining County or Township shall issue its debentures, or other obligations; but, to be effectual under this section, only "for any part of any debt contracted by the Union." Second, that such debentures, &c., shall recite or state the liability of the Junior County or Township therefor, under this Act; and Third, that the Junior County or Township shall be liable thereon as if the same had been issued by the Junior County or Township. Some doubt may arise on the third point, as to the nature of the liability, i. e., whether it is to be a joint and several liability or joint only. The words used, "as if the same had been issued by the Junior County or Township," would indicate the former. (See also sec. 64.) The object of the section is to provide for the completion of securities to creditors not perfect at the time of separation.

senior County or Township, and the latter shall apply the moneys so received in the same manner as the money raised under the same By-law in the senior County or Township. (w)

64.—In case the amount so paid over to the Senior County or Township, or to any creditor of the Senior County or Township, in respect of a liability of the Union, exceeds the sum which, by the agreement or award between the Councils the Junior County or Township ought to pay, the excess may be recovered against the Senior or remaining County or Township as for money paid or as for money had and received, as the case may be. (w) The right to rates for the year next preceding the separation, which always takes place on 1st January, is here determined. The special rates mentioned are to be levied in each respective Municipality, after separation, and be collected by each respective collector, as if the By-law imposing the rates had been made after the separation by each County or Township separately. Such is the effect of the By-law of the Union having force in each Municipality severally after the dissolution of the Union. The duties of the Treasurers require careful attention.

(x) The liability of the Junior County or Township respectively, notwithstanding separation, is explained in the note to sec. 61. The right of the Senior County or Township to rates imposed before the separation, is also explained in the note to sec. 63. The section under consideration provides for the reimbursement of the Junior Municipality any sum which the Junior may have paid, exceeding the proportion which it, according to the adjustment with the Senior, was bound to contribute.

(y) Designated. That is described in all acts, deeds and matters of every kind in which it becomes necessary to refer to the head of the corporation by name.

(z) It is not the duty of the members of a Municipal Council to determine the validity of the election of one of their members. Where the Returning Officer has returned him elected, he may sit and vote until unseated by process of law. (In re Hawk and Ballard, 3 U. C. C. P. 241.)

The Council of every Town shall consist of the Mayor, who shall be the Head thereof, and of three Councillors for every Ward, (b) and if the Town has not withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the Council of the County in which it lies, one of the Councillors of the Town shall be elected by the Council, to be Reeve of the Town, (c) and if the Town had the names of five hundred resident freeholders and householders on the last revised assessment roll, then one other of the Councillors to be Deputy Reeve; (d)

(a) The Governor may divide a new City into Wards, with appropriate names and boundaries (sec. 17); and may, under certain circumstances, make a new division of Wards, or may add to the city any part of the adjacent Township (sec. 19).

(b) Incorporated Towns are divided into Wards; and no Town is to have less than three Wards; and no Ward less than five hundred inhabitants (sec. 17.)

(c) The Council of a Town may pass a By-Law to withdraw the Town from the Jurisdiction of the County Council (sec. 26); and if the Town be withdrawn, the Mayor and Councillors would form an independent Council. If independent they would have no rights to seats in the County Council, and the election of Reeves and a Deputy Reeve would therefore cease.

(d) The population of an Incorporated Town must always exceed five hundred inhabitants, as there must be three Wards, and each Ward contain that number of inhabitants (sec. 17); but there may be in an Incorporated Town more than five hundred inhabitants (including women and children), and yet not, as mentioned in this subsection, five hundred freeholders and householders, on the last revised assessment roll.

(e) A Village, to be incorporated, must contain seven hundred and fifty inhabitants (not freeholders and householders). (See preceding note).

(g)

67.—No Reeve or Deputy Reeve shall take his seat in the County Council until he has filed with the Clerk of the County Council a Certificate under the hand and seal of the Township, Village or Town Clerk, that such Reeve or Deputy Reeve was duly elected, and made and subscribed the declarations of office and qualification (a) (unless exempted therefrom,) (b) as such Reeve or Deputy Reeve; nor in the case of a Deputy Reeve, until he has also filed with the Clerk of the County an affidavit or affirmation of the Clerk, or other person having the legal custody of the last revised Assessment-Rolls for the Municipality which he represents, that there appear upon such Rolls the names of at least five hundred resident Freeholders and Householders in the Municipality. (b) Allusion is made to secs. 71 and 72.

(c) It is apprehended that the Council, having received the affidavit or affirmation of the Clerk, &c., that there appears upon the rolls the names of at least five hundred resident freeholders and householders, &c., have no right to question the fact by rejecting the Deputy Reeve, but should leave the truth of the fact, if doubted, to be determined by the Courts. QUALIFICATION OF MUNICIPAL COUNCILLORS AND POLICE TRUSTEES.

70.—The persons qualified to be elected Mayors, members of a Council or Police Trustees, are such residents of the County within which the Municipality or Police Village is situate as are not disqualified under this Act, (g) and have, at the time of the election, in their own right or in the right of their wives, as proprietors or tenants, freehold or leasehold property rated in their own names on the last revised Assessment-Roll of such Municipality or Police Village to at least the value following. (h)

Qualification of Councillors, &c.

In Townships—Freehold to four hundred dollars on Leasehold to eight hundred dollars;

In Townships.

In Police Villages—Freehold or Leasehold to four hundred dollars;

In Police Villages.

In Incorporated Villages—Freehold to forty dollars per annum, or Leasehold to eighty dollars per annum;

In Incorporated Villages.

In Towns—Freehold to Eighty dollars per annum, or Leasehold to One hundred and sixty dollars per annum;

In Towns.

And in Cities—for Aldermen—Freehold to One hundred and sixty dollars per annum, or Leasehold to Three hundred and twenty dollars per annum; and for Councilmen—Freehold to Eighty dollars per annum or Leasehold to One hundred and sixty dollars per annum;

In Cities.

And so in the same proportions in all Municipalities and Police Villages in case the property is partly freehold and partly leasehold.

As to property partly freehold.

The term "Leasehold" in this Section, shall not include a term less than a Tenancy for a year, or from year to year.

"Leasehold" defined.

(e) The corporate name of the Council should be "The Provisional Corporation of the County of (naming it)" (sec. 5).

(g) See sec. 78.

(h) A person not in fact rated on the roll is not eligible, though he may suppose he is, and though possessed of property sufficient to confer the qualification. (The Queen ex rel. Metcalfe v. Smart, 10 U.C. Q. B. 89.) Provision is in the next section made for the case of a new Township having no assessment roll (sec. 71). An administrator, though rated in his own name for real estate belonging to the deceased, is not entitled to vote upon such real estate: (The Queen ex rel. Stock v. Davis, 8 U. C. L. J. 128.)

71.— In case of a new Township erected by Proclamation for which there has been no Assessment-Roll, every person who at the time of the first election has such an interest in real property and to such an amount as herein before mentioned, shall be deemed to be possessed of a sufficient property qualification. (i) qualified.

72.— In case in a Municipality (k) there are not at least two persons qualified to be elected for each seat in the Council, no qualification beyond the qualification of an elector shall be necessary in the persons to be elected. (l)

DISQUALIFICATIONS.

tions.

73.— No Judge of any Court of Civil Jurisdiction, no Gaoler or Keeper of a House of Correction, no Officer of any Municipality, no Bailiff of a Division Court, no Sheriff's Officer no Innkeeper or Saloonkeeper, no person receiving any allowance from the Corporation (except as Mayor, Warden, Reeve, Deputy Reeve, or Township Councillor), and no person having by himself or his partner an interest in any contract with or on behalf of the Corporation, shall be qualified to be a Member of the Council of the Corporation. (m)

(i) It may happen that a new Township has not been previously assessed, either separately or as part of a Union. (Sec. 28 et seq.) This section is intended to meet such a case should it arise.

(k) The word "Municipality" means any locality the inhabitants of which are incorporated under this Act, but does not mean a Police Village. (Sec. 402, subsec. 1.)

(l) As to qualification of electors, see sec. 75 et seq.

(m) The object of the latter part of this section, like that of sec. 28 of the English Mun. Cor. Act of 5 & 6 Wm. IV. cap. 76, is clearly to prevent all dealings on the part of the Council with any of its members in their private capacity, in other words, to prevent a member of the Council, who stands in the situation of a trustee for the public, from taking any share or benefit out of the trust fund, or in any contract in the making of which he as one of the Council ought to exercise a superintendence. (Rawlinson's Mun. Man. 53.) The evil contemplated being evident, and the words used general, they will be construed to extend to all cases which come within the mischief intended to be guarded against, and which can fairly be brought within the words. (lb) The words of our enactment are that "no person having by himself or his partner an interest in any contract with or on behalf of the corporation shall be qualified, &c.;" and the words of the English Act are that "no person shall be qualified, &c., who shall have, directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner, any share or interest in any contract or employment with, by, or on behalf of such Council, &c." The difference deserves to be noticed. Under our old Act, of which the section here annotated is a re-enactment, it was held that a lessee of a Municipal

EXEMPTIONS.

74.—All persons over sixty years of age; all Members and Officers of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly; all persons in the Civil Service of the Crown; all Judges, not disqualified by the last preceding section, all Sheriffs and Coroners; all persons in Priests' Orders, Clergymen and Ministers of the Gospel of every denomination; all Members of the Law Society of Upper Canada, whether Barristers or Students; all Attorneys and Solicitors in actual practice; all Officers of Courts of Justice; all Members of the Medical Profession, whether Physicians or Surgeons; all Professors, Masters, Teachers and other Members of any University, College or School in Upper Canada, and all Officers and Servants thereof; all Millers; and all Firemen belonging to an authorized Fire Company—are exempt from being elected or appointed Councillors, or to any other Corporate Office (n)

Exemptions.

ELECTORS.

75.—The Electors of every Municipality for which there is an assessment roll, (o) and the Electors of every Police

Council is disqualified from sitting as a member of the Council. (The Queen ex rel. Stook v. Davis, 8 U. C. L. J. 128.) So a person who has contracted for a lease, though the contract be executed by himself only and not by the corporation. (Ib.) Where defendant, before the election, had tendered for some painting and glazing required for the city hospital, and his tender having been accepted, he had done a portion of the work, for which he had not been paid, but afterwards refused to execute a written contract prepared by the City Solicitor, and informed the Mayor of the City that he did not intend to go on with the work, he was notwithstanding held to be disqualified. (The Queen ex rel. Moore v. Miller, 11 U. C. Q. B. 465.) In such a case it is immaterial whether there is or is not a contract binding on the corporation. (Ib.) So where it was shown that the candidate elected was at the time of the election surety for the Treasurer of the Town and acting as the Solicitor of the Corporation, he was held to be disqualified. (The Queen ex rel. Coleman v. O'Hare, 2 U. C. Prac. Rep. 18.) So where the candidate was at the time of the election a shareholder in a company which had borrowed money from the Town. (The Queen ex rel. Padwell v. Stewart, Hambly, Ib.) Reference may also be had to the following decisions under the English Act: The Queen v. York, 2 Q. B. 847; Simpson v. Ready, 12 M. & W. 786; The Queen v. Francis, 21 L. J. Q. B. 304.

(n) The last section contains the disqualifications, and this, the exemptions. The difference between a disqualification and an exemption, as regards an individual, is this, that a person disqualified cannot hold office, but a person exempt, even though qualified, is not bound to accept office. The one is an incapacity or disability. The other is a privilege.

(o) See secs. 71 and 77.

Village, (p) shall be the male freeholders thereof, (q) and such of the householders thereof as have been resident therein (r) for one month next before the election, (s) who are natural born or naturalised subjects of Her Majesty, (t) and of the full age of twenty-one years, (u) and who were severally rated on the last revised assessment rolls, for real property in the Municipality or Police Village, held in their own right (w) or that of their wives as proprietors or tenants. (x)

(p) The distinction is here drawn between a Municipality and a Police Village. The word "Municipality" signifies any locality the inhabitants of which are incorporated. The inhabitants of a Police Village are not incorporated. (Sec. 402, subsec. 1.)

(q) Females being clearly excluded. This section appears to enable freeholders to vote though not resident. (See sec. 97, subsec. 9, as to the form of declaration.) But non-residents cannot vote unless rated on the assessment roll, which they may be at their own request. (See 16 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 17.) As to new townships, residence is still required in the case of freeholders. (See 77.)

(r) Nice questions arise as to when a party can, or cannot be said to be a resident of a Municipality. A man cannot, within the meaning of the municipal laws, be said to be resident in two Municipalities at the same time. A man's residence is where his home is situated—where his family live. An occasional absence from his home to attend to business in another Municipality does not make his home less his residence. Where A had a dwelling-house at Bowmanville, where his wife and family lived, but had a saw mill and store and was Postmaster in the township of Cartwright, which occasioned him frequently to visit that place, and who, while there, used to board with one of his men in a house owned by himself. Held, that after voting in Bowmanville he had no right to vote in Cartwright. (The Queen ex rel. Taylor v. Caesar, 11 U. C. Q. B. 461.)

(s) Residence for a fixed time is a new feature in municipal law.

(t) See 12 Vic. cap. 197, as amended by 22 Vic. cap. 1.

(u) Full age in male or female is twenty-one years, and is completed on the day preceding the anniversary of a person's birth. (Anonymous, 1 Salk. 44; Toder v. Sansam, 1 Brown P. C. 468.) If therefore one is born on 1st January, he is of age to do any legal act on the morning of the last day of December, though he may not have lived twenty-one years by nearly forty-eight hours. (Tomlin "Infant," 1.)

(w) An administrator cannot, though assessed in his own name for the property of the deceased, vote on such property. (The Queen ex rel. Stock v. Davis, 8 U. C. L. J. 128.)

(x) It is to be observed that no specific amount of real property is by this section required. It is only necessary that the person should be rated, &c., for real property in the Municipality, &c., held in his own right, &c. Such is undoubtedly the law as to Townships and Police Villages. As to Cities, Towns and Incorporated Villages, the law is different. (See sec. 76.)

76.—In Cities, Towns and Incorporated Villages, (y) such real property, whether freehold or leasehold, or partly each, (x) must have been so rated as of at least the annual value following:

In Incorporated Villages, twelve dollars; (a)

In Towns, twenty dollars; and

In Cities, thirty dollars.

77.—At the first election for a newly erected Municipality for which there is no separate assessment-roll (b) every resident male inhabitant; (c) though not previously assessed, shall be entitled to vote if he possesses the other qualifications above mentioned, and has at the time of the election sufficient property to have entitled him to vote if he had been rated for such property, (d) and every person so claiming to vote shall name the property on which he votes, and the Returning Officer, at the request of any Candidate or voter, shall note the property in his poll book opposite the voter's name. (e)

In newly erected Townships not having any assessment rolls.

(y) See note x to preceding section.

(a) The property, whether freehold or household, or a combination of both, if of the annual value specified, entitles the person to vote.

(b) There is no general law which makes dollars and cents a more correct or lawful designation of Canadian money than pounds, shillings and pence. The only law of the kind really in force is 20 Vic. cap. 18, which requires all accounts rendered to the Provincial Government, &c., to be in dollars and cents. The adoption of dollars and cents by bankers and others is conventional. The description by dollars and cents is however invariably used throughout this Act, in preference to that by pounds, shillings and pence.

(b) A newly erected Municipality means more than a newly erected Township, and may include a Junior Township newly separated. In such a case, although there might be no "separate assessment roll," there would be the assessment roll of the Union for the previous year, and there might be several assessment rolls for "Assessment Districts," each less than the United Townships. (16 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 16.) The exception, however, created by this section appears to be intended to apply only to new Townships created Municipalities in the first instance.

(c) See note r to sec. 75.

(d) See note x to same section.

(e) Every voter is required to name the property on which he votes, but the Returning Officer is only bound to note the property in his poll book when requested to do so by a candidate or a voter.

Wards in which electors shall vote.

78.—When a Municipality (f) is divided into Wards or electoral divisions, (g) no elector shall vote in more than one Ward or electoral division; and if entitled to vote in the Ward in which he resides, he shall not be entitled to vote in any other Ward or electoral division. (h)

When land-lord and tenant both rated.

79.—In case both the owner and occupant of any real property, (i) are rated therefor, both shall be deemed rated within this Act. (j)

When joint owners rated together.

80.—When any real property, (k) is owned or occupied jointly by two or more persons, (l) and is rated at an amount sufficient, (m) if equally divided between them, to give a qualification to each, then each shall be deemed rated within this Act, (n) otherwise none of them shall be deemed so rated. (o)

ELECTIONS.

THE HOLDING OF, IN CERTAIN PLACES PROHIBITED.

Elections not in Taverns.

81.—No Election of Township Councillors shall be held within any City, Town or Incorporated Village, nor shall any Election for a Municipality or any Ward thereof be held in a tavern or house of public entertainment licensed to sell spirituous liquors. (p)

(f) See sec. 402, subsec. 1.

(g) Whenever a Township is not divided into Wards, the Council may from time to time pass by-laws for dividing it into two or more convenient electoral divisions, for establishing polling places therein and for appointing a Returning Officer therefor, &c. (Sec. 268.)

(h) As to residence see note r to sec. 75.

(i) See sec. 402, subsec. 5.

(j) That is to say, each may vote in respect of his interest, the one as proprietor if a freeholder, and the other as tenant if a resident householder. (Secs. 75, 97, subsec. 9.)

(k) See sec. 402, subsec. 5.

(l) Notwithstanding the Interpretation Act 12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 8, the word "persons," as here used, seems applicable only to individual persons, not to corporations.

(m) As to Townships and Police Villages, no amount is required to qualify an elector. (See note s to sec. 75.)

(n) See sec. 76.

(o) It seems hard that in such a case neither one nor the other should be entitled to vote; but as the property cannot be said to be the property of either, neither owner nor occupant can in the case supposed be said to be rated at the amount required, where an amount is necessary.

(p) By the English Municipal Act 5 & 6 Wm. IV. cap. 76, sec. 83, it is declared that "no election shall be holden, &c., in any Borough, 88.—In case of the separation of a Union of Townships, the existing division into Wards, if any, shall cease as if the same had been duly abolished by By-law, and the elections of Councillors shall be by general vote until the Township or Townships are again divided into Wards under the provisions of this Act. (m) Should the County Council, in the case of a Junior Township having one hundred resident freeholders and householders, &c., not pass a by-law before 31st October appointing a place to hold the first annual election of Councillors in the Township, the election might, it is supposed, be conducted by general vote under this section.

After first election, Po-

93.—In Police Villages, after the first election, (u) the Trustees thereof, or any two of them, shall from time to time, by writing under their hands, (v) appoint the Returning Officer. (w)

vided for.

94.—In case, at the time appointed for holding an election, the person appointed to be Returning Officer has died, or does not attend to hold the election within an hour after the time appointed, (x) or in case no Returning Officer has been appointed, (y) the electors present at the place for holding the election may choose from amongst themselves a Returning Officer, and such Returning Officer shall have all the powers, and shall forthwith proceed to hold the election and perform all the other duties of a Returning Officer. (z)

THE RETURNING OFFICER TO BE A CONSERVATOR OF THE PEACE.

Returning Officers to be
of the peace.

95.—The Returning Officer shall, during the election, act as a Conservator of the Peace for the City or County in which the election is held; and he, or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the Municipality in which the election is held, may cause to be arrested, and may summarily try and punish by fine or imprisonment, or both, or may imprison or bind over to keep the peace, or for trial, any riotous or dis-

(i) The appointment is to be made by the by-law establishing the Village, and if not then made may it is presumed be made pursuant to sec. 94. (See sec. 10.)

(u) Which is provided for by the preceding section.

(v) Police Villages, not being incorporated, of course have not a corporate seal.

(w) A distinction is to be observed between the appointment of the place for holding an election in a Police Village and the appointment of a Returning Officer to hold it. The place is appointed pursuant to sec. 85. The Returning Officer pursuant either to sec. 92 or 93.

(x) If the Returning Officer be not dead, but fail to attend, a full hour must elapse before the electors present can choose from among themselves a Returning Officer to supply his place, and when the substitute is so chosen it is apprehended the original Returning Officer cannot appear and take the business out of his hands.

orderly person who assaults, beats, molests or threatens any voter coming to, remaining at, or going from the election, (a) and, when thereto required, all constables and persons present at the election, shall assist the Returning Officer or Justice of the Peace, on pain of being guilty of a misdemeanor. (b)

MAY SWEAR IN SPECIAL CONSTABLES.

96.—Every Returning Officer or Justice of the Peace may appoint and swear in any number of Special constables to assist in the preservation of the Peace and conduct the election; and any person liable to serve as Constable as required to be sworn in as a Special Constable by the Returning Officer or Justice shall, if he refuses to be sworn in or to serve, be liable to a penalty of twenty dollars, to be recovered to the use of any one who will sue therefor. (c)

Special Constables may be sworn in.

PROCEEDINGS AT ELECTIONS.

97.—The proceedings at elections shall be as follow:

Elections, how conducted.

1. Every Returning Officer shall, unless otherwise provided by law, give at least ten days' previous notice of the election to be held by him, by posting the notice in at least four public places in the Municipality, Ward, Electoral Division, or Police Village. (d)

Notices.

(a) In general, the Returning Officer will act under this section upon his own view. But when, instead of acting on facts observed by himself or within his own knowledge, he acts on the information of others, it is suggested he should take the regular information, and proceed as any other magistrate would be required to do under like circumstances. (See 16 Vic. cap. 178) An example would be, when the complaint is an assault upon a voter coming to or returning from the election, committed at a distance from the poll. The main object of the section is however to empower the Returning Officer to act promptly on the spot in the hearing and determining of offences occurring at the poll; but in point of authority he is not so restricted.

(b) Misdemeanor. See note r. to sec. 55.

(c) It is the design of this section to confer additional powers on the Returning Officers, &c., of which it behoves all persons liable to serve as special constables to be advised and take notice. The penalty may, it is apprehended, though not so expressed, be sued for in any court of competent jurisdiction, for instance in a Division Court.

(d) The notice of the intended election to be good, must be good both as to time and place. It must be given "at least ten days" and must be posted up "in at least four public places, &c." Now where a statute says a thing shall be done so many days, or so many days at least, before a given event, the day of the thing done and that of the event must both be excluded (The King v. Justices of Shropshire, 8 A. & E. 178; Mitchell v. Foster, 9 Dowl. P. C. 527.) Thus suppose the day for the intended election to be 3rd January, notice thereof,

The Clerk to deliver copies of the Assessment Rolls to the Returning Officer,

2. The Clerk of the Municipality shall deliver to the Returning Officer who is to preside at the election for the same, or for every or any Ward, or Electoral Division thereof, a correct copy of so much of the last revised Assessment-Roll for the Municipality, Ward, or Electoral Division, as contains the names of all male Freeholders and Householders rated upon the roll in respect of real property lying in the Municipality, Ward, or Electoral Division, with the assessed value of the real property for which every such person is so rated. (e)

With his declaration verifying the same.

3. The Clerk shall deliver with such copy his solemn declaration, to the effect that the copy is a true copy of so much of the said roll as relates to such Municipality, Ward or Electoral Division, and contains the names of all male freeholders and householders rated upon the roll in respect of real property lying in the Municipality, Ward or Electoral Division, with the assessed value of the real property for which they are so rated respectively. (f) to be good, would require to be given at latest on 23rd December preceding. As to the posting of the notice in four public places at least, there is less room for doubt. The only difficulty, if any, likely to arise, is to what places are to be deemed "public." To obviate the difficulty, the Returning Officer has only to choose the four most public places in the Municipality, &c., and he will be safe. It is apprehended that where a newspaper is published in the locality, the notice will, in addition to posting up, be published in it for the requisite time, as being the most satisfactory mode of notification, though not the one authorized or required.

(e) The law requires the Returning Officer to be furnished with a correct copy of so much of the last revised assessment roll for the Municipality, &c., as contains the names of all freeholders rated upon the roll, &c., and it is obvious for what purpose. The purpose is, not to enable the Returning Officer himself to judge of the sufficiency or insufficiency of votes taken, but that all persons interested in the election may have a check at hand at the time of polling the votes. (The Queen ex rel. Dundas v. Niles, 1 U. C. Cham. Rep. 198; see also secs. 75, 76, 77.) Persons whose names are on the original roll, though omitted by accident from the copy, may it seems claim a right to vote; but not persons whose names are on the copy, though not on the original roll. (The Queen ex rel. Helliwell v. Stephenson, 1 U. C. Cham. Rep. 270.) The copy of the assessment roll furnished to the Returning Officer ought to be alphabetical, and if not so the Returning Officer should himself make it alphabetical. (The Queen ex rel. Davis v. Wilson et al. Chambers, Richards, J., 8 U. C. L. J. 165.) Where the Returning Officer used the original collector's roll, instead of a copy, having first announced that he intended to do so, and no one objected, Held that the election was valid. (The Queen ex rel. Hall v. Grey et al., 15 U. C. Q. B. 257.)

The Township Clerk shall also deliver to the Returning Officer who is to preside at the election for any police village in the township, a correct copy of so much of the said assessment roll as contains the names of all the male freeholders and householders in the village, and the amount for which they are respectively assessed, together with a like solemn declaration verifying the same, as in the case of municipal elections. (g)

Township Clerk to deliver Assessment Roll to Returning Officer for Police Villages.

5. The Returning Officer shall provide a poll-book; and at every election at which a poll is demanded, he or his sworn poll-clerk shall enter in such book in separate columns the names of the candidates proposed and seconded by any electors present at the election, and shall opposite to such columns write the names of the electors offering to vote at the election, and shall in each column in which is entered the name of a candidate voted for by a voter set the figure 1 opposite the voter's name. (h)

6. The Returning Officer shall commence every election at ten of the clock in the forenoon. (i)

Hour for commencing Elections.

7. The Returning Officer may close the election in one hour after commencing the same, if within that time no more candidates are proposed than by his writ he is to return; but in case there are more candidates and a poll is demanded, he shall keep open the election till four of the clock in the afternoon of the first day, and then adjourn the same until ten of the clock in the forenoon of the next day, not being a Sunday or a legal holyday, and continue the same till four of the clock in the afternoon thereof, and no longer; but if in the meantime he sees that all the electors intending to vote have had a fair opportunity of being polled, and if one full hour at one time has elapsed without any qualified elector during that time giving or tendering his vote, free access having been allowed to electors for the purpose, the Returning Officer may close the election at four o'clock of the first day, or at any earlier hour of the second day. (j)

Time of closing.

Clerk of, &c., do solemnly declare that the annexed is a true copy, &c. (as in the statute).

(g) A police village not being "a municipality," within the meaning of the statute (s. 402, subsec. 1), the necessity for this as a separate and independent provision is obvious.

(h) It is made the duty of the Returning Officer, not of the municipality, to provide the poll-book.

(i) Should the Returning Officer fail to comply with this clause, by reason of riot or other emergency, a remedy is provided. (Secs. 99, 100.)

(j) This sub-section, so far as material to the following observa-

8. The Returning Officer may administer all oaths or affirmations necessary at the election. (k)

9. At any election, or at any public vote in respect of a by-law which requires the assent of the electors, the only oaths or affirmations to be required of any person claiming to vote, and appearing by the last revised assessment roll, if any (l), to have the necessary property qualification, are, that he is of the full age of twenty-one years, and is a natural-born or naturalized subject of her Majesty; that he has been, if a householder, a resident within the municipality for which the election is held or vote taken for one month next before the election, and that he has not before voted at the election or on the by-law (as the case may be); and that he is the person named in the last revised assessment roll, (or, in case of a new municipality, in which there has not yet been any assessment roll,) that he is a resident freeholder or householder in (naming the property

tions, is almost a literal copy of s. 159 of the repealed statute 12 Vic. cap. 81. The meaning of it is, that the Returning Officer shall keep the poll open throughout the first day till four o'clock, and if no voter shall come up to vote for an hour or more after he received the last vote on the first day and before he so closes at four o'clock, and if he shall see that all the electors intending to vote shall have had a fair opportunity of being polled, then he may close the poll finally at four o'clock on the first day. But it is not intended that after a pause of an hour in the early part of the first day without any voter coming up, he shall resume the polling notwithstanding as soon as a voter shall make his appearance, and so go on till four o'clock, and then close the poll finally. His resuming the polling in such a case will be taken as proof that the hour's delay which had occurred previously did not arise from the fact that all had then voted who intended to vote. (Regina ex rel. Greely et al. v. Gilbert, 16 U. C. Q. B. 268.) It is necessary that during the hours for polling, the electors shall have free access to the polling place. The fact that a large number of duly qualified electors could not cast their votes, is a sufficient reason for setting aside an election, if the result would have been affected by the unpolled votes. (The Queen ex rel. Wilson v. Davis et al., Chambers, Richards, J., 8 U. C. L. J. 165.) In case, by reason of a riot or other emergency, the election is not commenced on the proper day, or is interrupted after being commenced, provision is made for an extension of the time for receiving votes. (Secs. 99, 100.)

(k) The Returning Officer should, on request of either of the candidates, or his agent, (whether such agent be or be not a duly qualified elector), administer the necessary oaths or affirmations. (The Queen ex rel. Gardiner v. Perry; Chambers; Hagarty, J.; May 12, 1867.)

entitling him to vote at the election); and that he has not directly or indirectly received any reward or gift, nor does he expect to receive any, for the vote which he tenders at this election (m). And such oaths shall be administered at the request of any candidate or elector. And no inquiries shall be made of any such person except with respect to the facts specified in such oaths or affirmations. (n)

10. The Returning Officer shall, at the close of the poll, add up the number of votes set down for each candidate, except for the office of mayor in cities and towns (o), and shall publicly declare the same, beginning with the candidate having the greatest number, and so on with the others, and shall thereupon publicly declare elected the candidate or candidates respectively standing highest on the poll. (p)

11. In case two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, the Returning Officer, whether otherwise qualified or not, shall give a vote for one or more of such candidates, so as to decide the election; and, except in such case, no Returning Officer shall vote at any election held by him. (q)

12. The Returning Officer shall, within three days after the close of the election (r), return the poll-book to the Clerk of the municipality from whom he received the copy of the assessment roll (s), and also his solemn declaration thereto

(m) Read notes on sec. 75, et seq., which prescribe the qualification of electors.

(n) See note k above.

(o) As to which, see sec. 101, et seq.

(p) The duty of the Returning Officer is imperative. His failure in any material point to observe it, might invalidate the election.

(q) It would be well for Returning Officers to pay close attention to this clause. No Returning Officer, whether qualified as an elector or not, is allowed to vote at any election for which he is Returning Officer. The exception is, when two or more of the candidates have an equal number of votes. Then, whether otherwise qualified or not, he "shall give a vote for one or more (that is, when more than one is to be elected) of such candidates, so as to decide the election."

(r) Where a thing is to be done within a certain number of days from or after a given day, or an act done, the general rule is, that the first day on which the act is done, is to be reckoned exclusively. (Young v. Haggan, 6 M. & W. 49. See Gibson v. Musket, 3 Scott, N. R. 429.) Excluding the first day, or day on which the election closes, the poll-book is to be returned to the Clerk of the municipality within three days thereafter. Thus: if the election close on 4th of January, the poll-book ought to be returned at the latest on 7th of January.

annexed, that the poll-book contains a true statement of the poll, and his certificate of the persons (naming them) who have been duly elected. (4)

Election riotously broken up, to be resumed.

99. In case, by reason of a riot or other emergency (u), an election is not commenced on the proper day, or is interrupted after being commenced and before the lawful closing thereof, (v) the Returning Officer shall hold or resume the election on the following day at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, and continue the same from day to day if necessary, until the poll has been open without interruption, and with free access to voters for twelve hours in all, or thereabouts (w), in order that all the electors so intending may have had a fair opportunity to vote.

If Election is prevented for four days, Poll-book to be returned, and a new Election ordered.

100.—But in case the Election has not, by the end of the fourth day from the day the same commenced or should have commenced, (x) been kept open for the necessary time, (y) the Returning Officer shall not return any person as elected, but shall return his poll-book on the following day to the Clerk of the Municipality, certifying the cause of there not having been an Election, and a new Election shall take place; (z) and the Head of the Municipality shall issue his warrant accordingly. (a)

(t) It is made the duty of the Returning Officer within the time limited not only to return the poll-book, &c., but his solemn declaration thereto annexed, &c., and his certificate, &c.

(u) Riot or other emergency. An emergency may be described as an event such as a riot, or occasional combination of circumstances, retarding or hindering the election, and calling for immediate remedy.

(v) Which ought to be four o'clock of the afternoon of the second day. (Sec. 97, sub-sec. 7.)

(w) It is not meant that the poll shall be kept open for twelve hours in succession, but twelve hours in all. The usual time is twelve hours, viz., from ten o'clock till four o'clock on each of the two days of polling, being six hours on each day. (Sec. 97, subsecs. 6 & 7.) The intention of this section is to ensure to the electors the full time. If, by reason of a riot or other emergency, an election is not commenced on the proper day, or is interrupted after being commenced and before the lawful closing, the Returning Officer is to allow from first to last twelve hours for polling, though on several different days, not exceeding four in all. (Sec. 100.) This is to be done "in order that all the electors may have had a fair opportunity to vote."

(z) The proper hour for commencement of the poll is "ten o'clock of the forenoon" of the first day appointed. (Sec. 97, subsec. 6.)

(y) Twelve hours. (See note w to above.)

(x) The new election is to take place in case the election has not within four days been kept open twelve hours, and the Returning Officer has not returned any person as elected, but has certified the cause of the failure.

ELECTION OF MAYORS OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

101.—Mayors of Cities and Towns shall be chosen by the Electors of such Cities and Towns, at the Annual Election to be held on the first Monday in January. (b)

Election of Mayors.

102.—The qualification of a Mayor shall be the same as that of an Alderman in Cities, and of a Councillor in Towns. (c)

Qualification of.

103.—A meeting of the Electors shall take place for the nomination of candidates for the Mayoralty, at the City or Town Hall, on the last Monday but one in the month of December, before the Annual Election, at ten of the clock in the forenoon. (d)

Time and place for nominating.

104.—The City or Town Clerk respectively shall preside at such meeting, or, in case of his absence, the Council shall appoint a person to preside in his place. If the Clerk or the person so appointed does not attend, the Electors present shall choose a chairman or person to officiate from among themselves. (e)

The Clerk to preside.

105.—Such Clerk or Chairman shall have all the powers of a Returning Officer. (f)

With powers of a Returning Officer.

106.—If only one qualified candidate has been within one hour proposed by any elector present at such meeting, the Clerk or Chairman shall declare such Candidate duly elected Mayor. (g)

If only one candidate proposed.

(b) The heads of the Councils of Cities and Towns are Mayors. (Sec. 65.) Their election by the body of the electors is a new feature in Municipal law. Heretofore they were chosen by the members of the Councils respectively.

(c) See sec. 70.

(d) The nomination is also a new feature in the election of persons to fill municipal offices. It is only required in the case of Mayors. The mode in which it is to be done may be gathered from a perusal of the following sections.

(e) The Council should provide for the absence of the Clerk, if at all apprehended or expected. Should they fail to do so, the electors present may choose a chairman. Should the electors do so, it is submitted the chairman so chosen would have a right to conduct the nomination to its termination, notwithstanding the presence in the mean time of the Clerk, or a person appointed by the Council as his substitute.

(f) See sec. 95 et seq.

(g) The hour appointed for the nomination to take place is ten o'clock in the forenoon. (Sec. 103.) If within one hour thereafter no more than one candidate be proposed, such candidate is to be declared elected.

THE MUNICIPAL MANUAL.

If a Poll is demanded, the election to be by Wards.

107.—If more candidates than one are proposed, and if a poll be demanded, (h) the Clerk or Chairman shall on the following day post up in the Office of the Clerk the names of the persons proposed, and give notice thereof to the Returning Officer for every Ward.

Duration of poll.

108.—In case of a contest in an election for the office of mayor, the Returning Officer for every ward shall keep the poll open for the full time required by law for taking the votes, though there may be no contest for the other offices for which he holds the election. (i)

Poll-books to be kept, And return'd to the Clerk.

109.—Every Returning Officer shall enter in his poll-book, in separate columns, the names of the candidates for the office of mayor, as well as the names of the candidates for the offices

(h) A popular impression exists that the Returning Officer, &c., at an election, ought, when there are more candidates than are required to supply the vacancies, to take the show of hands, and that the omission to do so is an irregularity. (Clerk on Elections, 360.) The modern practice is, no doubt, in the first place to take the show of hands; but formerly there were several rude modes of expressing the opinion of the electors, which constituted an election by view,—either holding up of hands, calling out the names of candidates, or by dividing into separate bodies. (1 Whill. 393.) A show of hands is the mode of expression authorized by statute, in the case of the election of members of Parliament. (12 Vic. cap. 27, sec. 12.) It is usual for the candidate in the minority upon the show of hands to demand a poll. It is, however, apprehended that any elector may demand a poll. When a poll is demanded, it is, by the section under consideration, made the duty of the Clerk or Chairman, on the following day, to post up in the office of the Clerk the names of the persons proposed, and to give notice thereof to the Returning Officer for every ward. It is not clear whether the notice to the Returning Officer for each ward must be done on the day following the demand of a poll. That the notice must be posted up on that day, is clear beyond question, and the notice should of course be given without any unnecessary delay.

(i) The votes, where there is a contest, as well for the office of mayor as of the other offices for which the election is held, should be taken concurrently. It may, however, happen, either that there is no contest for "the other offices," (aldermen, councilmen or councillors,) or that the election to those offices has taken place before the election of mayor is closed. In either event, or on any such event, the poll must be kept open to receive the votes for mayor "for the full time required by law," viz., twelve hours. (See sec. 97, sub-sec. 7; secs. 98, 100, and notes thereto.) The object of this section is to provide against any misapprehension on the subject. If the Returning Officer see that all the electors intending to vote for mayor have had a fair opportunity of being polled, and if one full hour has elapsed at any one time without any qualified elector during that time giving or tendering his vote, &c., the Returning Officer may, it is apprehended, close the poll. (See note g to sec. 97.)

of aldermen and councilmen in cities, or of councillors in towns, and shall, in the column in which is entered the name of a candidate for mayor voted for by any voter, set the number 1 opposite the voter's name. (i)

110.—Every Returning Officer shall, on the day after the close of the poll (j), return the poll-book to the City or Town Clerk, verified as to the election of mayor, as well as in the other particulars required by this Act.

And returned to Clerk.

111.—The City or Town Clerk shall add up the number of votes set down for each candidate for mayor in the respective poll-books so returned, and ascertain the aggregate number of such votes; and in case a poll has been taken, and the poll-books have been returned for every ward, the Clerk shall, at the City or Town Hall, at noon of the day following the return of the poll-books, declare elected the candidate having the largest number of votes polled. (k)

Returning Officer to add up Poll and declare the result.

112.—In case there is no majority for any one candidate, the Clerk shall declare that two or more candidates (naming them) have an equal number of votes (l); or in case no return has been made for one or more wards, in consequence of no election having been held therein, or of the election having been interrupted through riot or other cause, he shall declare the want of returns for such ward or wards, and the cause thereof. (m)

If no majority for any candidate.

(i) Only one poll-book is required, and that is to contain in separate columns the names of the candidates for the office of mayor, as well as the names of the candidates for the offices of aldermen and councilmen in cities, or of councillors in towns, &c.

(j) There is to be only one poll-book, as explained in the last note. That poll-book is, under sec. 98, to be returned to the Clerk "within three days after the close of the election," or, under the section here annotated, "on the day after the close of the poll." Here, as regards cities and towns, there is an inconsistency. To be on the safe side, the Returning Officer of a city or town had better, when possible, in every case return his poll-book "on the day after the close of the poll."

(k) It does not appear to be necessary that a candidate to be successful, should have a majority of the whole number of votes polled, but to have "the largest number of votes polled" that is polled for any one candidate. In the event of there being an equality of votes for two or more candidates, the election is to be decided under sec. 115 of this Act.

(l) The power of the Clerk, under this section, to declare that two or more candidates (naming them) have an equal number of votes, is to exist only "in case there is no majority for any one candidate."

(m) The want of the returns is to be declared with a view to future action.

115.—In case two or more candidates for Mayor have an equal number of votes (q), the members of the Council shall take the necessary declarations before the Clerk (r), and shall after doing so organize themselves as a Council by electing as Mayor one of such candidates (s); the Clerk presiding at the Election.

(n) For the terms of the declaration, and before whom to be made, see secs. 175, 177, 179.

(o) It is enacted by sec. 179 that "the head and other members of the Council, &c., shall make the declaration of office and qualification before some court judge, recorder, police magistrate or other justice of the peace having jurisdiction in the municipality," &c. In the section under consideration it is directed that "the mayor shall administer the necessary declarations to the other members of the Council." Between the two there is an apparent inconsistency, unless this is to be taken as a special provision regarding mayors, and sec. 179 as a general provision for all other cases in which there can be no head till the members are sworn in and a head elected. If this is not the correct view, the two sections may be reconciled in this manner: The mayor is an officer or justice of the peace (sec. 340), and administering the declarations he may be taken to do so as mayor under sec. 112, or as a justice of the peace under sec. 179. It would have been better had the word "mayor" been mentioned after "recorder," in sec. 179; but there appears to be no good reason, taking sec. 112 and sec. 179 together, to doubt the power of the mayor in this respect.

(p) It is apprehended that before electing a Mayor when that election, under sec. 115, devolves upon the Council, the members ought to take the necessary declarations. Such an election would, it is believed, be deemed "business" within the meaning of this section. Indeed, were there any doubt in the reading of the section alone, the reading of it in common with the following section (s. 115) would remove the doubt.

(q) Or be, it is presumed, returned as having such, under sec. 112. (r) The Clerk is not only authorized under this section, but under sec. 179, to administer the necessary declarations. So that there is no doubt as to his right to administer the declarations under all circumstances.

(s) The inference is that the members elect are not organized as a Council until the head is elected. They are to "organize themselves

It requires "a majority of the whole number of members required by law to constitute the Council and form a quorum," (sec. 140) and it is submitted that without such a quorum the Council cannot proceed under this section. This construction is borne out by the section following, (sec. 116) where it reads "the members of the Council, being at least a majority of the whole members of the Council when full."

(b) See secs. 118, 175, 176 and 179.

(c) This is the first time that in the Municipal Law of Upper Canada an attempt has been made to define the duties of Mayors.

(d) This and the following sections are general in their application. They do not relate exclusively to Mayors of Cities and Towns, but to members of the Council and not only to the members of City and Town Councils but to the members of all Municipal Councils.

(e) Among the several contingencies enumerated, death is omitted, but of death the necessary consequence is a vacancy of office. (See secs. 122, 148, and 149.)

(f) If the member absent himself with the authority of the Council, a resolution to that effect ought by the Clerk to be carefully entered on the minutes.

(i) Or otherwise.—The object is to provide for every state of circumstances that may render a new election necessary. It is a question how far this section and sec. 148 are reconcilable. Each provides, apparently, for a vacancy in the office of "head of the Council," and each gives a mode different from the other for filling the office. Probably sec. 148 may be held to apply to "Heads of Councils" who are not elected by the people; that is to all heads of Councils except Mayors.

(j) The order must be observed. First, the head; if no head, then the Clerk; if neither head nor Clerk, then one of the members of the Council.

(k) Where a thing is directed to be done by a Statute "forthwith" it means within a reasonable time. (The King v. Justices of Worcester, 7 Dowl P. C. 789.) The word "immediately" is more strictly construed. (The King v. Justices of Huntingdonshire, 5 D. & R. 588. The Queen v. Aston, 1 L. M. & P. 491.)

(l) The person to be appointed is the person who was appointed to hold the last past election, unless some other has been appointed by the Council to hold casual elections, or to hold the particular election. It does not appear to be left to the discretion of the Head, Clerk, or Member, who issues the warrant to nominate the Returning Officer. The warrant is to be under the signature of the person issuing it, and to be under the seal of the Corporation.

(m) The general election of Mayors is to take place at the annual general election, on the first Monday in January in each year.

(z) There is a difference between an election and an appointment. (The Queen ex rel. Beatty v. O'Donoghue et al. 8 U.C. L.J. 75; see also sec. 129 of this Act.) An election, whether by the electors at large or by the members of the Council, is by vote, and usually consists in the choice of the members of the Council by the electors of the municipality, or of the head of the Council by the members of the Council elect,—both of which proceedings are in general essential to the organization of the Council. (Note p to sec. 124.) An appointment is, properly speaking, an act of the Council after it has been organized. Thus: the Clerk and other officers are appointed, not elected, by the Council. (See sec. 150.) The section under consideration speaks of appointments—not of elections. It therefore becomes material to consider precisely under what circumstances the power of appointment under the section can be exercised. If there be an entire failure to elect members on the day fixed for the purpose, the power to appoint would of course devolve on the Council of the preceding year, which, having been duly organized, continues in office until superseded by the organization of a new Council. But if the failure to elect be only partial—that is to say if the failure be to elect the requisite number of members—there is more difficulty in interpreting the meaning of the Legislature, as expressed in this section. In such an event, it is declared that “the other members of the Council, or if there be none, then the members for the preceding year, or the majority of them respectively, shall appoint,” &c. Does the word “majority” refer to the new or incomplete council, or does it refer only to the old and complete council? If it refers to the former as well as the latter, does it do so under all circumstances? Is there any difference in this respect between a majority and a quorum? Is it necessary that there should be such a majority as constitutes a quorum? There is much room for argument, and the Editor cannot do more, in the absence of decided cases, than express his individual conviction. It requires a majority of the whole number of members of a council to form a quorum. (Sec. 140.) The decision of the question turns more or less on the word “majority.” As applied to the old council, it undoubtedly implies a majority of the whole number of members. If applicable to the new council, the question is, whether it means a majority of the full members of that council also, or only a majority of those elected, though less than a majority of the whole: in other words, whether the expression, “or if there are none,” means none at all, or none competent to organize as a council. Less than a majority of the whole number of members requisite could not, it is apprehended, organize. But even on the word “requisite,” as used in the section, the same question presents itself in another form. Does it mean requisite to complete the full number of the council, or only requisite to complete a sufficient number to enable them to organize? If, when the council is incomplete, the members elect, no matter how few or how many, could appoint the remainder, and if, from any cause, a minority of the whole council only were chosen, it would devolve upon the minority to appoint the majority—a thing which, it is submitted, the Legislature never contemplated. Were this the case, in the city of Toronto for instance, with a council ordinarily of twenty-four members, if from any cause, returns should be accept office and make the necessary declarations under the same penalty in case of refusal or neglect, as if elected. (y)

CONTESTED ELECTIONS OR APPOINTMENTS.

Trial of con-
tions.

137.—In case the validity of the election or appointment (z) of a Mayor, Warden, Reeve, Deputy Reeve, Alderman, Councilman, Councillor, or Police Trustee, is contested, a Judge of either of the Superior Courts of Common Law, or the senior or officiating Judge of the County Court of the County in which the election took place, may, in term or vacation, try the validity thereof (a); and any candidate at the election, or any elector who gave or tendered his vote thereat, may be the relator for the purpose. (b) made by one ward only, the two aldermen and two councillors chosen for that ward would have it in their power to appoint the remaining twenty members of the council. This would be absurd, and dangerous to municipal government. It is upon the whole submitted, but not without some doubt, that to enable a new but incomplete council to appoint under this section, there must be elected at least a majority of the whole number necessary to enable the council to organize; and that if there be not that number, or if there be none, it devolves upon the Council of the preceding year to appoint all (or the number deficient) of their successors.

(y) See sec. 175, et seq.

(z) The difference between an election and an appointment is explained in note z to the preceding section. Before the passing of this act, the courts had not power, under the municipal acts then existing, to determine the validity of an appointment. (The Queen ex rel. Beatty v. O'Donoghoe et al, 8 U. C. L. J. 75.)

(a) The trial of a contested election may be had by any Judge of either of the superior courts of common law, or by the senior or officiating Judge of the county court, &c., all of whom possess concurrent jurisdiction, which jurisdiction is exercisable either in term or vacation.

(b) The relator is the person upon whose application the jurisdiction of the Judge is put in motion. It is to be observed that "any candidate at the election, or any elector who gave or tendered his vote at the election," may be a relator. The right to be a relator is thus confined to two classes; first, candidates; second, electors; and the right of the latter is restricted to such electors as either voted or tendered their votes at the election. It is presumed that if the election of a head of a corporation, not being a mayor of a city or town, be questioned, any member of the council who either voted or tendered his vote for such head, would be an "elector" within the meaning of the section. If an election or an appointment be questioned by any other than the two classes mentioned, it must be done, not by the summary mode pointed out in the next succeeding section, but by the more expensive and dilatory course of an information in the nature of a quo warranto. PROCEEDINGS FOR THE TRIAL THEREOF.

128.—The proceedings for the trial shall be as follows:

1.—If within six weeks after the election, or one calendar month after acceptance of office by the person elected (c), the relator shows by affidavit (d) to any such Judge (e) reasonable grounds for supposing that the election was not conducted according to law, or that the person declared elected thereat was not duly elected (f); and if the relator enters into a recognizance before the Judge, or before a commissioner for taking bail, in the sum of two hundred dollars, with two sureties (to be allowed as sufficient by the Judge upon affidavit of justification) in the sum of one hundred dollars each, conditioned to prosecute the writ with effect or to pay the party against whom the same is brought any costs which may be

Time for limited, and security and proof required.

U. C. Prac. Rep. 18.) It is not necessary that a relator who was a candidate should show in his application to oust the successful candidate that he himself is qualified to accept office. (The Queen ex rel. Mitchell v. Adams, 1 U. C. Cham. R. 208.) An elector who himself has been instrumental in electing a candidate, will not be allowed afterwards to complain of the election of that candidate upon the ground of his being a contractor, &c., unless he the elector show that at the time of the election he was ignorant of the disqualification of the candidate. (The Queen ex rel. Loyall v. Ponton, 2 U. C. Prac. Rep. 18.) Upon similar principles it has been held that a councillor who is instrumental in the election of a particular person as Reeve or Deputy Reeve, cannot afterwards be allowed to move against the person so elected Reeve or Deputy Reeve. (The Queen ex rel. Rosebush v. Parker, 2 U. C. C. P. 15.)

(c) The first point for consideration is the time within which the application is to be made, that is, "within six weeks after the election, or one calendar month after the acceptance of office by the person elected." In the computation of the six weeks, the day of the election is to be excluded. So it would appear that six weeks at all events is allowed, to impeach the election, although the office may have been accepted more than a calendar month. If the application be not made within the six weeks, the test is then whether the office has been accepted more than one calendar month. (The Queen ex rel. Rosebush v. Parker, 2 U. C. C. P. 15.)

(d) It seems, though it has not been expressly decided, that the attorney of the relator may act as a commissioner for taking the recognizance and affidavit. (The Queen ex rel. Blaisdell v. Rochester, 12, U. C. Q. B., 830.)

(e) Any such Judge. See note a to sec. 127.

(f) The grounds of the application are here specified, viz. either that the election was not conducted according to law, or that the person declared elected was not duly elected. In one sense the first branch of the clause involves the second. If the elections have not been conducted according to law, the person declared elected could not in all probability be "duly elected." But the converse of the rule will not

4.—Where more writs than one are brought to try the validity of an election, all such writs shall be made returnable before the Judge who is to try the first; and such Judge may give one judgment upon all, or a separate judgment upon each one or more of them, as he thinks fit. (m) hold. The election may have been conducted according to law, and yet the person declared elected not have been duly elected, as where he is not qualified to be elected. The clause is expressed in the alternative to meet both these cases, or other similar cases.

(g) For form of recognizance, see APPENDIX.

(h) For form of fiat, see same.

(i) For form of writ, see same.

(j) The ordinary mode of calling in question the right of a person to an office, and when elected or appointed, of indirectly determining his election or appointment, is an information in the nature of a quo warranto. (Cole on Informations, 188.) This mode is both slow and expensive. The mode given by this statute is, so far as it goes, a substitute. It is attended with little expense, and is of a most summary nature. Where the objection urged against an election on an application under the Statute was a material one, and the application being irregular, the relator notified defendant not to appear, it was held that the same relator was not precluded from making a second application. (The Queen ex rel. Metcalfe v. Smart, 10 U. C. Q. B. 84.)

(k) It seems to be well understood that before a Judge will entertain an application, not merely to make void the election of the party complained against, but to declare the relator or some other person elected in his stead, it must be shown, to the satisfaction of the Judge, that notice had been given of the disqualification of the successful candidate at such a time and in such a manner as must have made the electors aware that if they voted for that candidate their votes would be thrown away. (The Queen ex rel. Clark v. McMullen, 9 U. C. C. B. 467.)

(l) It has been held that a private relator has no right by a writ of summons, in the nature of a quo warranto, either to attack the Township Council by name upon grounds which, if mentioned, must necessarily lead to a dissolution of the body, or to attack the whole Council in one proceeding, through the individual names of every member of it. (The Queen ex rel. Lawrence v. Woodruff, 8 U. C. Q. B., 886.)

(m) At an election there may be several candidates—so there may be several persons elected to office. In townships, for instance, a councillor for each ward. In cities, two aldermen and two councillors for each ward. One person may see fit to contest the election of any successful candidate. So another person may see fit to contest the election of another of the successful candidates. Each relator complying with this Statute, may have his own separate and independent writ. In this way there may be several writs brought to try in fact the validity of the same election. When such is the case, all the writs are to be made returnable before the Judge who is to try the first. One object is obvious, and that is to preserve uniformity of decision.

(n) Although a County Court Judge may grant a fiat for the writ, it is always to be issued out of one of the superior courts. It is suggested that the fiat should state before what Judge the writ is to be returnable. It is conceived that a writ declared to be issued by a County Court Judge ought to be made returnable before himself, and that when it is issued by a Judge of the Superior Courts, it ought to be made returnable before the presiding Judge in Chambers.

(o) "Is made returnable, or is returned." This expression appears to be used in order that a writ "returnable" on the face of it before a Judge named therein may be "returned" to and acted upon by any Judge presiding in Chambers, or the Judge presiding in the County Court for the time being, according as the Judge mentioned in the writ belongs to a superior or an inferior court.

(p) "Personal service" of a writ has never been defined by the legislature. Each case is left to depend on its own particular circumstances. The Courts have not held it necessary to put process into the actual corporeal possession of the defendant to constitute personal service, but have looked more to the object of the service—timely notice to defendant of intended legal proceedings against him. (Har. C. L. P. A., note f to sec. 84, p. 73). In general a copy of the writ should be left with defendant, and the original shown to him if he desire to see it. (Goggs v. Huntington, per Alderson B. 1 D. & L. 599) The copy of the writ must be left with, and not merely shown to defendant. (Worley v. Glover, 2 Str. 327.) Though defendant

8.—The Judge before whom the writ is returned may allow any person who was entitled to vote at the election to intervene and defend the election, and may grant a reasonable time for the purpose (s); and any intervening party shall be liable or entitled to costs, like any other party to the proceedings. 9.—The Judge shall, in a summary manner, upon statement and answer without formal pleadings, hear and determine the validity of the election (u), and may by order cause the assessment rolls, collectors rolls, poll books, and any other records of the election, to be brought before him, and may inquire into the facts on affidavit or affirmation, or by oral testimony, or by issues framed by him and sent to be tried by jury by writ of trial directed to any court named by the Judge, or by one or more of these means, as he deems expedient. 10.—In case the election complained of is adjudged invalid, the Judge shall forthwith, by writ, cause the person found not to have been duly elected to be removed; and in case the Judge determines that any other person was duly elected, the Judge shall forthwith order a writ to issue causing such other person to be admitted; and in case the Judge determines that refuse to take the copy, if the person serving it bring it away with him, the service will be defective, (Pigeon v. Bruce, 8 Taunt 410,) where the copy was thrust through the crevice of a door to defendant, who had locked himself within, the service was held to be sufficient. (Smith v. Wintle, Barnes 406.) Service upon a wife, agent, or servant, is not personal service. (Frits v. Donagel, 2 Dowl P. C. 527; Davies v. Margon, 2 C. & J. 237; Goggs v. Huntingtower, 1 D. & L. 599; *Christmas v. (s) No elector unless one who has either voted or tendered his vote at the election, can be a relator, (see note b to sec. 127,) but any person entitled to a vote may appear and defend the election under the clause here mentioned. The distinction deserves to be noted.

12.—Any person whose election is complained of may, within one week after service on him of the writ (z), transmit, post-paid, through the post office, directed to "The Clerk of Judge's Chambers, at Osgoode Hall, Toronto," or to "The Judge of the County Court," of the County of — (as the case may be); or may cause to be delivered to such Clerk or Judge a disclaimer, signed by him, to the effect following: (a)

"I, A. "Dated the — day of —, 185 —"

"(Signed)

A. B."

(w) For forms of writ to meet these three several cases, see APPENDIX.

(x) For form of writ, see APPENDIX.

(y) Sections 90 and 122 of this act, taken together, show that the Sheriff is to appoint a Returning Officer when an old, has been superseded by a new Council. Where the members of the new Council have been elected there can be no longer any councillors in possession of the office. The object therefore of this clause is to enable the Sheriff to take the steps necessary to the election or admission of new members with a view to the re-organization of the Council.

(z) The writ is to be generally made returnable on the eighth day after service, computed exclusively of the day of service (subsec. 6, p. 59); and the design of this clause is, that the disclaimer, if any should be filed before the writ is returned.

(a) When the writ has been issued by direction of a Judge of one of the Superior Courts and is returnable before a Judge of any such court, the disclaimer should be addressed, "To the Clerk of Judge's Chambers, at Osgoode Hall, Toronto," or if returnable before the Judge of the County Court, then to "The Judge of the County Court of the County of, &c." In either case, the disclaimer so addressed may, if preferred, be mailed or else be delivered to the proper Judge or Clerk. If mailed, the envelope must on the outside be endorsed with the word "disclaimer." The letter must also be registered in the office where mailed. (Sub-sec. 13.)

(b) See preceding note.

(c) This is to apprise the council that the party no longer claims a seat therein. It is made the duty of the Clerk "forthwith" to communicate, &c., as to which see note f to sec. 122.

(d) The rule is that the costs of a contested election are in the discretion of the Judge. (Sub-sec. 16.) The exception is where a regular disclaimer is made within the time limited for the purpose, in which case no costs are to be awarded against the party who disclaims. If, however, the Judge be satisfied that the party "consented to his nomination as a candidate, or accepted the office," the case comes within the rule, and not the exception.

(e) It was held under Statute 16 Vic. cap. 181, sec. 27, that the Judge had a discretion to withhold costs altogether from either side, if he so thought fit (The Queen ex rel. Swan v. Rowat, 18 U.C.Q.B. 340), or to distribute the costs, that is, to order each party to pay his own costs. (The Queen ex rel. Gardiner v. Perry; Chamber's; Hagarty, J.; May 12, 1867.) Where it was sworn that intending voters for an unsuccessful candidate were obstructed in the approach to the polling place by a crowd under the control of one of the successful candidates, and neither the fact of the obstruction nor the control was unequivocally denied by that candidate, the election as to him was set aside with costs. (The Queen ex rel. Gibbs v. Brantighan, Chambers, Richards J. 8 U. C. L. J. 127.) It may be stated that the tendency of modern decisions is not to make a party pay costs unless it be shown that he himself participated in the improper conduct for which the election is set aside. (The Queen ex rel. Davis v. Wilson, et al., Chambers, Richards, J., 8 U. C. L. J. 165.) As to Table of Costs taxable, see APPENDIX.

The decision of the Judge shall be final, and he shall, immediately after his judgment, return the writ and judgment with all things had before him touching the same into the Court from which the writ issued, there to remain of record as a judgment of the said Court; (f) and he shall, as occasion requires, enforce such judgment by a writ in the nature of a writ of peremptory mandamus, and by writs of execution for the costs awarded. 18. The Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law, or a majority of them, may, by rules made in Term time, settle the forms of the writs of summons, certiorari, mandamus and execution, and may regulate the practice respecting the suing out, service and execution of such writs, and the punishment for disobeying the same or any other writ or order of the Court or Judge, and respecting the practice generally, in hearing and determining the validity of such elections or appointments, and respecting the costs thereon; and may from time to time rescind, alter or add to such rules: but all existing rules shall remain in force until rescinded or altered as aforesaid. (h)

19. The appointment of members of Municipal Councils when required to be made under this Act shall be deemed elections within the preceding section, and in such cases the relator may be any member of the council or any elector of the municipality or ward for which the appointment was made. (i)

Appointments equivalent to Elections.

(f) Under the old act, leave was given to appeal from the decision of the Judge, to the full Court. (See The Queen ex rel. McKeown v. Hogg, 15 U. C. Q. B. 140.) That privilege was in this bill when introduced to the Assembly but was struck out in committee. The object no doubt is effectually to ensure the summary relief intended. The elections being annual, the delays caused by appeals are calculated to frustrate the objects of an application.

(g) For forms of which writs, see APPENDIX.

(h) It is the intention of the editor to publish the Rules as an Appendix to this work. If before its completion new rules be framed superseding those promulgated under the old law the new rules shall be so published—otherwise the old rules which by this clause are preserved “until rescinded or altered.”

(i) The question arose in the case of The Queen on the relation of Beatty v. O'Donoghue, et al. 3 U. C. L. J., 76, whether “appointments” came within the clauses for the summary trial of contested elections, and it was held that they did not. This section supplies the defect which was then felt to exist in the law, and as regards the trial of contested elections places appointments and elections on the same footing.

MEETINGS OF COUNCIL, &c.

FIRST MEETING OF MEMBERS ELECT.

First meet-
Councils.

130. The members of every Municipal Council, (j) (except County Councils,) and the Trustees of every Police Village, shall hold their first meetings at noon on the third Monday of the same January in which they are elected, or on some day thereafter at noon; (k) and the members of every County Council shall hold their first meeting at noon, or some hour thereafter, on the fourth Tuesday of the same month, or on some day thereafter. (l)

Place in Counties.

131. The members of every County Council shall hold their first meeting at the County Hall, if there is one, or otherwise at the County Court House. (m)

ELECTION OF HEADS OF COUNCIL OTHER THAN OF CITIES AND TOWNS.

Heads of other Councils than
Towns.

132. The members elect of every council, except a city or town council (n) being at least a majority of the whole number of the council when full, (o) shall at their first meeting after the yearly elections, and after making the declarations of office and qualification when required to be taken, (p) organize themselves as a council by electing one of themselves to be the Warden or Reeve of the Corporation, and such person shall be the head of the council. (q)

(j) Cities and towns, (if any) separated from counties included.

(k) For tenure of office, &c., see secs. 86 and 123.

(l) A County Council being composed of Reeves, it is essential that the Township, Town, and Village Councils should be organized and Reeves be selected before the County Council can be constituted (sec. 182.) Hence the day appointed for the first meeting of a County Council is later in the month of January than that of any other Municipal Body.

(m) As to the jurisdiction and control of County Councils over Court Houses, see sec. 381 et seq.

(n) As to which, the heads or Mayors are elected, see secs. 101, 119.

(o) See note x to sec. 126.

(p) See note s to sec. 67.

(q) A Reeve is the name of the head of a township, town, or village; but Warden is the name of the head of a County Council, and he is elected by the Reeves, &c., composing the Council. At an election of Township Councillors the person who acted as Returning Officer for one of the five wards, was not the person appointed, but one of the same name. Afterwards when the five councillors elect assembled to choose a Reeve, the councillor from his ward was objected to as not being duly elected. The other four councillors then, without taking the oaths of office, proceeded to elect a Reeve. Held that the fifth

134.—In case of an equality of votes on the election of the head of any County Council or Provisional County Council, then, of those present, the Reeve, or in his absence the Deputy Reeve, of the Municipality which has the largest number of names on its last revised assessment-roll, shall have a second and casting vote, (t) and in case of the like occurrence in any other Council, then, of those present, the member who has been assessed for the highest amount on such roll, shall have the like vote. (u) councillor should have been allowed to vote with the others, for it was not for them to determine the validity of his election. Held also that the oath of office should have been taken by the councillors before proceeding to elect the Reeve. (In re Hawk and Ballard, 3 U. C. C. P. 244.)

(r) Such election, i. e., the one mentioned in the preceding section.

(s) If there is a Clerk, it is his duty to preside. If not, any member elected by the Council for the purpose. The election of a member for that purpose does not prevent him from voting like any other member.

(t) The right to a double vote when necessary is here well defined.

(u) It may be held that cities and towns, separated from counties, would come within the latter part of this section, should the right of the members to elect accrue. The section, however, does not mention "appointments." When it is the act of an organized council the appointment would be determined like any other question put to the vote. (sec. 147.)

(v) Under sec. 26.

(w) Township Reeves are provided for by secs. 66 & 182.

(x) See statute, 16 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 17.

(y) A Deputy Reeve, like a Reeve, is ex officio a Justice of the Peace. (Sec. 846.)

SUBSEQUENT MEETINGS.

Municipal-ties.

136.—The subsequent meetings of the County Council, and all the meetings of every other Council, shall be held at such place, either within or without the municipality, as the Council from time to time, by resolution on adjourning, to be entered on the minutes, or by by-law, appoints. (z)

Place of in Cities.

137.—The Council of the county in which any city (a) lies, may hold its sittings, keep its public offices, and transact all the business of the Council and of its officers and servants within such city, and may purchase and hold such real property therein as may be convenient for such purposes. (b)

be open.

138.—Every Council shall hold its ordinary meetings openly, and no person shall be excluded except for improper conduct. (c)

be close.

139.—In case there is no by-law of a Council fixing the place of meeting, any special meeting of the Council shall be held at the place where the then last meeting of the Council was held (d); and a special meeting may be open or closed, as, in the opinion of the Council, expressed by resolution in writing, the public interest requires. (e)

(z) The object of this section would seem to be to enable a County Council to sit in a city or town that has been separated from the county, when the proper county buildings are situate therein and are owned by the county. (See secs. 131 & 137.) But the language ("every other Council") is broad enough to admit of any Municipal Council holding sittings elsewhere than within the municipality, which probably was not really intended. The meetings are to be held "at such place," &c., as the Council from time to time, by resolution on adjourning, to be entered on the minutes, or by by-law, appoints. The difference between a resolution and a by-law is fully explained in note v to sec. 136. It is apprehended that an established place of meeting would be by by-law, and that in the absence of any such by-law the place may be determined for the next meeting by resolution on adjourning, at which time there would be no opportunity of passing a by-law. In the absence of any by-law, &c., the next meeting would be understood as appointed to be held at the place of the last meeting. (Sec. 139.) Strictly speaking, there ought to be either a by-law fixing a permanent place, or a resolution from time to time entered at each adjournment.

(a) Qu. "Or town separated from the county." (See sec. 26.)

(b) The power is not only to hold but to purchase real property in a city, for county purposes, even after the separation of the city from the county.

(c) The power to exclude for improper conduct is implied.

(d) Qu. If applicable to all Municipal Councils. (See note z, above.)

(e) The line drawn between an open and a closed meeting is here defined. The former is to be the rule, the latter the exception. (Sec. 139.) All ordinary meetings are to be open. (13.)

WHO TO PRESIDE IN COUNCIL.

143.—The head of every Council shall preside at the meetings of Council (i), and may at any time summon a special meeting 'hereof' (j); and it shall be his duty to summon a special meeting whenever requested in writing by a majority of the Council. (k)

The Heads to preside in Council.

144.—In case of the death or absence of the head of a Town Council the Reeve (l), and in case of the absence or death of both of them, the Deputy Reeve, and in case of the death or absence of the head of a Village or Township Council, the Deputy Reeve, shall preside at the meetings of Council (m), and may at any time summon a special meeting thereof. (n)

When Reeve or Deputy Reeve to preside.

(f) The Court, upon an application to quash a by-law, on the ground that a quorum of the Council was not present at its passing, refused to interfere, conceiving it had not power to do so. (Sutherland v. The Municipal Council of the Township of East Nisour, 10 U. C. Q. B. 628.)

(g) This applies to municipalities having five members only (see sec. 66), and the effect is, that although three constitutes a majority and forms a quorum, a majority of that majority cannot decide any question before the Council. When three members only are present, they must be unanimous. When four or five are present, it requires three at least to make a majority.

(h) After the first meeting (sec. 180), there are no periods of meeting fixed by statute: the matter is left to the discretion of each Council.

(i) i. e., Warden, Mayor, or Reeve, as the case may be. (See sec. 65.)

(j) A special meeting may, under certain circumstances, be close and private. (Sec. 189.)

(k) A bare majority is all that is here meant or required, but it must be a majority of the whole number of the Council.

(l) Town Council, i. e., of a town not separated from the county in which situate (see secs. 26 & 66); for in a town not so separated the Mayor is head, then the Reeve, and then the Deputy Reeve.

(m) In a township or village the Reeve is head, and then the Deputy Reeve.

(n) The latter part of this section belongs to the whole section, that is, any acting head authorized by the section may, among other things, at any time summon a special meeting of the Council.

Absence of Head provid-

145.—In the absence of the head of the Council, and, in the case of a town, village or township, in the absence also of the Reeve if there be one, and also of the Deputy Reeve if there be one, by leave of the Council or from illness (o), the Council may, from among the members thereof eligible to be elected head, appoint a presiding officer, who, during such absence, shall have all the powers of the head of the Council. (p)

Casual

146.—If the person who ought to preside at any meeting does not attend within a reasonable time after the hour appointed (q), the members present may appoint a chairman from amongst themselves, and such chairman shall have the same authority in presiding at the meeting as the absent person would have had if present. (o) Provision is here made for the absence of all persons ex officio entitled to preside.

(p) The word "eligible" applies to cities, in which aldermen are so eligible, but not councilmen. (Sec. 86.)

(q) Provision is made in the preceding section for "death," or "absence," and here for non-attendance "within a reasonable time after the hour appointed."

(r) Chairman; that is, it is apprehended, a person eligible to be head or presiding officer of the Council. (See secs. 145 & 148.)

(t) "All questions," &c.; no exception of any kind created.

(u) This is in accordance with the old Latin maxim, "Omnia presumuntur pro negantibus."

(v) The right of a member of a Municipal Corporation to resign in the absence of express provision authorizing it, has been doubted. (See The King v. Fiddlerley, Sid. 14, Com. Dig. tit. "Franchise," F. 80; The King v. The Mayor of Ripon, 1 Rayd. 568; The King v. Lane, 2 Rayd. 1304.) In 2 Roll. It is to be observed that there is no mode of resignation prescribed by the statute. It may therefore be proper for Municipal Councils, by by-law, to regulate the steps to be taken in such a proceeding.

(w) Or otherwise. (See note i to sec. 122.)

(z) The expression used is "elect." The act being after the organization of the Council, the head, &c., of the Council would of course preside and take the votes. In the event of an equality of votes, there would, it is presumed, be in effect a negative, under sec. 147. If the section embraces Mayors, as well as other heads of Council, a conflict arises between it and sec. 122, pointed out in the notes to the latter section.

And also Clerks of Cities.

157.—The Treasurer of the County shall retain in his hands any moneys payable to any Municipality, if it is certified to him by the Clerk of the County that the Clerk of such Municipality has not made the returns hereinbefore required; and the Receiver-General shall retain in his hands any moneys payable to any Municipality if it is certified to him by the Provincial Secretary that the Clerk of such Municipality has not made the returns hereinbefore required; (s) and any person so required to make any return by a particular day who fails so to do, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than twenty dollars, to be paid to the Receiver-General for the use of the Province, to be recovered as last aforesaid. CHAMBERLAIN AND TREASURER.

Treasurer is

security.

To receive and take care of and
moneys, &c.

To make a
Provincial
Audit.

159.—Every City Council shall appoint (o) a Chamberlain, and every other Council shall appoint a Treasurer (p); and every Chamberlain and Treasurer, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give such security as the Council directs, for the faithful performance of his duties, and especially for duly accounting for and paying over all moneys which may come into his hands. (q)

160.—Every Treasurer and Chamberlain respectively shall receive and safely keep all moneys belonging to the Corporation (r), and shall pay out the same to such persons and in such manner as the laws of the Province and the lawful by-laws or resolutions of the Council direct. (s)

161.—The Treasurer or Chamberlain of every municipality for which any sum of money has been raised on the credit of the Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund (t), shall, so long as any part of such sum, or of the interest thereon, remains unpaid by such Municipality, transmit to the Board of Audit, on or before the fifteenth day of January in every year, a return, certified on the oath of the Treasurer or Chamberlain before some Justice of the Peace, containing the amount of taxable property in the Municipality, according to the then last assessment roll or rolls, a true account of all the debts and liabilities of the Municipality for every purpose, for the then last year, and such further information and particulars with regard to the liabilities and resources of the Municipality.

(o) See note a to sec. 150.

(p) The offices of Chamberlain and Treasurer, and member of the Council, are incompatible. (The Queen v. Smith, 4 U.C.Q.B. 822 & s. 162.) If by any disregard of the law, accidental or otherwise, a person has been placed in the office who cannot by law hold it, things must take their course—the illegality must be ascertained and pronounced upon in a proper proceeding, instituted to try the question. (Id.)

(q) The Chamberlain or Treasurer is, first, to give security; secondly, the security is to be given before he enters upon the duties of his office; and, thirdly, it is to be for the faithful performance of his duties, and especially for duly accounting for and paying over all moneys which may come into his hands.

(r) As it is the duty of the Clerk to keep all books and records (sec. 150), so it is of the Treasurer, &c., to keep all moneys belonging to the Corporation. (Sec. 160.)

(s) This refers the Treasurer, &c., to the Provincial statutes—such as the Assessment Act and the School Acts—as well as to by-laws of the municipality that relate to the subject, though not expressly mentioned.

(t) See 16 Vic. caps. 22 & 123.

pality, as the Governor in Council may from time to time require (u), under a penalty, in case of neglect or refusal to transmit the return, account, information or particulars, of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs as a debt due to the Crown, according to the fifteenth section of the statute, eighteenth Victoria, chapter seventy-eight, to secure the more efficient Auditing of the Public Accounts. (v)

ASSESSORS AND COLLECTORS.

162.—The Council of every Municipality except a County (w) shall as soon as may be convenient after the general election (x), appoint as many Assessors and Collectors for the Municipality as the Assessment Laws from time to time authorize or require, and shall fill up any vacancy that occurs in the said offices as soon as may be convenient after the same occurs (y); but the Council shall not appoint as Assessor or Collector a member of the Council (z), or a person who has not the same property qualification as that required for a Councillor or Councilman of the Municipality. (a) The same person may, in a city, town, or township, be appointed Assessor or Collector for more than one ward. (b)

Assessors and Collectors, appointment and qualification of.

(u) It is, by 20 Vic. cap. 20, sec. 1, made the duty of the Treasurer of any Municipality in arrear for any sum of money borrowed under 16 Vic. cap. 22, to certify to the Provincial Secretary, within one month after the time when the sum of money is payable, the total value of the assessed property, and the rate in the pound in such Municipality, for the year preceding the default. (Sec. 1.)

(v) In any action for the recovery of such a penalty, it is sufficient to prove by any one witness or other evidence, that such return, &c., ought to have been transmitted by the defendant as alleged on the part of the Crown; and the onus of proving that the same was so transmitted is to rest upon the defendant. (Latter part of sec. 15 of 18 Vic. cap. 78.)

(w) County rates are levied through the instrumentality of the different municipalities within the County, and for this reason, county municipalities do not require either assessors or collectors of their own (see secs. 81 to 84, 89 and 49, 16 Vic. cap. 182, and secs. 185 and 221 of the act here annotated.)

(x) See sec. 82 et seq.

(y) See Statute 16 Vic. cap. 182, secs. 15 et seq. and 89 et seq.

(z) A member of a Council to become eligible to be appointed assessor or collector would have to resign under sec. 148 or 149, before accepting the appointment.

(a) See sec. 70.

(b) See 16 Vic. cap. 182, secs. 15 et seq. and 89 et seq.

Assessors to designate freeholders and householders in their assessment rolls.

163.—The Assessors shall state in their assessment rolls whether the persons named therein are freeholders or householders, or both, and shall, in separate columns for this purpose, use the initial letter F and H to signify the same respectively. (c)

Households defined.

164.—Every occupant of a separate portion of a house, such portion having a distinct communication with a public road or street by an outer door, shall be deemed a householder within this act. (d)

Collectors of Provisional County.

165.—The Collectors of the several townships in a junior county of a Union of counties shall ex officio be Collectors in such townships for the Provisional Council, and the Collectors shall pay over to the Provisional Treasurer the money they collect under any by-law of the Provisional Council. (e)

Moneys, how to be disposed of.

166.—The money so collected shall be deemed the money of the Union, so far as necessary to make the Collectors and their sureties responsible to the Union therefor; and in case the Corporation of the Union receives the same, such Corporation shall immediately pay the amount to the Provisional Treasurer, retaining the expenses of collection. (f)

AUDITORS.

Auditors.

167.—Every Council shall, at the first meeting thereof in every year after being duly organized, appoint two Auditors, one of whom shall be such person as the head of the Council nominates (g); but no one who, at such time, or during the

(c) Great responsibilities rest upon Assessors. Their work is not only the basis of municipal but of parliamentary elections. It is from the assessment roll, as revised and finally passed, that the list of parliamentary voters is made. (22 Vic. cap. 52, sec. 4.)

(d) A party is not the less a householder, or the less an occupant, because he lets a portion of his house to lodgers. The retention of any portion of the house as his own dwelling, gives him the legal occupation of the whole. The occupation of a lodger is considered in law that of the landlord. (See Phillip's case, Alcock's Registration cases, 20; Dingsen's case, Ib. 114; see also Saunders' Law and Practice of Municipal Registration, 1.) No lodger, though occupying the principal part of the house, is ever rated; but the owner, small as ever the part reserved to himself, is in the eye of the law occupier of the whole. (The King v. Eyles, Cald. S. C. 414.)

(e) As to debts of the Union, see sec. 46.

(f) See sec. 46 et seq., when money is paid into the Union.

(g) The Council is to appoint two Auditors annually, but one of them is to be a person nominated by the head of the Council. Hence it will be seen that a nomination, though not an appointment, is, under this section, in effect the same.

preceding year, is or was a member, or is or was Clerk or Treasurer of the Council (A), or who has or during such preceding year had, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with any other person, a share or interest in any contract or employment with or on behalf of the Corporation (E), except as Auditor, shall be appointed an Auditor. (J)

Disqualification from office of 168.—The Auditors shall examine and report upon all accounts affecting the Corporation, or relating to any matter under its control or within its jurisdiction, for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding their appointment. (A)

169.—The Auditors shall prepare an abstract of the receipts, expenditures and liabilities of the Corporation, and also a detailed statement of the said particulars in such form as the Council directs, and report in duplicate on all the accounts audited by them, and shall file the same in the office of the Clerk of the Council within one month after their appointment (I); and thereafter any inhabitant or rate-payer of the municipality may inspect one of such duplicate reports at all seasonable hours, and may by himself or his agent at his own expense take a copy thereof or extracts therefrom. (M)

To prepare abstract and detailed statement of receipts and expenditures, &c.

(A) All persons who have been members of the Council, or held office under the Council, are not disqualified, but only such as held office "during the preceding year;" that is, the year preceding the appointment.

(E) As to being a contractor, or having an interest in a contract, see note n to sec. 78.

(J) This is to enable the same individual to be reappointed to the office of Auditor. As to the declaration to be taken by an Auditor before entering on the duties of his office, see sec. 178.

(K) The Auditors, when appointed, have a duty to perform, and that duty is to examine and report upon all accounts affecting the Corporation, or relating to any matter under its control or within its jurisdiction, &c. Further duties are prescribed by the next following section (169).

(I) The duties of Auditors, under this section, may be thus classed:

1. To prepare an abstract of the receipts, expenditures and liabilities of the Corporation.
2. To prepare a detailed statement of the said particulars, in such form as the Council may direct.
3. To report in duplicate on all accounts audited by them.
4. To file the reports in the office of the Clerk of the Council within one month after appointment.

(M) The right to inspect the auditors' reports is extended to "any inhabitant or rate-payer." The difference between an inhabitant and a rate-payer is, that "inhabitant" means a resident, whether a rate-payer or not, and that a "rate-payer" is a person who pays taxes,

The Council
finally, &c.

170.—The Council shall, upon the report of the Auditors, finally audit and allow the accounts of the Treasurer or Chamberlain and Collectors, and all accounts chargeable against the Corporation (a); and in case of charges not regulated by law, the Council shall allow what is reasonable. (o)

Clerk to publish abstracts
ments.

171.—The Clerk shall print and publish the Auditors' abstract, and shall also publish the detailed statement in such form as the Council directs. (p)

Audit of
by Treasurer.

172.—Every County Council shall have the regulation and auditing of all moneys to be paid out of funds in the hands of the County Treasurer. (q)

SALARIES AND CONTINUANCE IN OFFICE.

officers.

173.—In case the remuneration of any of the officers of the municipality has not been settled by act of the Legislature, the Council shall settle the same, and the Council shall provide for the payment of all municipal officers, whether the remuneration is settled by statute or by by-law of the Council. (r) whether a resident or not. (See Ex v. Inhabitants of North Curry, 4 B. & C. 961.) Mere colorable residence is insufficient to constitute a person an inhabitant. (The King v. Sergeant, 5 T. R. 466; The King v. The Duke of Richmond, 6 T. R. 560; Bruce v. Bruce, 2 B. & P. 229, n; The King v. Mitchell, 10 East, 611; Whithorn v. Thomas, 7 M. & G. 1.)

(a) It is the duty of the Auditors, within one month after appointment, to file their report (sec. 170). It then becomes the duty of the Council to finally audit and allow the accounts of the Treasurer, &c., and all accounts chargeable against the Corporation. Some discretion is involved in this duty. It would even appear that the Council, in the performance of their duty, have power to overrule the Auditors (a. 172).

(o) That is, a quantum meruit or reasonable compensation for the services performed.

(p) The "abstract" is one thing, and the "detailed statement" another, each of which is described in sec. 169. The first is to be printed and published by the Clerk, the second is to be published under the direction of the Council.

(q) The power of the County Council is to regulate and audit all moneys to be paid, &c. The word "regulate" appears to refer to an order prior to payment, as does the word "audit" refer to an act done after payment. The Council have, under sec. 170, a general power to finally audit and allow all the accounts of the Treasurer, &c., and all accounts chargeable against the Corporation.

(r) Under a power to remunerate all "township officers," it was held that municipal councillors had no authority to remunerate themselves. (In re Wright and the Municipal Council of the Township of Cornwall, 9 U. C. Q. B. 442; Daniels v. The Municipal Council of the

OFFICIAL DECLARATIONS.

175. — Every person elected or appointed under this Act (v) to any office requiring a qualification of property in the incumbent (w) shall, before he takes the declaration of office, or enters on his duties, (x) make and subscribe a solemn declaration to the effect following: (y)

Declaration of qualification.

"I, A. B., do solemnly declare, that I am a natural-born (or naturalized) subject of her Majesty; that I am truly and bona fide seized or possessed to my own use and benefit, of such an estate, (specifying the nature of such estate, and if

The District Council of the Township of Gore*, 5 U. C. Q. B. 357.) But now all such questions are set at rest, for it is made lawful for the Council of every township and county to pass by-laws for paying the members of the Council for their attendance at a Council. (s) The appointment of this officer is authorized by sec. 159.

(t) That is, during the pleasure of the Council.

(u) Duties are in this act prescribed for such officers as Chamberlains, Treasurers, Collectors, Assessors and Auditors, but the Council are here empowered to impose additional duties on these and all other officers of the Council.

(v) As to the difference between an election and appointment, see note x to sec. 126.

(w) Assessors and Collectors for example (sec. 162).

(x) The election of a Reeve by Township Councillors is "a duty," within the meaning of this section, rendering it incumbent on the Councillors, before proceeding to the election, to take the necessary declaration. (In re Hawk and Ballard, 3 U. C. O. P. 241.)

(y) Declarations are in many parts of this act substituted for oaths (see note a to sec. 67); but it must not be forgotten that the wilful making of any false statement required or authorized by this act, is a misdemeanor punishable as wilful and corrupt perjury. (Sec. 401.)

178.—The solemn declaration (c) to be made (d) by every Auditor (e) shall be as follows:

(a) This is a general declaration of office, and is intended to be administered, in addition to the officers specified, to all officers appointed by the Council.

(b) As to what is an interest in a contract with or on behalf of the corporation, see note m to sec. 72.

(f) This section enables the Heads of Councils, &c., to make the necessary declarations without the restrictions as to Court or Judge which formerly existed. In some respects this section has been already commented upon. (See note g to sec. 118.)

(g) The certificate is to be to the effect that the declaration has been made and subscribed—two things essentially different, but each necessary to complete the taking of the declaration.

(h) The authority of the officers named is not to administer all oaths, but only such as relate to the business of the place in which the person administering the oath holds office.

(i) A deponent is one who makes a lawful oath. An affirmant is one who by law is permitted to affirm when otherwise he would be required to make an oath. And a declarant is a person who, instead of making either an oath or affirmation, makes a solemn declaration, which, if false, is visited with punishment as much as either an oath or affirmation. Council, &c., kept or received, are the property of the Corporation. In the next place it is declared that if any such person refuse or fail to deliver up or pay over the same, he shall be guilty of a fraudulent embezzlement thereof, &c. Embezzlement is a statutable stealing, and is an offence of a serious nature.

(r) For the punishment of embezzlements committed by clerks and servants, it is enacted that if any clerk or servant, &c., shall, by virtue of his employment, receive or take into his possession any chattel, money, or valuable security, for or in the name of or on account of his master, and shall fraudulently embezzle the same or any part thereof, every such offender shall be deemed to have feloniously taken the same from his master, although such chattel, money or security was not received into the possession of such master otherwise than by the actual possession of his clerk, servant, or other person so employed. (4 & 5 Vic. cap. 25, sec. 39; see also 18 Vic. cap. 92, secs. 16, 47; and the leading case of The Queen v. Cummings, in Appeal, 4 U. C. L. J. 182.) The punishment is imprisonment in the Provincial Penitentiary at hard labour for any term not exceeding fourteen nor less than seven years, or imprisonment in any other prison or place of confinement for any term not exceeding two years. (4 & 5 Vic. cap. 25, sec. 38.)

(s) The civil remedy is to be distinct from, and independent of, the criminal procedure.

(t) Police villages are neither enumerated here nor intended to be included under the operation of the sections from sec. 186 to sec. 240 inclusive. A police village is not a municipality, within the meaning of this Act. (Sec. 402, subsec. 1.)

(u) A Municipality, whether a County, City, Township, or Village, is a locality; and a Municipal Council is the governing body of that locality. Beyond the limits of the locality the Council has not in general any authority whatever. For this reason the section begins powers of the Council shall be exercised by By-law when not otherwise authorized or provided for. (v)

by declaring that "the jurisdiction (or authority) of every Council shall be confined to the Municipality (or locality) the Council represents." Thus one Township Council has no power to impose any regulations on a township of which it is not the Council. So of every other Municipality. The proposition is so reasonable and so self-evident that little more is required to be said about it. Nor can a Municipal Council, in general, benefit another Municipality at the expense of its own; for instance, build a school-house in a township of which it is not the representative. This too is an unmistakable proposition, but as between Townships and Counties not so clear as the preceding. For many purposes a Township is within the jurisdiction of the Council of the County in which it is situate, and is subject to be taxed for county purposes by the County Council; but the right of a Township Council to tax itself in aid of the county, is limited. It would seem that a Township Council has no right voluntarily to pass a by-law imposing a rate in aid of a county rate. (Fletcher v. the Municipality of the Township of Euphrasia, 18 U. C. Q. B. 129.) So the right of a Township Council to pass a by-law in aid of the cost of a school-house ordered by the County Council is doubtful. (Kennedy v. the Municipal Council of Sandwich, 9 U. C. Q. B. 326.) So a Township by-law was quashed as to so much of it as related to the raising of a sum of money to defray the demands of the County Council on the Township, as an equivalent to the Government school grant, &c., it not appearing on the face of the by-law that it was directed to the purpose of meeting a deficiency, nor even that there was any, if that would have authorized the by-law. (Fletcher v. the Municipality of the Township of Euphrasia, 18 U. C. Q. B. 129.)

(v) The jurisdiction of every Council is not only to be confined to the Municipality the Council represents, but is to be exercised, when not otherwise provided for, by by-law. When a corporation is duly erected, the law tacitly annexes to it the power of making by-laws or private statutes. This power is included in every act of incorporation; for, as is quaintly observed by Blackstone, "as natural reason is given to the natural body for governing it, so by-laws or statutes are a sort of political reason to govern the body politic." (1 Bl. Com. 476.) Though the power to make by-laws is unquestionably an incident of every corporation, it is rarely left to implication; but is usually, as in the present case, conferred by the express terms of the Act of Parliament. And where the act enables the corporation to make by-laws in certain cases and for certain purposes, its power of legislation is limited to the cases and objects specified—all others being excluded by implication. (Angel & Ames on Corporations, 323.) The legislation of a municipal body is at all events confined to the objects of its incorporation. (Ib.) And a by-law has the same force within its limits and with respect to the persons upon whom it lawfully operates, as an Act of Parliament has upon people at large. (Hopkins v. Mayor of Swansea, 4 M. & W. 640.) The Courts upon general principles recognize judicially what Municipal Councils are competent to do, and hold that it is not necessary for them to recite in a by-law all that is requisite to show that they have proceeded regularly in passing it. 9 U. C. Q. B. 628; Fisher v. the Municipal Council of Vaughan, 10 U. C. Q. B. 492.) It is a common belief that a municipal body can do by resolution whatever may be done by by-law. Nothing can be more erroneous or more tend to the insecurity of municipal government. The general principle known to the common law is that a corporation of the kind can only act through its seal, and that its rules and regulations, whether general or special, should also be embodied in by-laws under seal. (Sec. 188.) But among people generally, and among that class composing Municipal Councils particularly, there is a dislike of formality, and in consequence the too frequent abandonment of by-laws for mere orders or resolutions. Now the proceedings of a Municipal Council that may be lawfully had by order or resolution are comparatively few and unimportant. A by-law should not be dispensed with unless in a very clear case. In fact, whenever a Municipal Council is in doubt whether it can or cannot do a particular thing by order or resolution, it would be much safer and wiser, owing to the doubt, to use a by-law. Were this as a rule understood and followed, it would prevent much confusion in the administration of municipal affairs. Another common but erroneous belief is, that a Municipal Council can by order or resolution do that which, if done through a by-law, would be illegal. This it cannot do. No Municipal Council can do that informally which it has no power to do directly and formally. (Daniels v. the Municipal Council of the Township of Burford, 10 U. C. Q. B. 478.) A by-law, order or resolution, which revives an illegal by-law, is of course itself illegal. (Canada Company v. the Municipal Council of the County of Oxford, 9 U. C. Q. B. 667.) An order or resolution duly signed and sealed is virtually a by-law; but many orders and resolutions pass by mere vote, without being thus authenticated. The municipal rules of proceeding generally require more formal steps to be taken in passing a by-law than in adopting an order or resolution. The power to make by-laws necessarily supposes the power to enforce them by pecuniary penalties, competent and proportionable to the offence. It is impossible to lay down any rule as to what is a reasonable penalty, for this must be determined by the nature of the offence. (Angell & Ames on Corporations, 861.) Fifty dollars would appear to be the general maximum (sec. 242, subsec. 6). The penalty may be levied by distress, and, failing that, by imprisonment of the offender (Id.). In construing a by-law, &c., the court will look at the whole of it, to ascertain its meaning, and construe one part with another, or other parts, so as if possible to give full effect to the whole. (In re Cameron and the Municipality of East Nisourch, 13 U. C. Q. B. 190.)

(w) Regulations.—It is not stated in what manner these regulations are to be made, whether by-law, order or resolution. It is certainly not stated that they are to be made by order or resolution. And it is elsewhere provided that the powers of a Municipal Council, "when not otherwise authorised or provided for," shall be exercised by by-law. (Sec. 188.) Little doubt therefore exists in the mind of the editor, but that the regulations in this section mentioned must be in the form of by-laws. (See note v to sec. 186.)

meetings
ings;

its members,—and the appointing or calling of special meetings of the Council; and generally, such other regulations as the good of the inhabitants of the Municipality requires; (x)

(x) Every Municipal Council is under this section empowered to make regulations for the following purposes:

1. For governing the proceedings of the Council.
2. For the conduct of its members.
3. For appointing special meetings of the Council.
4. For calling such meetings.
5. And generally such other regulations as the good of the inhabitants requires.

Provided there be no such regulations specifically given in this Act and provided the regulations be not contrary to law.

It is a principle applicable to every regulation of a Municipal Corporation, first, that it be not contrary to the municipal act or law authorizing the formation of the corporation; and, secondly, that it be not contrary to the general law of the land:

First.—The regulations of a Municipal Council must not be inconsistent with the Municipal Acts; for these acts create it an artificial being, impart to it its power, designate its object, and prescribe its mode of operation. They are in short the constitution of the Corporation. Hence all laws in contravention of them are void. The true test of all by-laws, says Mr. Justice Willmot, "is the intention of the Crown in granting the charter and the apparent good of the corporation." (The King v. Spencer, 3 Burr. 1688.) So of a Municipal Council it may be said that the true test of a by-law is the intention of the Legislature in incorporating the Council, and the apparent good of the Municipality affected. Mr. Justice Yates, in the same case, said, "Corporations cannot make by-laws contrary to their constitution. If they do so, they act without authority." (Ib.; but see "The Case of Corporations," 4 Co. B. 77, 78.) As transcending the Municipal Acts, by-laws creating a new office, imposing an oath of office where none is required by the acts, giving a vote to a class of persons not entitled to vote by law, qualifying persons to be candidates not qualified by the acts, giving a casting vote to an officer not entitled to it by the acts, restricting or extending the right of admission or eligibility to office, altering the prescribed mode of election, or imposing new or additional tests or qualifications either on members or voters, would be void. (See Angell & Ames on Corporations, 344.)

Second.—The law of a country being as well a rule for the proceedings of corporations as for the conduct of individuals, all by-laws contrary to the common or statute law of the country are void "All by-laws," says Hobart, "must ever be subject to the general law of the realm, and subordinate to it." (Norris v. Staps, Hob. 210.) For this reason, a by-law "impairing the obligation of contracts," or taking "private property for public use without just compensation," would be void. (Angell & Ames on Corporations, 330.) But where a statute authorized the corporation of a city to make by-laws "regulating," or if necessary "preventing," the interment of the dead within the city, it was held that though that corporation had granted lands for the purpose of interment, and had covenanted that they should be quietly enjoyed for that purpose, yet that the corporation was not thereby estopped from passing a by-law forbidding such interment, under a penalty. (Ib.) This case was decided on the ground that the legislative power of the corporation over this subject was delegated to it for the good of the city, and that the by-law passed was to be regarded as if passed by the legislature; that no person is entitled to use his property so as to injure another, and that no covenant could give him power so to do, even though made with the corporation; and, as tending to control and embarrass the exercise of its important powers as a local legislature, the covenant, when it came in competition with them, must give way or was repealed. (Ib.) The legislative power of a corporation is not only restricted by the statute law, but by the general principles and policy of the common law. Indeed, whenever a by-law seeks to alter a well-settled and fundamental principle of the common law, or to establish a rule interfering with the rights or endangering the security of individuals or the public, a statute or other special authority emanating from the creating power must be shown to legalise it, either expressly or by implication. It is upon this principle that, though many by-laws passed by the ancient municipal corporations in England for the regulation of trade have been adjudged good, yet many were adjudged void as in restraint of trade, and an oppression of the subject. (Angell & Ames on Corporations, 382.) In New York, where the trustees of a village corporation were empowered to make such prudential by-laws, rules and regulations as they from time to time should deem meet relative to "huckster shops in said village," provided they were not inconsistent with the laws of the State, or of the United States, it was held that a by-law passed by the trustees, that hucksterers should take and pay for a license from the trustees, under a penalty, especially where it did not expressly appear that prudence required such a by-law, was in restraint of trade and void, as contrary to the general principles and policy of the State. (Ib. 383.) There are however numerous municipal ordinances and by-laws affecting the property of the subject, such as ordinances requiring the owners of lots fronting on certain streets to fix curb stones and make a brick way in front of their lots, or assessing the owners of buildings for similar purposes, affecting and regulating certain occupations and modes of using and exhibiting certain animals, such as by-laws prohibiting unlicensed persons from removing house dirt and offal from the city, prohibiting farmers from occupying stands for the purpose of selling in certain streets constituted by by-law a part of the city market, prohibiting the keeping of bowling alleys for gain, prohibiting the driving or riding of horses on a trot or gallop in the streets of a city, or the public exhibition of stud horses in a city, or requiring coat, &c., to be weighed, which in the United States are held reasonable and valid, as no more than a proper exercise of that general legislative power usually vested in municipalities, for the due police and government of their crowded thoroughfares. (Ib. 384; see also sec. 24 of this act and the note passim.)

(y) It need hardly be mentioned that the same body as a municipal council, which has power to make has power to repeal by-laws; it being of the very nature of legislative powers that, by timely changes in the rule it prescribes, it should be enabled to meet the exigencies

BY-LAWS OF COUNCILS.

HOW AUTHENTICATED.

How By-laws to be authenticated.

Certified copies to be evidence.

188.—Every By-law shall be under the Seal of the Corporation, and shall be signed by the Head of the Corporation, or by the person presiding at the Meeting at which the By-law has been passed, and by the Clerk of the Corporation: (a) 189.—A copy of any By-law: (a) written or printed, without errors or interpolation; (b) and under the Seal of the Corporation; (c) and certified to be a true copy by the Clerk and by any Member of the Council; (d) shall be deemed authentic. (Angell & Ames on Corporations, 337.) But the power does not extend to all By-laws. There are certain By-laws, such as those authorizing the issue of debentures, &c. upon the faith of which third parties act, and their circumstances differ from which the Council may in some cases derive an immediate benefit, these being, in the nature of, securities rather than ordinary regulations, cannot be repealed until the loan or debt arising thereout or dependent thereupon is satisfied. (Sec. 231.) Hence it is that in the section here annotated the power given is to repeal, amend or amend By-laws, in general, "save as in by this act restricted." When, however, a part only of a sum of money provided for by a By-law has been raised, the Council may under certain restrictions repeal the By-law as to any part of the residue. (Sec. 230.)

(b) The formalities prescribed in this section are independent.

- The By-law must be:
1. Under the Seal of the Corporation.
 2. Signed by the Head of the Corporation.
 3. Or by the person who presided at the Meeting at which the By-law passed.
 4. Signed by the Clerk of the Corporation.

No action can be maintained, as for a breach of duty, against the Head of a Municipal Corporation for not applying the seal to make a contract between the Corporation and the plaintiff, founded upon a refusal, which, if there had been a previous contract, would have constituted a breach of it. There cannot be a remedy against the Head of the Corporation equivalent to a remedy on the contract against the Corporation itself, had the contract been duly made, or as to make a valid contract where there is none. (Fry v. London & N. E. R. Co., 12 Q. B. 149.)

(c) The copy must be certified.

(d) It is well to observe the requirement, that the copy, whether written or printed, is to be without errors or interpolation.

(e) The seal of course must have been affixed by the proper authority, and the production of the copy, with an impression of it, is prima facie evidence that it was affixed by the proper authority. (Angell & Ames on Corporations, 192.) The contrary must be shown by the objecting party. (15.)

(f) The certificate of the copy being a true one is to be signed "by the Clerk and by any Member of the Council."

Objection to, or stay of, proceedings.

190.—In case any person (g) rated on the assessment roll of any municipality, or of any locality therein (h), objects to the passing of a by-law, the passing of which is to be preceded by the application of a certain number of the rateable inhabitants of such municipality or place (i), he shall, on petitioning the Council, be at liberty to attend, in person or by counsel or attorney, before the Council at the time at which the by-law is intended to be considered, or before a committee of the Council appointed to hear evidence thereon, and may produce evidence that the necessary notice of the application for the by-law was not given, or that any of the signatures to the application are not genuine, or were obtained upon incorrect statements, and that the proposed by-law is contrary to the wishes of the persons whose signatures were so obtained, and that the remaining signatures do not amount to the number nor represent the amount of property necessary to the passing of the by-law. (f)

Opposition to By-laws applied for by rate-payers.

Provision for the Council to appoint a committee to hear evidence thereon.

Time within which the Council may appoint a committee to hear evidence thereon.

(e) On a motion to quash a by-law, order or resolution, it is only necessary to produce a copy, certified under the hand of the Clerk alone, and under the corporate seal, together with an affidavit of the party applying, that the copy was received from the Clerk. (Sec. 194.)

(f) It is for the party alleging the affirmative to give prima facie proof of the forgery, before the other party can be required to rebut it and support the deed; the same is on the party pleading forgery.

(g) Does the word "person," as here used, embrace corporations? (See 12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 3.) The provision hereafter made, that the complainant shall be at liberty, on petitioning the Council, to attend in person or by counsel, would seem to indicate that it does not.

(h) Which any person may be, on his own application. (12 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 17.)

(i) The right to object does not extend to the passing of all by-laws, but only such as are "to be preceded by the application of a certain number of the rateable inhabitants of the municipality or place."

(j) The right to attend for the purpose mentioned exists only "on petitioning the Council." The person so attending may raise all or any of the following objections:

1. That the necessary notice of the application for the by-law was not given.
2. That any of the signatures to the application are not genuine.

When By-laws shall not pass.

191.—If the Council is satisfied, upon the evidence, that the application for the by-law did not contain the names of a sufficient number of persons whose names were obtained without fraud and in good faith, and who represent the requisite amount of property, and are desirous of having the by-law passed, or if the Council is satisfied that the notice required by law was not duly given, the Council shall not pass the by-law. (k)

If a By-law requires the assent of the electors.

192.—In case a By-law requires the assent of the Electors of a municipality before the final passing thereof, (l) the following proceedings shall be taking for ascertaining such assent, except in cases otherwise provided for: (m)

Time and place of voting shall be fixed by By-law.

1.—The Council shall by the By-law fix the day, hour and place for taking the votes of the electors thereon at every place in the Municipality at which the elections of the Members of the Council or Councils therein are held; (n) and shall also name a Returning Officer to take the votes at every such place, and such day shall not be less than three nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the proposed By-law as herein provided for: (o)

3. That some of the signatures were obtained upon incorrect statements.

4. That the proposed by-law is contrary to the wishes of the persons whose signatures were so obtained.

5. And that the remaining signatures do not amount to the number, nor represent the amount of property necessary to the passing of the law.

(k) The Council is not to pass the by-law if satisfied of one of two things—either that the application for the by-law does not contain the names of a sufficient number of persons, &c., or that the notice required by law was not duly given.

(m) If the proceedings prescribed be not taken, or be not duly taken, the By-law may be held invalid.

(n) "Are held," that is in each ward, when there are wards, &c.

(o) The By-law itself is, among other requirements—1. To fix the time and place for taking the votes of the electors, &c. 2. To name a Returning Officer to take the votes. The time must not of course be inconvenient or unreasonable, and the place must be "every place at which the elections of the members of the Councils, &c., are held." If the Returning Officer named fail to attend, it is apprehended that the Electors may choose from among themselves a Returning Officer. (Sec. 94; sec. 192, subsec. 4.)

2.—The Council shall, for at least one month before the final passing of the proposed By-law, publish a copy thereof in some newspaper published weekly or oftener in the Municipality, or if there is no such newspaper, in some newspaper in the nearest place in which a newspaper is published, and also put up a copy of the By-law at four or more of the most public places in the Municipality; (p)

Proposed By-law to be published.

8.—Appended to each copy so published and posted, shall be a notice signed by the Clerk of the Council, stating that such copy is a true copy of a proposed By-law which will be taken into consideration by the Council after one month from the first publication in the newspaper, stating the date of the first publication, and naming the hour, day and place or places fixed for taking the votes of the Electors: (q)

Notice to be given.

4.—At such day and hour a Poll shall be taken and all proceedings thereat and for the purpose thereof shall be conducted in the same manner as nearly as may be, as at a Municipal Election; (r)

5.—Every Returning Officer shall on the day after the closing of the Poll, return his Poll-Book verified to the Clerk of the Local Municipality in which the Poll was taken, (s) and in case of a By-law of a County Council, the Clerk of the Lo-

Verified poll-book to be returned.

(p) The by-law is to be published in the manner directed, and to be so published "for at least one month," which means "one calendar month." (12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 11.) The manner of publication is to be the insertion of a copy of the By-law in some newspaper published weekly or oftener in the Municipality, or, if there is no such newspaper, in some newspaper in the nearest place in which a newspaper is published, and by putting up a copy of the By-law at four or more of the most public places in the Municipality. It is not clear whether the latter is to be done as well where there is a newspaper in the Municipality as where there is not. To prevent mistake, it had better be done in either case.

(q) The publication of the notice is quite as necessary as that of the By-law itself. The notice may be in this form:—Take notice that the above is a true copy of a proposed By-law, which will be taken into consideration by the Council of this Municipality. after one month from the first publication in the (naming the newspaper), the date of which first publication was (stating the day of the week, month and year), and that the votes of the Electors of the said Municipality will be taken thereon at (naming the place or places) on (naming the day, &c.) at (naming the hour).

Council thereof, (s) applies to either of the Superior Courts of Common Law (a), and produces to the Court a copy of the by-law, order or resolution (b), certified under the hand of the Clerk and under the corporate seal (c), and shows, by affidavit (d), separation a resident of and within the limits and boundaries of the Town of Peterborough, a Corporation within the said County of Peterborough, it was held that applicant was sufficiently described as a resident, so as to be entitled to make the application. (In re Conger and Peterborough Municipal Council, 8 U. C. Q. B. 849.) Where a freeholder of a Township, though not a resident, applied to quash a By-law; and it was objected, that being a non-resident he could not do so; it was held that as a freeholder of the township he had an interest in all the By-laws passed by the Township Council, sufficient to enable him to move to quash any of its By-laws. (In re De la Haye and the Municipality of the Gore of Toronto, 2 U. C. C. P. 317.)

(e) Before this Act, the Courts had no express authority on summary application to quash "orders or resolutions." The power was restricted to by-laws. (Daniels v. the Municipal Council of the Township of Burford, 10 U. C. Q. B. 478; In re Caesar and the Municipality of the Township of Cartwright, 12 U. C. Q. B. 841.)

(a) It has been held that the Practice Court is not authorized to entertain such an application. (In re Sims and the City of Toronto, 9 U. C. Q. B. 181.)

(b) Applicant must produce to the Court a copy of the by-law, order or resolution, that is of an existing by-law, &c. If before application the by-law, &c., has been repealed, of course no application to quash it is requisite. (In re McGill and the Municipal Council of the County of Peterborough, 9 U. C. Q. B. 562.)

(c) Where the Seal of the Corporation, though not mentioned in the Clerk's certificate, was on the same page with the certificate, immediately above it and opposite to the signature of the Clerk, the old law was held to be sufficiently complied with. (Baker v. the Municipal Council of Paris, 10 U. C. Q. B. 621.) The Court will discharge a rule to quash a by-law, &c., moved on a copy of the by-law, &c., verified in a manner different from that prescribed by this statute, unless the reason for the variances are clearly and satisfactorily explained. (Buchart v. the Municipality of the United Townships of Brant and Carrick, 6 U. C. C. P. 180.) As to compelling the Clerk to give a copy of the by-law, &c., certified as here directed, see In re Township Clerk of Euphrasia, 12 U. C. Q. B. 622.

(d) The affidavit ought to be intituled of the Court in which the motion is made (Fraser v. the Municipal Council of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Hengerry, 10 U. C. Q. B. 286); but if it appears from the jurat to have been sworn before a Commissioner of that Court, the objection will not avail. (Ib.) If, however, the Commissioner merely describes himself as "a Commissioner, &c." without stating of what Court, the affidavit must be intituled. (In re Hiron, et al. and the Municipal Council of Amherstburg, 11 U. C. Q. B. 466.) It need not be intituled "The Queen v. the Municipal Council of, &c." but may be "In the matter of W. S. C. and the Municipal Council of, &c." (In re Conger and Peterborough Municipal Council, 8 U. C. Q. B. 840.)

that the same was received from the Clerk (e), and that the applicant is resident or interested as aforesaid (f), the Court, after at least eight days' service (g) on the Corporation of a rule to show cause in this behalf (h), may quash the by-law, order or resolution in whole or in part (i) for illegality (j),

(e) It does not appear to be necessary that the copy produced should be sworn to have been received by the deponent himself from the Clerk. Where the deponent swore that the copy produced was received by one T. from the Clerk of the Council, and by T. was delivered to deponent, the affidavit was held sufficient. (Fisher v. the Municipal Council of Vaughan, 10 U. C. Q. B. 492.) The statute does not require that the affidavit should refer to the copy of the By-law, as being annexed, or that it should be in fact annexed but only that the copy produced is the copy received from the Clerk. (Bessy v. the Municipal Council of Grantham, 11 U. C. Q. B. 166.)

(f) Where the affidavit stated deponent to be a ratepayer and a resident-householder, it was held unnecessary to give any further description of him. (Bedder v. the Municipal Council of Paris, 10 U. C. Q. B. 621.)

(g) The meaning is that the corporation shall have eight days at least to answer the rule, so that a corporation served with a rule on the first Saturday of term was held not obliged to answer on the following Saturday. (In re Sams and the City of Toronto, 9 U. C. Q. B. 181.) Where the rule nisi was obtained near the end of term, and made returnable eight days after service, and defendants appeared during the following term and objected that the rule should have been to show cause on a day certain, held that the objection, even if good, was waived by appearance. (Perry v. the Town Council of Whitby, 13 U. C. Q. B. 664.)

(h) The service is to be "on the Corporation," and therefore where the motion was to quash a by-law for taking stock in a railway company, on the return of the rule, though the Corporation did not show cause, the Court declined to hear counsel for the railway company. (In re Billings and the Municipal Council of the Township of Gloucester, 10 U. C. Q. B. 278.) It is presumed that the service may be effected by leaving the copy with the Head of the Corporation, or with the Municipal Clerk. (See C. L. P. A. 1856, sec. 38.)

(i) It is not said that the Court shall quash, but that it may quash the By-law, &c., in whole or in part. The duty is not imperative. (Hodgson v. the Municipal Council of York and Peel and the Municipal Council of Ontario, 12 U. C. Q. B. 268.)

(j) For illegality.—The power of the Courts to deal summarily with by-laws, orders and resolutions of Municipal Councils, by quashing them on motion, depends wholly on this statute (Sutherland v. the Municipal Council of East Niagara, 10 U. C. Q. B. 626); and that power seems to be restricted to some illegality apparent on the face of the by-law, &c. (In re Hill and the Municipal Council of the Township of Walsingham, 9 U. C. Q. B. 310; Grierson v. the Municipality of Ontario, 9 U. C. Q. B. 628); excepting perhaps where the by-law, order or resolution, is shown to have been passed under circumstances which by the express terms of the statute make it illegal. (In re Laf-

WHEN CONFIRMED BY PROMULGATION.

195.—In case a By-law by which a rate is imposed has been specially promulgated in the manner hereinafter specified, (f) no application to quash the By-law shall be entertained after six calendar months have elapsed since the promulgation. (m)

Time after which By-law cannot be quashed, if properly promulgated.

196.—Every special promulgation of a By-law, within the meaning of this Act, (n) shall consist in the publication, through the public press, of a true copy of the By-law, and of the signature attesting its authenticity, (o) with a notice appended thereto of the time limited by Law for applications to the Courts to quash the same or any part thereof. (p) ferly v. the Municipal Council of Wentworth and Halton, 8 U. C. Q. B. 282.) Of course a by-law substantially illegal can afford no protection for what has been done under it, and so incidentally its validity may be decided upon at common law by Common Law Courts. (Sutherland v. the Municipal Council of East Nisouri, 10 U. C. Q. B. 626.)

What shall be such promulgation.

(k) The words of the old law were, "and if it shall appear to such Court that such By-law is legal, in whole or in the part complained of, to award costs in favor of such corporation, or otherwise against such corporation" (14 & 15 Vic. cap. 103, s. 21); words which were held not to be retrospective (Brown v. the Municipal Council of the County of York, 9 U. C. Q. B. 453), and are in meaning much the same as the words of this section, ("according to the result, award costs for or against the Corporation.") Where a Municipal Corporation, on being served with a rule nisi, repealed the by-law complained of, the Court notwithstanding obliged them to pay the costs of the application. (In re Coyne and the Municipal Council of Dunwich, 9 U. C. Q. B. 309.)

(m) The inconvenience of quashing a by-law imposing a rate, after it has been acted upon for months, is generally more than equal to the inconvenience of allowing a by-law, though technically defective, to exist. The effect of this section will be important in curing technical defects in by-laws imposing rates.

(n) A by-law. Though the following section is expressly restricted to "a by-law by which a rate is imposed," this section appears to extend as well to other by-laws. Of course the publication will not legalize a by-law illegal and void on the face of it; but it would seem that all formal or technical objections (if there is jurisdiction) are cured, and all collateral objections precluded, after the expiration of the time limited for applications to the Court to quash the same.

(o) The publication is to be in each public newspaper, published weekly or oftener, within the municipality, &c., and to be continued in at least three consecutive numbers of the paper. (Sec. 197.)

(p) See sec. 198, as to form thereof.

And if the By-law imposes any rate.

197.—In case of a By-law by which a Rate is imposed (g) the promulgation shall be either by such publication of a copy of the By-law with such notice as aforesaid, or in lieu thereof by such publication of a notice setting forth the amount of the rate and giving the substance (a) of the other parts of the By-law, with a similar notice of the time so limited for applications to quash as aforesaid, (r) and the publication referred to in the preceding two sections, shall be in each public newspaper published weekly or oftener within the Municipality; (s) or if there be no such newspaper, then in at least two public newspapers published weekly or oftener nearest to the Municipality, and the publication shall for the purpose aforesaid be continued in at least three consecutive numbers of the paper. (t)

Notice to be given.

Form of such notice.

198.—The notice to be appended to every copy of a By-law for the purpose aforesaid, shall be to the effect following: (u)

"NOTICE.—The above is a true copy of a By-law passed by the Municipal Council of the Township of A, in the County of B, one of the United Counties of B, C and D, (or as the case may be) on the — day of —, 185, and (where the approval of the Governor in Council is by law required to give effect to such By-law) approved by His Excellency the Governor General in Council, on the — day of —, 185; and all persons are hereby required to take notice, that any one desirous of applying to have such By-law or any part thereof quashed, must make his application for that purpose to one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Toronto, within six Calendar Months at the farthest after the special promulgation thereof by the publication of this notice in three consecutive numbers of the following newspapers, viz: (here name the newspapers in which the publication is to be made), or he will be too late to be heard in that behalf.

"G. H., Township Clerk."

(g) See note a to sec. 196.

(r) Two modes of publication are pointed out; either may be adopted. (See secs. 198 & 199 as to forms of notice.)

(s) Municipality. See sec. 402, subsec. 1.

(t) It would seem that the six months allowed for an application to quash a by-law are to be computed from the publication of the first number of the newspaper in which the notice is made. (See sec. 198.)

(u) Where a statute expressly provides that a thing is to be done in a given form, the statute ought to be closely followed. (See Warren v. Lons, 7 Dowl. P. C. 602; Oodrington v. Curlew, 9 Dowl. P. C. 968). The form here given is "in effect" to be followed.

"G. H., Township Clerk."

200.—In case no application to quash any By-law so specially promulgated is made within the time limited for that purpose, (v) the By-law, or so much thereof as is not the subject of any such application, or not quashed upon such application, so far as the same ordains, prescribes or directs any thing within the proper competence of the Council to ordain, prescribe or direct, shall, notwithstanding any want of substance or form, either in the By-law itself, or in the time or manner of passing the same, be a valid By-law. (x).

If not moved against, within the time limited, to be valid.

(v) See note to sec. 198.

(w) This and sec. 198 seem to contemplate by-laws for any purpose, while sects. 196 and 197 and the forms of notices seem to apply only to by-laws imposing rates. These sections are taken from the repealed statute 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 109, Sch. A. 21, provisions Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, and are in substance the same.

301.—In case a By-law, Order or Resolution is illegal in whole or in part, (a) and in case any thing has been done under it which, by reason of such illegality, gives any person a right of action, (a) no such action shall be brought until one calendar month has elapsed after the By-law, Order or Resolution has been quashed or repealed, (b) nor until one calendar month's notice in writing of the intention to bring such action has been given to the Corporation; (c) and every such action shall be brought against the Corporation alone, and not against any person acting under the By-law, Order or Resolution. (d) prescribed is a cure of any want of substance or form, either in the by-law, &c., itself or in the time or manner of passing the same, provided whatever is ordained or directed by the by-law, &c., is within the proper competence of the Council.

(a) See sec. 194 and notes thereto.

(a) It would appear that if a by-law, &c., is not void on the face of it, without being quashed, all proceedings duly had under it while in force may be justified under it. (Barclay v. the Municipality of the Township of Darlington, 5 U. C. C. P. 482.)

(b) Quashed or repealed.—This implies that a by-law, at any time before being quashed, may be repealed. (See In re McGill and the Municipal Council of the County of Peterborough, 9 U. C. C. B. 562; and Barclay v. the Municipality of the Township of Darlington, 5 U. C. C. P. 482.)

(c) This portion of the section is new, and is apparently introduced in order to settle a conflict of opinion between the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas as to the necessity of notice before action. (Brown v. the Municipal Council of the Township of Sarnia, 11 U. C. Q. B. 215; Snook et al v. the Town Council of Brantford, 18 U. C. Q. B. 621; Magrath v. the Municipality of the Township of Brook, 18 U. C. Q. B. 629; Reid v. the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Hamilton, 5 U. C. C. P. 269; Craft v. the Town Council of Peterborough, 5 U. C. C. P. 141; Barclay v. the Municipality of the Township of Darlington, 5 U. C. C. P. 482.)

(d) It appears therefore that if any thing has been done under a by-law, &c., which is illegal, and gives any person a right of action—1. The action shall be brought against the Corporation that passed the by-law, &c., and not against any person who acted under it. 2. The action is not to be brought while the by-law, &c., is in force, nor until one calendar month has elapsed after the by-law, &c., is quashed or repealed. 3. Before bringing it, one calendar month's notice in writing of the intention to bring it must first be given to the Corporation. 4. Whether notice of action can be given before the by-law, &c., is quashed or repealed is a question, but material only in case the time for bringing the action is limited and the time about to expire. (See McKenzie v. the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of Kingston, 18 U. C. Q. B. 684.)

TENDER OF AMENDS BY.

302.—In case the Corporation tenders amends to the Plaintiff or his Attorney, (e) if such tender be pleaded and law, &c., has been quashed or repealed for one calendar month, and this, as already mentioned, precludes the bringing of the action while the by-law, &c., subsists; but it does not follow that the Statutes of Limitations only begin to run from the time of quashing or repealing. It is clear that actions may be brought (though only against the Corporation) for things done under the illegal by-law, &c., that is things done in pursuance of, or in execution of it, or under its authority while in force. The right of action may be held to vest the moment the thing is done, and, if so, every statute limiting a right of action of the particular kind would begin to run forthwith. Were it not so, very stale matters might be made grounds of action against Municipal Councils, and which in the case of individuals would be outlawed.

(e) The law as to "Tender" is not much understood by the public, and requires some remarks in this place.

1. Definition.—A tender in this section means the offering of money in satisfaction of a cause of action arising out of something done under a by-law, order or resolution, quashed or repealed.

2. How made.—A tender must be unqualified and unconditional. (Mitchell v. King, 6 C. & P. 287; Jennings v. Turner, 8 C. & P. 61; Strong v. Harvey, 3 Bing. 304.) Whether conditional or not is a question for the jury. (Marsden v. Goode, 2 C. & K. 183; Milburn v. Milburn, 4 U. C. Q. B. 179.) Strictly speaking the tender ought to be of specie; but a tender in bank notes, if not objected to on the ground of being notes, will be good. (Blow v. Russell, 1 C. & P. 365.) The precise sum intended or more must be tendered, without requiring change. (Brady v. Jones, 2 D. & R. 305.) The money ought to be actually produced (Kraus v. Arnold, 7 Moo. 59; Leatherdale v. Sweepstone, 3 C. & P. 342; Thompson v. Hamilton, 5 U.C.O.S. 111); but this may be dispensed with by the party to whom the tender is made, as where defendant said he had the money in his pocket, and plaintiff said "You need not give yourself the trouble of offering it, for I will not take it." (Douglass v. Patrick, 3 T. R. 684; Jackson v. Jacobs, 3 Bing. N. C. 869.) A receipt for the money cannot be insisted upon. (Cole v. Blake, Peake, 179.)

3. To whom made.—Under this section the amends may be tendered to the plaintiff or his attorney." A tender strictly speaking ought to be made before the writ is sued out, and if made to the plaintiff himself would be more satisfactory than if made to his attorney. But if the attorney is authorized to settle the business, and writes to defendants previous to suing out the writ, warning them of the action, unless they pay him the money or the like, the tender may clearly be made to the attorney. (Sellon, Fr. 2, 815.) The attorney must under any circumstances be one employed in the particular action, and not merely one generally employed by plaintiff. (Ib.) No attorney has authority to compromise an action after writ, by accepting less than the account demanded by the writ or declaration. (See Swinfen v. Swinfen, 26 L. J. C. P. 97; 3 Jur. N. S. 85.)

(if traversed) proved, (f) and if no more than the amount tendered is recovered, the plaintiff shall have no costs, but costs shall be taxed to the defendant, and set off against the verdict, and the balance due to either party shall be recovered as in ordinary cases. (g)

OFFENCES AGAINST BY-LAWS.

Offences
laws.

202.—In case any Officer of a Municipal Corporation neglects or refuses to carry into effect a By-law for paying a debt, and so neglects or refuses under colour of a By-law illegally attempting to repeal such first mentioned By-law, or to alter the same so as to diminish the amount to be levied under it, such Officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the Court whose duty it may be to pass sentence upon him. (A)

to try.

204.—In case an offence is committed against a by-law of a Council, for the prosecution of which offence no other provision is made, (i) any Justice of the Peace, having jurisdiction in the locality where the offender resides, or where the offence was committed, (j) whether the Justice is a member of the Council or not, (k) may try and determine any prosecution for the offence. (f) It is not enacted that the tender may be given in evidence under the general issue, and it is apprehended that it ought to be specially pleaded.

(g) The object of the tender is to prevent needless litigation. The tender admits a cause of action, but limits the amount of damages arising therefrom. The party tendering in effect says, "I admit you have a right to bring this action, but I do not admit that you are entitled to any damages more than the amount tendered." If plaintiff declines the tender, and recovers no more than the amount tendered, he loses his costs, and, worse still, is compelled to pay the costs of defendant, which may be set off against his verdict.

(A) Misdemeanor.—See note r to sec. 55.

(i) If for the prosecution of the offence provision is made, and that provision is not contrary to law, it must of course be followed.

(j) The offender may be prosecuted either where he resides when apprehended or where the offence was committed.

(k) The Head of every Council, which includes Reeves of Townships and Incorporated Villages, the Aldermen of a City, the Reeve of every Town, and the Deputy Reeve of every Township, are ex officio Justices of the Peace. (Sec. 240.)

convict the offender on the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, and shall award the penalty or punishment imposed by the By-law with the costs of prosecution, and may by warrant under the hand and seal of the Justice or other authority, or in case two or more Justices act together therein, then under the hand and seal of one of them, cause any pecuniary penalty and costs, or costs only, if not forthwith paid, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender. (m)

Penalty and costs.

How levied.

206.—In case of there being no distress found, out of which the penalty can be levied, the Justice may commit the offender to the Common Gaol, House of Correction or nearest Lock-up-House, for the term specified in the By-law. (n)

Commitment in default of distress.

207.—When the pecuniary penalty has been levied, one moiety thereof shall go to the informer or prosecutor, and the other moiety to the Corporation, unless the prosecution is brought in the name of the Corporation; and in that case the whole of the pecuniary penalty shall be paid to the Corporation. (o)

Fines how applied.

208.—The Police Magistrate, or when there is none, the Mayor of a Town or City, shall have jurisdiction in addition to his other powers, to try and determine all prosecutions for offences against the By-laws of the Town or City, and for penalties for refusing to accept office therein, or to make the necessary declarations of qualification and office. (p)

Jurisdiction of Mayors and Police Magistrates over penal offences.

(m) The powers of the Justice or other authority are under this section the following:

1. To convict the offender on the oath or affirmation of any credible witness.
2. To award the penalty or punishment imposed by the by-law, with the costs of the prosecution.
3. By warrant, to cause any pecuniary penalty and costs, or costs only (as the case may be), to be levied by distress.

(n) The form of commitment and other forms requisite under these penal clauses (203–208) ought to be as nearly as may be the same as given in the Summary Convictions Act, 16 Vic. cap. 178.

(o) It is submitted that the informer, notwithstanding his expectation of and interest in the penalty, would be “a credible witness” within the meaning of sec. 206. Interest is no longer a ground for the exclusion of evidence. (16 Vic. cap. 19.)

(p) A Police Magistrate has generally, as regards the City or Town of which he is an officer, the same jurisdiction as Justices of the Peace have in their several Counties, and his proceedings should be conducted in the same manner as if he were a Commissioned Justice of the Peace. (See 16 Vic. cap. 178.)

(g) It has been held, that a debenture issued by a Municipal Council, under its corporate seal and signed by the Head of the Corporation, for the payment of a debt due or loan contracted under a by-law which does not provide by special rate for payment of the debt or loan, does not estop the Municipal Corporation from setting up as a defence to an action on the debenture the invalidity of the by-law. (Mellish v. the Town Council of the Town of Brantford, 2 U. C. C. P. 35.) It is the duty of the Clerk of every Municipal Corporation, within two weeks after the final passing of any by-law passed for the purpose of raising money by the issue of debentures, and before the sale or contract of sale of the debentures, to transmit to the County Registrar a copy of the by-law, duly certified, and other like information for the purpose of registration. (22 Vic. cap. 91, sec. 2.)

(r) A debenture resembles the promissory note of an individual, and, like it, may be made payable either to bearer or order. (See next section.)

(s) A debenture is a chose in action; and it is an ordinary rule of law that a chose in action cannot be transferred so as to give the transferee a right to sue at law upon it in his own name. (Smith's Mercantile Law, 5 Ed. 229.) The chief exceptions are bills of exchange and promissory notes, which for the benefit of trade have been made negotiable. Another exception is that of a debenture issued under this act. It is apprehended that a debenture transferred abroad is only transferable according to the laws of the foreign country. (See Trimbey v. Vignier, 1 Bing. N. C. 151.)

In pleading, sufficient to describe Plaintiff as the holder.

213.—Any such debenture, issued as aforesaid, (w) shall be valid and recoverable to the full amount notwithstanding its negotiation by such Corporation at a rate less than par, (x) or at a rate of interest greater than six per centum per annum. (y)

Full amount recoverable though negotiated at interest exceeding 6 per cent. or below par.

RESTRICTIONS UPON COUNCILS.

214.—No Council shall act as bankers, or issue any Bond, Bill, Note Debenture or other undertaking, of any kind or in any form, or in the nature of a Bank Bill or Note, or intended to form a circulating medium, or to supply the place of specie, or to pass as money; (z) nor, unless specially autho-one which mentions the name of the party in whose favor it is made. An indorsement in blank, one which does not mention such name. (Smith's Mer. Law, 6 Edit. 280.) The latter is the only form of indorsement contemplated by this section. The indorsement of a debenture will not, it is believed, like the indorsement of a bill or note, guarantee its payment. (See Allen v. Walker, 2 M. & W. 317.) There is no reason why a debenture should, like a bill or note, be within the law merchant. (Ib.)

(u) See note s to sec. 210.

(v) The provisions of this section are designed to simplify proceedings at law against the municipality by the holder of a debenture, for the amount which it represents. They extend both to pleading and to evidence.

(w) Either as mentioned in sec. 210 or sec. 211.

(x) And in this respect resembles bills or notes.

(y) By statute 22 Vic. cap. 85, it is made lawful "for any person or persons, &c., to stipulate or allow and exact, on any contract or agreement whatsoever, any rate of interest or discount which may be agreed upon" (Sec. 2); but it is provided that nothing therein contained "shall be construed to apply to any corporation or company or association of persons, not being a bank, heretofore authorized by law to lend or borrow money." (Sec. 6.)

(z) The object of this and the following section is to confine Munirised so to do, shall any Council make or give any Bond, Bill, Note, Debenture or other undertaking, for the payment of a less amount than one hundred dollars; (c) and any Bond, Bill, Note, Debenture or other undertaking issued in contravention of this Section, shall be void. (b)

To issue bank notes, &c. contrary to this Act, declared a misdemeanor.

Creating Monopolies prohibited.

215.—In case any person issues or makes, or assists in issuing or making, or knowingly utters or tenders in payment or exchange, any Bond, Bill, Note, Debenture or undertaking, of any kind or in any form, in the nature of a Bank Bill or Note, intended to form a circulating medium, or to supply the place of specie, or to pass as money, contrary to this Act, (c) such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. (d)

216.—No Council shall have power to give any person an exclusive right of exercising within the Municipality any trade or calling, or to impose a special tax on any person exercising the same, or to require a license to be taken for exercising the same, unless authorized or required by Statute so to do; (e) but the Council may direct a fee, not exceeding one dollar, to be paid to the proper Officer for a certificate of cipal Councils within the legitimate sphere of their institution. The section under consideration is more particularly directed against the issue of undertakings "intending to form a circulating medium, or to supply the place of specie, or to pass as money."

(a) This was the old law. (See 12 Vic. cap. 81, sec. 183.)

(b) Whether apparently in the hands of innocent parties or not. Parties contravening the provisions of the section are by the next section made criminally responsible. (Sec. 215.)

(c) This section comprehends two classes of offenses. 1. Issuing, making, or assisting in issuing or making, any municipal bond, bill, &c. 2. Knowingly uttering or tendering in payment or exchange any such bond, bill, &c.

(d) Misdemeanor.—See note r to sec. 55.

(e) Monopolies are odious to the law. A monopoly is when the sale of any merchandise or commodity is restrained to one or to a certain number (11 Co. 86), and has three inseparable consequences—the increase of the price, the badness of the wares, the impoverishment of others. (Ib.) By statute 21 Jac. 2, all monopolies and all commissions, grants, licenses, &c., to any person, &c., for any sale, buying, selling, making, working, using of a thing, &c., are void. And any one grieved, &c., may have an action on the statute, and recover treble damages and double costs. So monopolies are contrary to Magna Charta. (2 Inst. 68.) By statute 88 Ed. 3, a merchant may freely deal in all manner of merchandise. The statute of 21 Jac. 2 does not extend to letters patent for inventions, &c. The first part of this section is simply a declaration of the common law. No Municipal Council has a right to grant a monopoly, "unless authorized or required by statute so to do."

(f) A by-law made only for the regulation of any one in the use or exercise of that which he has a right to do, may be good. (Com. Dig. By-law B. 2.)

(g) A ferry is a franchise which cannot be set up without the license of the Crown, or the authority of some body corporate or person empowered by the Crown, or the Legislature, to grant the same. (Com. Dig. "Piscary," B.) Ferries, when granted by the Crown in Upper Canada, are generally put up to public competition and leased for a term of not more than seven years. (9 Vic. cap. 9, sec. 2.) The leases or licenses are under the great seal. (8 Vic. cap. 50, sec. 8.) Where the ferry is required over any stream the two shores of which are in different municipalities not in the same county, a license may be granted to either of the municipalities exclusively, or to both conjointly, as may be most conducive to the public interest. (20 Vic. cap. 7, sec. 1.) Where one shore is within the limits of a city, town, or incorporated village, and the other in a township or rural municipality, the license must be issued to the city, town, or incorporated village. (Ib. sec. 4.) The license may be for any period not exceeding 50 years. (Ib. sec. 2.) It confers a right on the municipality or municipalities to establish a ferry from shore to shore, &c., upon condition that the craft to be used shall be propelled by steam, &c. (Ib. sec. 1.) Upon receipt of any such license, the municipality or municipalities may pass a by-law declaring their determination to sublet the ferry, and may sublet the same, for such price and upon such terms, &c., as they deem best. (Ib. sec. 3.) No license of a ferry on the line of the Provincial Frontier can be granted to any person or body corporate beyond the limits of the Province, but must in all cases be granted to the municipality within the limits of which the ferry exists, &c. (Ib. sec. 5.) Any person interfering with the rights, &c., of a licensed ferryman, may be summarily proceeded against under statute 8 Vic. cap. 50. But any person may, notwithstanding these acts, use for his own accommodation his own vessel or craft to cross the river or stream over which a ferry exists. (8 Vic. cap. 50, sec. 1; 9 Vic. cap. 9, sec. 1.) A boat may also, it seems, lawfully ply with passengers from one of the termini of a ferry to a place without the limits of the ferry, however near to them, if done bona fide and not to injure the ferryman's right. If there be an exclusive ferry from A. to B., it does not prevent persons from going by any other boat from A. directly to C., though it be near B., provided it be not done fraudulently and as a pretence for avoiding the regular ferry. EXECUTIONS AGAINST CORPORATIONS.

Writs of execution against Municipalities.

220.—Any writ of execution against a Municipal Corporation, may be endorsed with a direction to the Sheriff to levy the amount thereof by rate, and the proceedings thereon shall then be the following: (k)

Sheriff to deliver statement to Treasurer.

1. The Sheriff shall deliver a copy of the writ and indorsement to the Chamberlain or Treasurer, or leave such copy at the office or dwelling-house of that officer, with a statement in writing of the Sheriff's fees, and of the amount required to satisfy such execution, including in such amount the interest, calculated to some day as near as is convenient to the day of the service. (l)

(A) A member of a Municipal Corporation agreed with another party to take a contract from the Corporation for the execution of certain works in his name, the profits whereof were to be divided between the parties. Held, that such a contract was in contravention of the municipal law, and the Court of Chancery refused to enforce the agreement for a partnership. (Collins v. Swindle, 4 U.C.L.J. 42.)

(i) The making of such a contract void at law, as well as in equity, is a new provision.

(j) At common law, when a rule nisi for a mandamus was discharged, the Courts gave costs or not, to the person opposing it, according to their discretion in each case. (Kennedy v. The Municipal Council of Sandwich, 9 U. C. Q. B. 326.)

(k) A Municipal Corporation being liable to be sued (see note d to sec. 4), is liable to the consequence of a suit, viz., execution. As the assets of the Corporation are not the property of the members of the Corporation, but of the people whom they represent, the form of proceeding by execution against such a corporation, must of necessity differ from that of proceeding by execution against an individual.

(l) Notwithstanding the partial abolition of the Usury laws, six per cent. still continues to be the rate of interest in all cases where, by the agreement of the parties or by law, interest is payable, and no rate of interest has been fixed by the parties or by law. (22 Vic. cap. 85, sec. 5)

B. vs. The Township (or as the case may be, adding a similar column for each execution, if more than one), and shall insert therein the amount by such precept required to be levied upon each person respectively, and shall levy the amount of such execution rate as aforesaid, and shall, within the time they are by law required to make the returns of the general annual rate, return to the Sheriff the precept with the amount levied thereon, after deducting their per centage. (o) It is the duty of the Sheriff to strike a rate "sufficient," &c. No provision exists for the striking of a second rate, in the event of the first proving insufficient. If the amount levied should be more than sufficient, provision is made for the disposition of the surplus. (Subsec. 5.)

(p) See statute 16 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 41, et seq.

(q) The duties of Collectors under this clause are the following:

1. To add a column to the general roll, with the heading directed.
2. To insert therein the amount by the precept required to be levied, &c.
3. To levy the amount of the execution rate.
4. To return to the Sheriff, within the time limited, the precept, with the amount levied, after deducting per centage.

Surplus.

5. The Sheriff shall, after satisfying the execution and all fees thereon, pay any surplus, within ten days after receiving the same, to the Chamberlain or Treasurer, for the general purposes of the Corporation. (r)

Clerk, Assessors and Collectors to be officers of the Court from which Writ issues.

6. The Clerk, Assessors and Collectors of the Corporation shall, for all purposes connected with carrying into effect, or permitting or assisting the Sheriff to carry into effect, the provisions of this Act, with respect to such executions, be deemed to be officers of the Court out of which the writ issued, and as such shall be amenable to the Court, and may be proceeded against by attachment or otherwise, to compel them to perform the duties hereby imposed upon them. (s)

DEBTS AND RATES.

TRAVEL RATES FOR DEBTS.

Yearly rates to be levied, sufficient to pay all debts.

221.—The Council of every township, and the Council of every county, and of every provisional corporation, and of every city, and of every town, and of every incorporated village, respectively, shall assess and levy on the whole ratable property within its jurisdiction (t) a sufficient sum in each year to pay all valid debts of the Corporation, whether of principal or interest, falling due within the year. (u)

(r) As to the computation of the ten days, see note r to sec. 98.

(s) This is a most important clause. The power of the Court over its officers is of a very summary nature.

(t) The assessment is to be made on "the whole ratable property," &c. An assessment, therefore, on wild lands alone would be invalid. (Tyles v. The Municipality of Waterloo, 9 U. C. Q. B. 572.)

(u) The power given is to assess and levy, &c., a sufficient sum in each year to pay all valid debts, &c., falling due within the year. It is not easy to define what is meant by "a valid debt." It may be described as a debt which the corporation is legally liable to pay, and the payment of which may be enforced by process of law. Then the assessment is to be for a valid debt "falling due within the year;" therefore an assessment may be made for a debt incurred in a previous year, provided it is a valid debt, and fall due within the year in which the assessment is made. This does not apparently exclude a debt which, besides being incurred, fell due in a previous year. Whether a municipal corporation is liable to be sued in any one year for a debt which fell due in a previous year, unless secured by by-law, sanctioned by public vote, is a question. (Sec. 223.) Were such an action to lie, it would afford a strong argument for the legal right of the corporation to levy a rate "for a debt falling due in a previous year," which the section under consideration does not authorize. The general inconvenience of retrospective rates has in England been long known and recognized in the courts of law, on the ground that succeeding rate-payers ought not to be made to pay for services of which their

BY-LAWS TO CREATE DEBTS, &c.

222.—Every such Council (u) may, under the formalities required by law, (v) pass By-laws for contracting debts by borrowing money or otherwise, (w) and for levying rates for payment of such debts on the ratable property of the Municipality, for any purpose within the jurisdiction of the Council, (x) but no such By-law shall be valid which is not in accordance with the following restrictions and provisions: (y)

By-laws for contracting debts.

predecessors have had the benefit. (See The King v. Chappell-warden of Haworth, 12 East, 556; Cortis v. Kent Water-works Company, 7 B. & C. 314; Rez v. Justices of Flintshire, 5 B. & Ald. 761; Woods v. Reed, 2 M. & W. 777; Jones v. Johnson, 5 Ex. 862; 8 C. in Error, 7 Ex. 462.) One object of the law, as rate-payers fluctuate, is to protect present inhabitants from being burthened with the expenses of their predecessors. (The King v. Wavell et al., Doug. 116; The King v. Goodcheap, 6 T. R. 159; Attorney-General v. Wigan, 18 Jurist, 299.) As a rule, money required for municipal purposes ought to be raised as the law directs—beforehand, instead of being in any manner or by any person advanced, in the expectation of reimbursement by the municipality. (See The King v. Chappell-warden of Bradford, 12 East, 556; Towney's Case, 2 Rayd. 1609; Dawson v. Wilkinson, Cases Temp. Hard. 381.) It is for reasons such as these that the power to assess under this section is restricted to debts falling due "within the year." The result appears to be, that no Municipal Council should incur a debt without at the same time providing for its payment. How far a municipality is liable to an action, even within the year, for a debt contracted within the year without the imposition of a rate to meet it, is a question. The question is, how far a debt contracted for any purpose, without a rate or public vote, is a valid debt. The policy of the law appears to be, that all debts should be met by a rate in anticipation, or that otherwise the amount should be raised by rate within the current year. By the observance of this policy, abuses may be prevented; but by the neglect of it, abuses will assuredly arise. If there were no such policy to be observed, Council after Council might allow arrears of debts to accumulate year after year, so as to bind future Councils and to burthen future rate-payers. If this were permitted, there would be no check upon the extravagance of municipal councillors,—the end of which would be, in all probability, the bankruptcy of the municipality. Of course where a by-law is, before its passing, submitted, pursuant to sec. 223, to the electors for their assent, there is a check. Where such check exists, the operation of the by-law need not be restricted to the payment of debts "falling due within the year."

(u) i. e. The Council of every Township, County, City, Town, and Incorporated Village, and of every Provisional Corporation. (Sec. 221.)

(v) i. e. Subject to and in observance of the formalities required by law.

(x) See note u to sec. 221.

Terms of.	1. The By-law, if not for creating a debt for the purchase of Public Works, shall name a day in the financial year in which the same is passed, when the By-law shall take effect; (2)
When to take effect.
When debt to be redeemed.	2. If not contracted for gas or water works, or for the purchase of public works, according to the statutes relating thereto, the whole of the debt and the obligations to be issued therefor shall be made payable in twenty years at furthest from the day on which such By-law takes effect; and if the debt is contracted for gas or water works, the same shall in like manner be paid in thirty years at furthest, from the day on which the By-law takes effect; (a)
If for gas-works, &c.
To provide a yearly rate.	3. The By-law shall settle an equal special rate per annum, in addition to all other rates, to be levied in each year, for paying the debt and interest; (b)
Sufficient in amount.	4. Such special rate shall be sufficient, according to the amount of ratable property appearing by the last revised Assessment-Rolls, to discharge the debt and interest when respectively payable; (c)
Irrespective of future increase of ratable property.	5. The amount of ratable property shall be ascertained irrespective of any future increase of the ratable property of the Municipality, and of any income in the nature of tolls,

(2) As to By-laws for the purchase of public works, see sec. 225 et seq.

(a) The power to contract a debt payable at a future period, and to secure its payment at that period by the rate-payers then living, is founded on the principle that the object for which the debt is contracted is one which will benefit future rate-payers as well as those living at the time the debt is contracted. This is quite consistent with the policy of municipal law, as explained in note u to sec. 221.

(b) The By-law is to "settle" the rate and not leave it to a municipal officer to be computed (see The Canada Company v. the Municipal Council of the County of Middlesex, 10 U. C. Q. B. 98); and when so settled it is to be "an equal special rate per annum," that is, the rate is to be equal in each succeeding year—not fluctuating according to the arbitrary discretion of the Municipality. (In re Sells and the Municipality of the Village of St. Thomas, 3 U. C. C. P. 286.)

(c) It does not appear to be necessary that the By-law should set forth the estimates on which it is founded. (Fletcher v. the Municipality of Euphrasia, 18 U. C. Q. B. 129.) The Court will intend that proper estimates have been made, in the absence of evidence that they are wanting. (Ib.) If the rate is demonstrated to be insufficient, the by-law may be quashed. (Perry v. the Town Council of the Town of Whitby, 18 U. C. Q. B. 564.) It has been held that Municipal Councils cannot by By-law borrow money at a rate of interest exceeding six per cent. (Wilson and the Municipal Council of the County of Elgin, 18 U. C. Q. B. 218.) The late Act does not appear to make any alteration of the law in this respect. (See note y to sec. 218.)

(d) It does not appear to be necessary that the By-law should state the rate to be calculated at so much in the pound on the actual value of the ratable property of the Municipality. (Tyler v. the Municipality of Waterloo, 9 U. C. Q. B. 572.) In the absence of any thing to the contrary, the Court will intend that the Council has acted according to law. (Ib.)

(e) The by-law should describe the debts and their amounts. (See The Canada Company v. the Municipal Council of the County of Middlesex, 10 U. C. Q. B. 98.) These may be shown in the recitals of the By-law. Where a by-law recited that the amount of the whole ratable property of the Township, according to the last assessment returns, was £114,756; and that it would require the annual rate of 2½d. in the pound, as a special rate for payment, &c.; and then enacted that a special rate of 2½d. should be levied to pay the principal and interest of the loan to be raised under the By-law, and that the proceeds of such special rate should be applied solely to the payment, &c., until the same be fully paid and satisfied. Held that the recital as to the amount of ratable property and the assessment returns sufficiently appeared, and that it sufficiently appeared that the amount was to be raised in each year. (In re Cameron and the Municipality of East Nisouri, 18 U. C. Q. B. 190.) In one part of the By-law, the Reeve was empowered to issue debentures for such sums as should be from time to time required for the purposes mentioned, but not to exceed in the whole £10,000. In subsequent clauses a special rate was imposed to pay "the said sum of £10,000," and the application of "the said sum of £10,000" was pointed out. The debentures were directed to be made payable "within 20 years of the time that this by-law shall come into operation." Held that the amount of the loan and the time when the debentures were to be made payable was stated with sufficient certainty. (Ib.) Where a by-law provided that the site of an old town hall should be disposed of, and any money above the proceeds of the hall required for the erection of a new one should be levied on the ratable property in the Municipality, but did not fix the amount or the rate to be levied, this part of the by-law was held

233.—Every by-law for raising upon the credit of the Municipality any money not required for its ordinary expenditure, and not payable within the same municipal year, shall, before the final passing thereof, receive the assent of the electors of the Municipality, in the manner provided for in the 102nd section of this Act. Except that in Counties (other than Cities) the Council of such County or Counties may raise by By-law or By-laws, without submitting the same for the assent of the Electors of such County or Counties, for contracting debts or loans, any sum or sums, over and above the sums required for its ordinary expenditure, not exceeding in any one year twenty thousand dollars. (f)

234.—Provided that no such By-law of a County Council for contracting any such debt or loan for an amount, over and above the sums required for its ordinary expenditure, not exceeding in any one year twenty thousand dollars, shall be valid, (g) unless the same is passed at a meeting of the Council especially called for the purpose of considering the same, and held not less than three calendar months after a copy of such By-law at length as the same is ultimately passed, (h) together with a notice of the day appointed for considering the same, has been published in some newspaper issued weekly or oftener had. (In re Hawks and the Municipality of Wellesley, 13 U.C. Q.B. 536.) Not only the rate must be mentioned in the By-law, but the amount to be raised thereby (see Tyles v. the Municipality of Waterloo, 9 U.C. Q. B. 572); and also the purpose or object for which it is required. (Ib.) Thus "to pay off two debentures held by William Allan, for erecting the court-house in said district" (Ib. p. 588), or "for the purpose of liquidating the sum of £1500 due to the Gore Bank, and the sum of £500 due by the District to Alexander Drysdale, Esquire." (Ib.)

(f) The rule is that every by-law for raising money shall, before the final passing thereof, receive the assent of the electors. The exceptions are, first, by-laws requiring money for ordinary expenditure; secondly, by-laws raising money to be paid in the municipal year in which raised; and, thirdly, by-laws of counties contracting debts or loans not exceeding in any one year twenty thousand dollars.

(g) There is some obscurity in these sections. The meaning seems to be that in addition to the sums required for the ordinary expenditure of the year, a County Council may raise, in the form prescribed, a sum not exceeding twenty thousand dollars without a public vote, but that for any additional amount beyond that sum, the sanction of a vote is necessary. (See sec. 102, subsec. 5.)

(h) The by-law is to be published at length, "as the same is ultimately passed." Hence if, between publication and passing, a material alteration is made in the by-law, the by-law will be invalid. (In re Bryant and the Municipality of Pittsburg, 18 U. C. Q. B. 847.)

PURCHASE OF PUBLIC WORKS.

§25.—(1.) Any Council may contract a Debt to Her Majesty, in the purchase of any of the Public Roads, Harbors, Bridges, Buildings or other Public Works in Upper Canada; and may execute such Bonds, Deeds, Covenants and other Securities to Her Majesty, as the Council may deem fit, for the payment of the price of any such Public Work already sold or transferred, or which may be sold or transferred, or agreed to be sold or transferred to such Municipal Corporation, and for securing the performance and observance of all or any of the conditions of sale or transfer; and may also pass all necessary by-laws for any of the purposes aforesaid. And all such By-laws, Debts, Bonds, Deeds, Covenants and other Securities shall be valid, although no special or other rate per annum has been settled or imposed to be levied in each year, as provided by the three last preceding sections of this Act: (j)

Municipal Councils may purchase public works, and contract debts without imposing a yearly rate as provided in the three last sections.

(2.) But any Council may in any By-law to be passed for the creation of any such Debt, or for the executing any such Bonds, Deeds, Covenants or other Securities as aforesaid, to Her Majesty, or in any other By-law to be passed by the Council, settle and impose a Special Rate per annum, of such amount as the Council may deem expedient, in addition to all other rates whatsoever, to be levied in each year upon the assessed ratable property within the Municipality, for the payment and discharge of such Debts, Bonds, Deeds, Covenants or other Securities, or some part thereof; and the By-law shall be valid, although the Rate settled or imposed thereby be less than is required by the said sections last mentioned, and the Rates may be imposed for the payment of debts contracted with the Crown for such Works.

(i) See note u to sec. 198.

(j) This subsection is taken from statute 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 124, sec. 1.

said sections shall, so far as applicable, apply and extend to every such By-law, and the moneys raised or to be raised thereby, as fully in every respect as such provisions would extend or apply to any By-law enacted by any Council for the creation of any Debt, as provided in the said sections, or to the moneys raised or to be raised thereby. (k)

HOW ACCOUNTS OF DEBTS AND RATES TO BE KEPT.

Two special accounts to be kept: 1, of the Special rates; 2, of the Sinking Fund.

226.—The Council of every County, Provisional Corporation, Township, City, Town and incorporated Village, shall keep in its books two separate Accounts, one for the Special Rate, and for the Sinking Fund, of every debt, to be both distinguished from all other accounts in the books by some prefix designating the purpose for which the debt was contracted; and shall keep the said Accounts, with any others that are necessary, so as to exhibit at all times the state of every debt, and the amount of moneys raised, obtained and appropriated for payment thereof. (l)

When surplus to be carried to the Sinking Fund Account.

227.—If, after paying the interest of a debt and appropriating the necessary sum to the Sinking Fund, of such debt for any financial year, (m) there is a surplus at the credit of the Special Rate Account of such debt, (n) such surplus shall

(k) This subsection is taken from sec. 2 of 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 124. It requires the by-laws authorized to be framed according to the provisions of the sections to which reference is made, but exempts them from the approbation of a public vote.

(l) In this section there is a subject and an object. The subject is accounts, and the object is that such accounts shall be so kept "as to exhibit at all times the state of every debt, and the amount of money raised, obtained, and appropriated for payment thereof." Two accounts are mentioned,—the Special Rate account, and the Sinking Fund account. The amount of all rates collected and received by the Treasurer will appear in the first, and from it be transferred to the second, all such sums as form portions of the sinking fund or fund accumulated for the payment of principal. The first or special rate account will constitute the interest account as well as the general account, and the sums required for interest will be retained therein until disbursed, and then be charged thereto. The sums transferred on account of principal to the second or sinking fund account, will of course be also charged against the first or special rate account, and when transferred be credited to the second or sinking fund account. It is unnecessary to remark upon the great importance of the accounts being kept with the utmost care and accuracy.

(m) As mentioned in last note.

(n) A surplus beyond the interest may arise from the increase of ratable property, &c.; for when a by-law creating a debt, &c., is passed, the ratable property is ascertained, irrespective of any future increase, &c. (See subsec. 5 to sec. 222.)

HOW SURPLUS TO BE INVESTED.

228.—Every such Council shall, from time to time, invest in Government securities or otherwise, as the Governor in Council directs, such part of the produce of the special rate levied in respect of any debt and at the credit of the Sinking Fund Account, or of the Special Rate Account thereof as cannot be immediately applied towards paying the debt by reason of no part thereof being yet payable; (p) and the Council shall apply all interest or dividends received upon such investments to the same purpose as this Act directs the amount levied by the Special Rate to be applied, (q) but it shall nevertheless be lawful for the Governor in Council by order to direct that said part of the produce of the Special Rate levied and at the credit of the Sinking Fund Account, or the Special Rate Account as aforesaid, instead of being so invested as aforesaid, shall, from time to time as the same shall accrue, be applied to the payment, or redemption, at such value, not exceeding par, as the said Council can agree for, of any part of such debt or of any of the debentures representing or constituting such debt or any part of it, though not then payable, to be selected as provided in such order, and the Council shall thereupon apply and continue to apply said part of the produce of the Special Rate at the credit of the Sinking Fund or Special Rate Accounts as directed by such order. (o) If the surplus of the special rate account in any year exceeds the payment of the ordinary calls upon it, together with the next year's interest, the excess may be transferred to the sinking fund account, that is, applied towards the liquidation of principal. Provision is by the next section made for the investment of the excess. (Sec. 228.)

(p) See last note.

(q) This provides for the safe keeping of the funds accruing more especially to the sinking fund account, which may be required to accumulate for twenty or thirty years. (Sec. 2 of subsec. 222.)

(r) The latter part of this section is new, and was added in committee of the Legislative Council. If acted upon, it would prevent the accumulation of moneys to the sinking fund account, but would extinguish the principal of the debt to the same extent that it would otherwise increase.

APPROPRIATION OF SURPLUS.

Council may apply other funds towards such debts.

229.—Every such Council may appropriate to the payment of any debt the surplus income derived from any public or corporation work, or from any share or interest therein, after paying the annual expenses thereof, or any unappropriated money in the Treasury, or any money raised by additional rate; and any money so appropriated shall be carried to the credit of the Sinking Fund of the debt. (s)

WHEN BY-LAWS CREATING DEBTS REPEALABLE.

When part only of a debt has been incurred, the By-law may be repealed pro tanto.

230.—When part only of a sum of money provided for by a By-law has been raised, the Council may repeal the By-law as to any part of the residue and as to a proportionate part of the Special Rate imposed therefor, provided the repealing By-law recites the facts on which it is founded, and is appointed to take effect on the thirty-first day of December in the year of its passing, and does not affect any rates due, or penalties incurred before that day, and provided the By-law is first approved by the Governor in Council: (t)

By-laws not repealable and appropriations not revocable till debt paid.

231.—After a debt has been contracted, the Council shall not, until the debt and interest have been paid, repeal the By-law under which the debt was contracted, or any By-law for paying the debt or the interest thereon, or for providing therefore a rate or additional rate, or appropriating thereto the surplus income of any work or of any stock or interest

(s) And probably create a surplus in the sinking fund account, inasmuch as when a by-law creating a debt, &c., is passed, the rateable property of the municipality is ascertained, irrespective of any income in the nature of tolls, interest or dividend from the work upon which the money to be raised or any part thereof is to be invested. (Sec. 222, subsec. 5.)

(t) The meaning of this section is obvious, and it may be acted upon quite consistently with the rights of creditors. It is an erroneous impression, when once a Municipal Council has determined to contract a loan, in order to aid, for example, in advancing a public work, that the whole matter of the by-law passed for that object is entirely out of their control, and not merely such parts of it as are necessary for securing those who have advanced money under its provisions. (In re Hill and the Municipal Council of Walsingham, 9 U.C.Q.B. 310.) No by-law passed under this section can take effect,

1. Unless it recite the facts on which it is founded.
2. Unless it be appointed to take effect on the 31st December in the year of its passing.
3. Unless it be approved by the Governor in Council.
4. Nor if it affect any rates due, or penalties incurred, before the day it take effect.

WHEN SPECIAL RATE MAY BE REDUCED.

232.—In case the special rate imposed for the payment of a debt, and collected for any particular year, or on hand from previous years, with such sums as are derived for such particular year from the surplus income of any work, or of any share or interest therein applicable to the Sinking Fund of the debt, or from the temporary investment of the Sinking Fund of the debt, or any part of it, and respectively carried to the credit of the Sinking Fund for such particular year, amount together, or in case any of them singly or together amount to more than the annual sum required to be raised as a special rate to pay the debt and interest, and therefore leave a surplus after paying the interest and making the necessary appropriation to the Sinking Fund of the debt, for such year, (w) the Council may pass a By-law reducing the total amount to be levied under the original By-law for the following year to a sum not less than the difference between such

When the rate imposed by By-law may be reduced by By-law.

(u) The provisions of this section are necessary for the security of creditors. It is enacted, first, that no Council shall either repeal a by-law under which a debt is contracted, or, secondly, alter a by-law providing the rate so as to diminish the amount to be levied under the by-law, &c. The by-law, however, may, under certain circumstances, be in part repealed, pursuant to sec. 280; so the rate may, under certain circumstances, be reduced, pursuant to secs. 282 & 283.

(v) This requires the sinking fund to be left untouched, and prohibits the Council withdrawing any money transferred thereto, or otherwise applying any funds that have been appropriated thereto.

(w) This section is not very clearly expressed. It is provided that if there be a surplus in any year after paying the annual sum required to be raised as a special rate to the interest and fee fund appropriation, the Council may pass a by-law reducing the rate mentioned in the by-law. The surplus may arise from,

1. The special rate collected for the year.
2. The surplus on hand from former years.
3. The surplus income for the year of any work, share, or interest thereon, applicable to the sinking fund,
4. The interest accruing from the temporary investment of any portion of the sinking fund.

last mentioned surplus and the annual sum which the original By-law named and required to be raised as a special rate. (x)

(x) Having discovered the existence of a surplus arising from the sources mentioned in the last note, the Council should, first, ascertain the precise amount of the surplus; secondly, ascertain the total amount to be levied for the then next following year; thirdly, deduct the one from the other; and, fourthly, take credit for the result, and reduce the original rate so as to yield no more than what is necessary after taking such credit.

To ascertain the surplus, it is apprehended that the interest and fee fund appropriation of the current year, as well as an amount equal to the interest of the year following, ought to be deducted from the amount at the credit of the special rate account. In the event of there being a surplus in any year after paying interest and appropriating the necessary sum to the sinking fund, sec. 227 requires such surplus to remain in the special rate account, to be applied if necessary towards the next year's interest. If the surplus exceed the following year's interest, the excess may be transferred to the sinking fund account, in reduction of principal; if not so transferred, the excess may be disposed of under the section here annotated. It is in this way only that the two sections can be reconciled, and if not so read, they appear to be irreconcilable. In any event it would appear to be necessary, before dealing with the surplus, to see not only that there is enough at the credit of the special rate account to meet the interest and sinking fund appropriation of the current year, but the interest of the year following. If after such calculation enough is found for the two years and to spare, the excess may be either transferred under sec. 227 to the sinking fund, or be dealt with under the section here annotated—that is, looked upon as so much collected in anticipation of the requirements of the year following, leaving the balance only between it and the amount necessary, according to the original by-law, to be levied. Money once carried to the sinking fund, under sec. 227, cannot be withdrawn: It cannot be looked upon as so much in hand towards meeting the liabilities, under the by-law, for the year following.

The course, therefore, recommended is, whenever a surplus is in any year found to exist, to retain to the credit of the special rate account, besides the requirements of the year, a sum equal to the interest of the following year, and then, first, either to carry the balance to the sinking fund account, under sec. 227, or, secondly, to consider it as so much in hand for the next following year, and to reduce the rate of that year so as to make up the deficiency only.

An example may be given:—£100,000 is borrowed in 1858, payable in 1878, interest yearly at 6 per cent. In 1858, it is found with reference to the amount of ratable property in the Municipality that to meet the annual interest and appropriate an annual sum to the sinking fund account, a rate of 1d. in the £ is necessary. In 1860, owing to the increase of ratable property and other causes, after paying the interest and sinking fund appropriation of that year out of the special rate account, a surplus of £8000 is found to exist at the credit of that account. The interest, for 1861, on £100,000, would be £8000. Deducting this, there is still an excess of £2000. This may be either, under sec. 227, transferred to the

ANTICIPATORY APPROPRIATIONS.

234.—In case any Council desires to make an Anticipatory Appropriation for the next ensuing year in lieu of the special rate for such year, in respect of any debt, (e) the Council may do so, (f) by By-law, in the manner and subject to the provisions and restrictions following:

Anticipatory appropriations may be made.

1. The Council may carry to the credit of the Sinking Fund account of the debt, as much as necessary for the purpose aforesaid; (g) sinking fund account, or, under sec. 232, considered as money collected towards meeting the engagements of 1861, under the By-law. If the latter, suppose the amount necessary to be raised in 1861 to be £10,000. Here we deduct not only the £8000 interest already reserved, but £2000 clear surplus—leaving only £2000, and not £10,000, to be raised by rate. Now, if it required 1d. to raise £10,000, it will only require one-fifth of 1d. to raise £2000. The rate therefore may, for 1861, under this section, be reduced from 1d. to one-fifth of 1d. Such is the object and operation of the law.

What Fund may be so appropriated.

(z) See note x to sec. 232.

(a) See note w to sec. 232.

(b) See same note.

(c) See note x to sec. 232.

(d) Afterwards approved, &c., i. e. after it is prepared according to the requirements of this section and before its final passing.

(e) This and the foregoing sections are made for the relief of the rate-payers, provided the security of the creditors is not lessened.

(f) May do so.—There is nothing imperative. The doing so or not doing so is a matter of discretion.

(g) Aforesaid, i. e. of making an Anticipatory Appropriation for

(1.) Of any money at the credit of the Special Rate Account of the debt beyond the interest on such debt for the year following that in which the Anticipatory Appropriation is made; (h)

(2.) And of any money raised for the purpose aforesaid by additional rate or otherwise; (i)

(3.) And of any money derived from any temporary investment of the Sinking Fund; (j)

(4.) And of any surplus money derived from any corporation work or any share or interest therein; (k)

(5.) And of any unappropriated money in the Treasury; Such moneys respectively not having been otherwise appropriated. (l)

The sources to be distinguished.

2. The By-law making the appropriations shall distinguish the several sources of the amount and the portions thereof to be respectively applied for the interest and for the Sinking Fund appropriation of the debt for such next ensuing year; (m)

When sufficient, the yearly rate may be suspended for the future year.

3. In case the money so retained at the credit of the Special Rate Account and so appropriated to the Sinking Fund Account, from all or any of the sources above mentioned, are sufficient to meet the Sinking Fund Appropriation and interest for the next ensuing year, the Council may then pass a By-law directing that the original rate for such next ensuing year be not levied. (n) the next ensuing year, in lieu of the special rate for such year, in respect of any debt, &c.

(A) Here it is clear that a year's interest in advance is to be retained as directed by sec. 227, and pointed out in note x to sec. 232.

(i) Purpose aforesaid.—See note g, above.

(j) The investment authorized by sec. 228.

(k) See sec. 232 and notes thereto.

(l) The right of a Municipal Council to take moneys already appropriated and apply them to purposes different from the original appropriation is very questionable. Though sometimes done, it ought never to be encouraged. In the case of appropriations to the Sinking Fund Account of a debt, it cannot be legally done.

(m) The sources to be one or other of the foregoing.

(n) When the surplus, though not equal to the product of the entire rate for a year, is considerable, a by-law may be passed for the proportionable reduction of the rate (sec. 232); but when the surplus is sufficient to meet the Sinking Fund Appropriation and interest for a year, a by-law may be passed to the effect that for that year the original rate be not levied.

COMMISSIONS OF INQUIRY RESPECTING MUNICIPAL FINANCES.

When a commission of inquiry may issue.

239.—In case one-third of the members of any Council petition for a Commission to issue under the Great Seal, to inquire into the financial affairs of the Corporation and things connected therewith, and if sufficient cause be shown, (v) the Governor in Council may issue a Commission accordingly, and the Commissioner or the Commissioners, or such one or more of them as the Commission empowers to act, shall have the same power to summon witnesses, enforce their attendance, and compel them to produce documents and to give evidence, as any Court has in civil cases. (w)

(t) The design of this return is to inform the Executive Government, yearly, of the financial position of each Municipality. The officer whose duty it may be to prepare the return is allowed one month to do so.

(u) It is conceived that any form prescribed cannot do better than afford a column for each item of information mentioned in sec. 237.

(v) The commission is not to issue merely upon the petition of one-third of the members of the Council, but upon sufficient cause shown.

(w) If this includes the power to attach and imprison for non-attendance or other contempt, the power conferred may be a very serious one to the liberty of the subject. The policy of allowing Commissioners to judge of contempts is a doubtful one. It would be

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL MUNICIPALITIES EXCEPT PROVISIONAL CORPORATIONS.

241.—The following Section applies to all Municipalities, (y) namely:

Sections applicable to all, except Provisional Councils.

| 2. Townships, | 5. Incorporated Villages. (z) |

242.—The Council of every County, Township, City, Town and Incorporated Village may respectively pass By-laws: (a) much better to enable them to issue writs of subpoena from the courts, and, if not obeyed, to authorize the courts in the ordinary mode to enforce obedience. (See statute 9 Vic. cap. 88.)

Council may make By-laws:

For obtaining property, real and personal, &c.:

(x) The expenses are to be determined by the Inspector General, or his Deputy. No appeal of any kind is provided for. When determined, the account may be certified. When certified, the amount of it becomes a debt due by the Municipality to the Commissioner or Commissioners. It is to become payable "within three calendar months after demand." The intention appears to be to give three months for payment. If so, it is a debt due, but not payable until three months after demand. When it becomes a debt payable, of course it may be, like any other debt, recovered by action at law.

(y) To avoid the necessity of repeating similar provisions under the head of each description of Municipality separately, the Legislature, in referring to the Municipalities to which the several sections relate, has grouped the provisions under joint heads. Any Municipality, whether of a county, city, township, town, or incorporated village, can readily find the sections in which it is interested, by observing the leading titles prefixed to groups of sections.

(z) These sections, it will be observed, are not made to apply to provisional corporations. The leading title is "Provisions applicable to all municipalities except provisional corporations."

APPOINTING CERTAIN OFFICERS.

| (2.) Fence-Viewers; | (4.) Road Surveyors; |

(5.) And other officers as are necessary in the affairs of the Corporation, (e) or for carrying into effect the provisions of any Act of the Legislature for the removal of such officers.

(b) The Court of Queen's Bench refused a rule nisi for a mandamus at the instance of the Justices of the Huron District, to compel the Municipal Council of the Huron District to build a court-house. (Justices of the Huron District v. the Huron District Council, 5 U. C. Q. B. 574.) It is undecided whether, if a Municipal Council neglects to repair the steps leading to a court-house, and an individual in consequence thereof falls and loses his life, an action will lie against the corporation, at the suit of his representatives, under 10 & 11 Vic. cap. 6. (Hawkeshaw v. the District Council of the District of Dalhousie, 7 U. C. Q. B. 599.) A by-law passed by the Municipal Council of Prescott and Russell, to tax the township of Russell for the erection of a registry office for the use of the united counties, was set aside. (Smith v. the United Counties of Prescott and Russell, 10 U. C. Q. B. 282.)

(c) The several Municipal Councils named would appear to have authority to dispose of an old town hall and its site, when they think that another situation would be more convenient. (In re Hauke and the Municipality of Wellesley, 18 U. C. Q. B. 636.)

(d) It is not here described in what manner, that is, whether under corporate seal or otherwise, the officers in this section named are to be appointed. The bill, when introduced to the House of Assembly, had the words "under the corporate seal;" but these words were afterwards struck out in committee. It has always been a recognized qualification of the principle which requires the use of the seal, that there are certain small matters of such frequent occurrence in the course of conducting affairs by a corporation, that it appears to be of necessity that corporations should be allowed to transact them without going through the formality of a sealed instrument. The hiring of servants to perform their ordinary duties has from a very early period been one of these exceptions. (Raines v. the Credit Harbour Company, 1 U. C. Q. B. 174.) Whether the officers named in this section come within the exception is, to say the least of it, doubtful. The old law required such appointments to be under the corporate seal. (12 Vic. cap. 81, sec. 31, subsec. 5.)

(e) There is power given to appoint, not only the officers described, but "other officers necessary in the affairs of the corporation." This opens a door to abuses; but perhaps a restriction to officers named might have worked great inconvenience.

Members of Council to be Health Officers.

(n) The power to make By-laws necessarily supposes the power to enforce them by pecuniary penalties, competent and proportionable to the offence. (note v. to sec. 186.) The limitation here to fines "not exceeding fifty dollars" is as wise as it is necessary.

(o) If there is no distress, imprisonment may follow. (See sub-sec. 8.)

(p) Imprisonment is not allowable in the first instance. It is only allowed in case of non-payment of the fine inflicted, and where there is no sufficient distress. When inflicted it must be reasonable, that is, be proportionate to the nature and degree of the offence. It must not, however, under any circumstances, exceed twenty-one days. It may be either with or without hard labor.

(q) See note y to sec. 241.

(r) This, it is apprehended, is a mistake. The numbers ought to be from 244 to 260. The numbers of the sections were altered in committee, and "254" inadvertently allowed to remain unaltered.

SHOP AND TAVERN LICENSES.

1. For granting Tavern Licenses (that is licenses for the retail of spirituous, fermented or other manufactured liquors to be drunk in the Inn, Ale-house, Beer-house or other house, or place of entertainment in which the same is sold), and for granting shop licenses, (that is licenses for the retail of such liquors in Shops, Stores or other places other than Inns, Ale-houses, Beer-houses or places of public entertainment);

For retailing intoxicating liquors.

2. For declaring the terms and conditions required to be complied with, by an applicant for a Tavern license, and the security to be given by him for observing the same;

Terms on which license may be granted.

3. For declaring the security to be given by any applicant for a Shop or Tavern License, for observing the By-laws of the Municipality;

Security to be given.

4. For limiting the number of Tavern and Shop licenses respectively;

Number may be limited.

5. For regulating the houses or places licensed, the time the licenses are to be in force, not exceeding one year, and the sums to be paid therefor respectively.

Regulation of public houses.

PROHIBITED SALE OF SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.

6. For prohibiting the sale by retail of spirituous, fermented or other manufactured liquors in any Inn or other House of public entertainment; and for prohibiting the sale thereof in Shops and places other than houses of public entertainment; Provided the By-law, before the final passing thereof, has been duly approved by the Electors of the Municipality in the manner provided by this Act; (v)

(u) By-laws.—See note v to sec. 186.

(v) The power of a Municipal Council to grant a license for the sale of spirituous liquors to a particular house, and afterwards to prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors in that house on certain days or at certain hours, has been doubted. (Baker v. the Municipal Council of Paris, 10 U. C. Q. B. 621) The power to prohibit the sale of spirituous

The sums to be paid for licenses.

Sum to include the Imperial duty and that under 22 V. c. 76.

246.—The sum to be paid for a tavern license shall include as well the duty payable under the Imperial Statute passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act to establish a fund towards defraying the charges of the administration of Justice and the support of the Civil Government within the Province of Quebec, (w) as the duty payable under any Act passed in the present or any future session of the Parliament of this Province, (x) and liquors in an inn under any circumstances, has also been doubted. (In re Barclay and the Municipality of Darlington, 11 U. C. Q. B. 470.) But as the powers by this section conferred upon the Councils of every township, city, town, and incorporated village, are not only, 1, for granting tavern and shop licenses; 2, for declaring the terms and conditions of granting the same; 3, for declaring the security to be given by any applicant; 4, for limiting the number of tavern and shop licenses respectively; 5, for regulating the houses or places licensed; but, 6 (subject to the approval of the electors of the municipality), for prohibiting the sale by retail of spirituous liquors in any inn or other house of public entertainment, the decisions under the old acts must not be followed without close examination. It is presumed that Municipal Councils, though empowered to regulate houses licensed, &c., have not now, more than formerly (where there are License Inspectors) authority by by-law to appoint the persons who are to receive licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors. (In re Coyne and the Municipal Council of the Township of Dunwich, 9 U. C. Q. B. 448.) But as the appointment of License Inspectors rests with the Municipal Councils (sec. 252), in the event of none being appointed it may be that the Councils may themselves determine the persons entitled to licenses. (Ib.) If a by-law passed under subsec. 4 of this clause ostensibly to limit the number of tavern or shop licenses be in reality a prohibitory measure, it would be illegal. (In re Barclay and the Municipality of Darlington, 12 U. C. Q. B. 386; In re Graystock and the Municipality of Otonabee, 12 U. C. Q. B. 458.) The power, under subsec. 5, to regulate houses or places licensed, does not, it is apprehended, enable a Municipal Corporation to declare that no spirituous liquors shall be sold to a certain class of people—for example, minors (Ib., but see sec. 275, subsec. 2); nor to prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors on certain days or at certain hours. (Baker v. the Municipal Council of Paris, 10 U. C. Q. B. 621.) No by-law for prohibiting the sale by retail of spirituous liquors can, it will be noticed, be finally passed until it has been duly approved “by the electors of the municipality, in the manner provided by this act.” Of course a majority is all that is required; but this, it may be argued, must be a majority of the whole of the electors of the municipality, and not merely a majority of those present at the meeting called for the purpose of approving or disapproving of the by-law. Sed qu? (See McAvoy and the Municipality of Sarnia, 12 U. SHOP AND TAVERN LICENSES. (c)

247.—No Tavern or Shop license shall be necessary for selling any liquors in the original packages in which the same have been received from the importer or manufacturer; (d) Provided such Packages contain respectively not less than five gallons, or one dozen bottles. (e)

No license required to sell in the original packages.

248.—Any person having a Tavern license may, without any additional license, sell liquors by retail to be consumed out of his house, in the same quantities as if to be consumed in the house. (f)

Tavern keepers may sell to be consumed out of the house.

(y) Excepting, it is presumed, the portion of it which constitutes the Provincial tax. (See sec. 256.)

(z) An ordinary shop needs no license. (Sec. 216.) The only shops required to be licensed are those which sell spirituous liquors, &c., of the description mentioned in sec. 245.

(a) A tax exceeding one hundred dollars might otherwise amount to a prohibition, and so in effect defeat the check of public vote made necessary by subsec. 6 of sec. 245.

(b) By which is meant that no by-law varying or repealing a by-law by which a greater sum than one hundred dollars per annum is exacted for any shop or tavern license shall be valid, unless duly approved by the electors of the municipality.

(c) The heading, "Shop and tavern licenses," preceding this section, belongs more properly to sec. 245, and should be struck out here.

(d) Whether manufactured within this Province or not.

(e) The tax is intended to be imposed upon those only who sell spirituous liquors, &c., by retail. To sell packages containing less than five gallons or one dozen bottles, is considered retailing.

(f) Notwithstanding the right to sell liquors to be consumed in the house of the vendor, the right to do so to be consumed outside of his

249.—Every person who keeps a Tavern or other house or place of public entertainment, and has a Tavern License, shall exhibit over the door of such Tavern, House or place, in large letters, the words "Licensed to sell Wine, Beer and other Spirituous or Fermented Liquors," under a penalty in default of so doing of one dollar, recoverable with costs before any Justice of the Peace, upon the oath of one credible witness; (g) one half of which penalty shall go to the Informer and the other half to the Municipality. (h)

250.—No licensed Shop-keeper, or other person having a Shop License, shall allow any Liquors sold by him and for the sale of which a license is required, to be consumed within his Shop, or within the building of which such Shop is a part, either by the purchaser thereof or by any other person not usually resident within such building. (i)

251.—All prosecutions for penalties incurred by persons vending Wine, Rum, Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors, Beer, Ale, Cider or other fermented or manufactured Liquors without License, (j) shall be recoverable with costs before any two or more Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the Municipality in which the offence is committed (k) upon the oath of one credible witness, one half of which penalty house was at one time doubted. To remove the doubt stat. 2 Geo. IV. cap. 8, 1st sec., was passed, and this section is a reenactment of it.

(g) This section contains a duty, and a penalty for neglect of it. The duty is to exhibit over the door of every tavern, &c., licensed, the words mentioned; the penalty for neglect of it is one dollar.

(h) It is presumed that when not expressly excluded, an informer would be "a credible witness," within the meaning of the section. (See 16 Vic. cap. 19.)

(i) Taverns and shops each require licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors. The difference between them, independently of quantity, is, that while a tavern license confers a right to sell liquors to be consumed within the house, the shop license confers no such right.

(j) No distinction is made between spirituous liquors and fermented or manufactured liquors. Among the former are classed, as examples, wine, rum and brandy. Among the latter, beer, ale and cider.

(k) The penalties are recoverable before two justices of the peace, that is, two at least are required to try and convict. Notwithstanding, it is apprehended that one justice may receive the information, grant a summons or warrant to compel the attendance of witnesses, and do all other acts and matters that may be necessary preliminary to the hearing. (See 16 Vic. cap. 178, sec. 25.) It is a question, whether a police or stipendiary magistrate, who ordinarily is entitled to do whatever is required to be done by two or more justices, can act alone under this section. INSPECTORS OF LICENSES.

252.—The Council of every Township, City, Town or Incorporated Village, may respectively pass By-laws:

1. For appointing annually one or more fit and proper persons, possessing the same property qualification as that required for the Councillors of the Municipality, to be inspectors of Shop and Tavern Licenses, who shall hold office during the current year, and any vacancy occurring during the year shall be filled by the Council, for the remainder of such year.

2. For fixing and defining the duties, powers and privileges of the Inspectors so appointed; the remuneration they shall receive; and the security to be given by them for the efficient discharge of the duties of their office; such By-laws not being contrary to law. (m)

253.—Any Inspector of Licenses may, in his discretion (but subject to any By-law of the Municipality,) endorse on any license permission to the person holding the license, to sell the Liquors mentioned in his License at any place out of his house, or to remove from the house licensed to another house to be described in the endorsement and situate within the same Municipality, and such permission shall authorize the holder thereof to sell such liquors in the house mentioned in the endorsement during the unexpired portion of the term for which the License was granted, and upon the same terms and conditions; And any Bond or security which such holder may have given for any purpose relative to such license, shall apply to the house or place to which such removal has been authorized. Inspectors may endorse licenses to authorize sale of liquors elsewhere than in the house.

(l) See note A to sec. 249.

(m) This section is for the appointment of inspectors of licenses, and for the regulation of their duties when appointed. The Court has refused to interfere by mandamus to compel inspectors to examine a certain house fitted up by the applicant as a saloon; and to grant him the proper certificate if he should be found to have complied with the by-law of the Municipal Council in that behalf. (In re Baxter v. Hesson et al, 12 U. C. Q. B. 189.) No Inspector has any power under this section to act without his local jurisdiction.

(n) Any one having a tavern license may sell liquors by retail to be consumed out of his house. in the same quantities as if to be consumed in the house. (Sec. 248.) No one having a shop license is entitled thereunder to sell liquors to be consumed in his house. (Sec. 250.) In the event of it being desired by the licensee to sell temporarily at a place other than his house, or to change his house, the provisions of this section come to his relief.

254.—Every Council of a Township, City, Town, or Incorporated Village, (o) may also pass By-laws : (p)

For licensing, regulating and governing all persons who, for hire or gain directly or indirectly, keep, or have in their possession, or on their premises, any Billiard Table, (q) or who keep or have a Billiard Table in a house or place of public entertainment or resort, whether such Billiard Table is used or not, (r) and for fixing the sum to be paid for a License so to have or keep such Billiard Table, and the time such License shall be in force ; (s)

(o) The power does not extend to County Councils.

(p) See note v to sec. 186.

(q) Whether or not such person is the keeper of a tavern or house of public entertainment. (See Church qui tam v. Richards, 6 U.C. Q.B. 562.)

(r) If the billiard table is in a house or place of public entertainment it must be licensed, whether used or not.

(s) The section extends—1. To all persons who for hire or gain keep on their premises a billiard table; and 2. To all persons who keep a billiard table in a house or place of public entertainment or resort.

(t) The power to limit involves no power to suppress. (See note v to sec. 245.)

(u) This is a general power to license victualling houses, &c. It can only be exercised "when no other provision exists therefor." No license is to cost more than $20.

(v) This section appears to extend to all licenses, whether to sell spirituous liquors, keep billiard tables or victualling houses, &c.

DISORDERLY INNS.

257.—The Mayor or Police Magistrate of a Town or City, with any one Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction therein, or the Reeve of a Township or Village, with any one Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the Township or Village, upon complaint made on oath to them, or one of them respectively, of riotous or disorderly conduct in any Inn, Tavern, Ale or Beer house situate within their jurisdiction, may summon the keeper of the Inn, Tavern, Ale or Beer House, to answer the complaint, and may investigate the same summarily, and either dismiss the complaint with costs to be paid by the complainant, or convict the keeper of having a riotous or disorderly house, and annul his license, or suspend the same for not more than sixty days, with or without costs, as in their discretion may seem just. (x)

LAND MARKS AND BOUNDARIES.

Land marks and monuments to mark boundaries.

The object of it is to protect the existence of licenses bona fide issued under a by-law, notwithstanding the repeal, alteration or amendment of such by-law.

(w) For sums payable to the Provincial Government on licenses to sell spirituous liquors, &c., see note x to sec. 246.

(x) The powers given are:

1. Upon complaint, &c., to summon the keeper of the inn, &c.
2. To investigate the complaint summarily.
3. To dismiss the complaint with costs to be paid by complainant.
4. Or to convict the keeper of having a riotous or disorderly house.
5. To annul his license.
6. Or suspend the same for not more than 60 days.
7. Costs to be discretionary.

The forms of proceeding ought to be as nearly as may be like those directed by 16 Vic. cap. 178, as to summary convictions by justices.

(y) The right to make applications such as mentioned in this section was at first restricted to County Councils. (12 Vic. cap. 35, sec. 31.)

(z) Resolution.—See note v. to sec. 186.

(a) A resolution, if not founded on an application of one half of the resident landholders, &c., would be invalid.

PROVISION FOR ESTABLISHING BOUNDARIES.

1. For procuring the necessary estimates, and making the proper application for ascertaining and establishing the boundary lines of the Municipality, according to law, in case the same has not been done; and for erecting and providing for

(b) Under the 12 Vic. cap. 81, the application may be to have any concession line not run in the original survey, or of which the survey has been obliterated, surveyed and marked by permanent stone boundaries. (Sec. 81.) Under 18 Vic. cap. 88, it may be to have placed stone or other durable monuments at the front, or at the rear, or at the front and rear angles of the lots, in any concession or range, or part of a concession or range. (Sec. 8.)

(c) The survey is to take place "under the direction and order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands." (12 Vic. cap. 85, sec. 81.)

(d) The duty of the surveyor employed is defined. If he ascertains the limits of each lot and mark the same, the limits so ascertained and marked are to be the true limits thereof.

(e) The cost is to be borne by the proprietors of the lands in each concession or part of concession interested. The Council may cause an estimate of the sum requisite to defray the expenses to be incurred to be laid before it, in order that the same may be levied on the landed proprietors, in proportion to the quantity or value of their respective lands. The expenses are to be paid by the Council to the surveyor, on the certificate and order of the Commissioner of Crown Lands. (12 Vic. cap. 85, sec. 81.)

(f) Neither County Councils nor Police Villages are included.

CEMETERIES.

3. For accepting or purchasing land for public cemetery as well within as without the Municipality, and for laying out, improving and managing the same; but no land shall be accepted or purchased for such purpose except by a by-law declaring in express terms that the land is appropriated for a public cemetery and for no other purpose; and thereupon such land, although without the Municipality, shall become part thereof, and shall cease to be part of the Municipality to which it formerly belonged; and such by-law shall not be repealed. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

animals.

(h) See sec. 258 and notes thereto.

(i) School Trustees of a township cannot, without reference to the freeholders, determine upon the site of a school house, and purchase it, and impose a rate to meet the expense. (Orr v. Rumbey et al, 12 U. C. Q. B. 877.)

(j) As a rule, the jurisdiction of every Council is confined to the Municipality the Council represents. (Sec. 186.) Here an authority beyond the limits of the Municipality is given. That authority is to accept or purchase land for public cemeteries, as well within as without the Municipality. The acceptance or purchase is to be by by-law, declaring in express terms that the land is appropriated for a public cemetery and for no other purpose. When this is done the land, although without the Municipality, becomes part thereof for all purposes of local government.

(k) There is no limitation as to the interest to be conveyed. When the Municipality is seized in fee simple, the conveyance may be made either for ever or for years. The power is to "sell" or "lease." The conveyance must be executed under the corporate seal of the Municipal Council.

(l) See note x to sec. 187.

Tax on dogs. 6. For imposing a tax on the owners, possessors or harborers of dogs. (m)

Killing dogs. 7. For killing dogs running at large, contrary to the by-laws. (n)

Height of fences. 8. For settling the height and description of lawful fences. (o)

Of division fences. 9. For regulating the height, extent and description of lawful division fences; and for determining how the cost thereof shall be apportioned; and for directing that any amount so apportioned shall be recovered in the same manner as penalties not otherwise provided for may be recovered under this Act; provided that until the by-laws are made, the statute eighth Victoria, chapter twenty, shall continue applicable to the Municipality. (p)

Destruction of weeds. 10. For preventing the growth of weeds detrimental to good husbandry. (q)

(m) The common belief is that only the owners of dogs are taxable for them. It is here enacted that not only the owner, but the possessor or harborer may be taxed.

(n) The power is to authorize the killing of dogs. No provision is made as to the mode of killing. Poisoning as much as shooting is lawful. The authority to kill of course exists only when the dog is found running at large "contrary to the By-laws."

(o) The power is to settle, that is, to determine by some general regulation the height and description of fences, whether division fences or not.

(p) So much of sec. 1 of 8 Vic. cap. 20, as vested the appointment of fence viewers in the inhabitant freeholders and householders, at annual meetings, was repealed by 12 Vic. cap. 80, div. 2, No. 47; and by 12 Vic. cap. 81, sec. 81, subsec. 5, the appointment of fence viewers was vested in Township Councils. Under the act here annotated, the appointment may be made by the Council of a County, Township, City, Town, or Incorporated Village. (Sec. 242.) So much also of sec. 3 of 8 Vic. cap. 20 as limits the value of fences is repealed, and the amount is to be determined by the fence viewers. (18 Vic. cap. 187.)

(q) All weeds are more or less detrimental to good husbandry. It is well, however, to observe that this subsection is in terms confined to "weeds detrimental to good husbandry." The power is to prevent their growth.

(r) There is authority given as well to prevent as to regulate and license shows. The maximum license fee of $100 is much larger than was required under the old law. The regulations, &c., will of course be by by-law. Persons infringing the by-laws are made liable to fine, and the fine is to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the showman, or belonging to or used in the exhibition, whether owned by the showman or not. Power to imprison for any term not exceeding one calendar month is also given. But this power, it is apprehended, can only be exercised in default of payment of the fine and of goods and chattels liable to be levied for the same. (See sec. 242, subsec. 8.)

(s) Riotously and tumultuously to demolish, pull down or destroy, or to begin to demolish, pull down or destroy, any church, chapel or meeting house, is felony. (4 & 5 Vic. cap. 28, sec. 6.)

(t) If any person unlawfully and maliciously breaks, barks, roots up or otherwise destroys or damages the whole or any part of any tree, sapling or shrub, or any underwood respectively growing in any park, pleasure ground, garden, orchard or avenue, or in any ground adjoining or belonging to any dwelling house, the offender, &c., is guilty of misdemeanor. (4 & 5 Vic. cap. 28, sec. 19.) So if the offence is of a tree, &c., growing elsewhere than in any of the above situations, in case the amount of the injury done exceeds one pound. (ib.)

(u) This is not a criminal offence, that is, not punishable as a misdemeanor.

261.—The following section applies to townships and counties. (z)

262.—The Council of every township and county may pass by-laws for paying the members of the Council for their attendance in Council, at a rate not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per diem. (a)

(v) As to the incorporation of gas and water companies, see 16 Vic. cap. 178, and 18 Vic. cap. 94.

(w) i. e. Any corporate gas or water company.

(x) See sec. 192.

(y) This applies only to gas and water companies.

(z) See note y to sec. 241.

(a) Under a power to remunerate "all township officers," it was held that municipal councillors had no authority to remunerate themselves. (In re Wright and the Municipal Council of the Township of Cornwall, 9 U. C. Q. B. 442.) It was also made a question whether the Warden of a county could be deemed "an officer," so as to be entitled to receive remuneration. (The Queen v. The District Council of the District of Gore, 5 U. C. Q. B. 357.) The power of a Council to pass by-laws for paying its members, extends under this section, to Township and County Councils only. The Councils of cities, towns, and incorporated villages, are as much as ever without the power. No Council, whether of county, city, town, township, or incorporated village, has power to pass a by-law to indemnify one of its members for the costs of a quo warranto, by which his election was set aside. (In re Bell and the Municipality of the Township of Manvers, 2 U. C. C. P. 507.)

TOWNSHIP WARDS.

264.—In case one hundred of the qualified electors of a township on the last revised assessment roll do, by petition in writing signed by them, apply to the Council of the township to divide the township into wards, if not already so divided, the Council shall, within one month thereafter, pass a by-law to give effect to the petition, and shall in the by-law recite the petition, and also the present section of this Act, and shall declare that the by-law is passed in compliance with the prayer of the petition, and shall therein define the boundaries of the several wards; and the by-law shall take effect on the first day of December next after one month from the date of its first publication in some newspaper published in the county or union of counties in which the township is situated, or by printed hand-bills posted in at least twenty public places in the township. (c)

Duty of Council in the formation of wards.

No. to be five.

266.—The Council of any Township may from time to time, without any such Petition, (e) pass By-laws to divide the Township into Wards, or, in case of a Township already divided into Wards, to alter or abolish such division. (f) And in case any such By-law, whether petitioned for or not, is passed with the concurrent votes of at least four members, it shall take effect on the first day of December next after one month from its first publication in some newspaper published in the County or Union of Counties in which the

(b) See note f to sec. 241. This heading should, it is apprehended, include sec. 272, which appears to have been added after the introduction of the bill to the House of Assembly.

(c) It is well to observe that this section only applies to the division of townships into wards when "not already so divided," and not to the division anew of a township once divided into wards. (See Mallough v. The Municipality of Ashfield, 6 U. C. C. P. 155.) But under sec. 266, a Council may alter or abolish the divisions of a township already divided into wards.

When the By-law shall take effect.

267.—In case the By-law, when not petitioned for as hereinbefore provided, (h) is passed with the concurrent votes of only three members, (i) it shall take effect on the first day of December next, after it has been approved by a majority of the Electors of the Township who shall vote thereon, at a special vote to be taken for that purpose, (j) under the following regulations:

Publication of By-law.

1. The Reeve of the Township shall, within ten days after the passing of the By-law, (k) cause the same to be published for one month in some newspaper within the County or Union of Counties within which the Township is situate, or by posting printed copies thereof in hand-bill form in at least twenty public places in the Township, (l) and shall also at the same time and in connection therewith, and in like manner, publish a notice of the time when, and place or places where the By-law will be submitted to a vote of the Electors of the Township. 2. Such vote shall not be taken in less than one month after the first publication of the By-law, nor shall it be at a later period than the next annual Municipal Election, (n) and if not taken at the annual Municipal Election, it shall be taken in like manner and at the place or places where the last

(g) It would seem that the by-law, to be effectual under this section, must receive the votes "of at least four members." It is not, when so passed, to take effect on 1st December next after its passing, but 1st December next after one month from its first publication.

(h) Sec. 264.

(i) And not four, as mentioned in sec. 266.

(j) When there is a petition of 100 qualified electors, &c., praying for the by-law, there is no special requirement as to the number of votes necessary. (Sec. 264.) When there is no petition, and there is a vote of at least four members in favor of the by-law, no appeal to the electors is necessary. (Sec. 266.) But when there is no petition, and a vote of only three members, an appeal to the electors under this section is requisite.

(k) As to computation of time, see note r to sec. 98.

(l) The publication may be in either of two modes. 1. For one month in some newspaper published within the county, &c.; or, 2. by posting printed copies of the by-law, in hand-bill form, in at least 20 public places in the Township.

(m) Which is necessary, no matter in what form the by-law is published.

4. Where the By-law is for a division into Wards, or for an alteration of an existing division, the Returning Officer shall, at the commencement of the time appointed for taking the vote and during its continuance, cause fair copies of the By-law to be kept for public inspection in four conspicuous places about the place where the poll is held: (r).

5. The Returning Officer shall insert appropriate columns in the Poll-Books, headed:

6. The Returning Officer or Returning Officers shall, within three days after such vote has been taken, (t) return the Poll-Books properly certified to the Reeve of the Township, who shall within one week thereafter examine the returns of the votes for and against the By-law, and give public notice of the result. (u)

Certified Poll Books to be returned to the Reeve.

(o) See sec. 81 et seq.

(p) This is different from the course pointed out under like circumstances in the case of a general election. (Sec. 94.)

(q) This appears to be a duty imperative on the Reeve.

(r) There is nothing said here as to the abolition of Wards. See sec. 266.

(s) The fifth and sixth columns ("For the abolition of Wards, &c") are inapplicable, unless they aid the construction of subsec. No. 4, so as to make it include by-laws for the abolition of Wards. (See preceding note.)

(t) As to computation of time, see note r to sec. 88.

(u) The duty of the Returning Officer is, within the time limited, ELECTORAL DIVISIONS.

Electoral Divisions in townships not divided into Wards.

268.—Whenever a Township is not divided into Wards the Council may from time to time pass By-laws for dividing the Township into two or more convenient electoral divisions for establishing polling places therein and for appointing Returning Officers therefor, and may from time to time repeal or vary the same. (v)

POOR.

By-laws for the relief of the poor, when and how they may be passed.

269.—Every Township Council may also make By-laws for raising money by a rate to be assessed equally on the whole rateable property of the Township, for the support of the poor resident in the Township. (w)

OBSTRUCTIONS TO STREAMS AND WATERCOURSES.

By-laws for preventing obstruction of streams, &c.

270.—Every Township Council may also make By-laws for preventing the obstruction of streams, creeks and water-courses by trees, brushwood, timber or other materials, and for clearing way, (x) and removing such obstructions at the expense of the guilty parties or otherwise, and for levying the amount of such expense in the same manner as taxes are levied, and for imposing penalties on parties causing such obstructions. (y) to return the poll-books properly certified to the Reeve. The duties of the Reeve are—1. Within one week thereafter to examine the returns, &c.; and 2. To give public notice of the result.

(v) Electoral Divisions in Townships are new. They may be created whenever the Township is not divided into Wards. They are to be created by the Council by by-law. They may be "two or more" in number, and not, like Wards, "five in all cases." (Sec. 265.)

(w) This is taken from statute 16 Vic. cap. 181, sec. 9, No. 2, but is in its terms more general and in its language more briefly expressed. The clause is in its application restricted to Township Councils. (But see sec. 290, subsec. 11.)

(x) Way.—"Away" probably intended.

(y) The By-laws may be for the following purposes:

1. For preventing the obstruction of streams, &c.
2. For clearing away and removing such obstructions, at the expense of the guilty parties, or otherwise.
3. For levying the amount of such expense in the same manner as taxes are leviable.
4. For imposing penalties on parties causing such obstructions.

These powers in many respects resemble the provisions of 10 & 11 Vic. cap. 20, continued by 22 Vic. cap. 81; and see 3 Wm. IV. cap. 28, sec. 1; 2 Vic. cap. 16, secs. 1 & 4; 7 Vic. cap. 86; and 14 & 15 Vic. 123.

DRAINAGE IN TOWNSHIPS.

271.—In case a majority in number of the resident owners of the property in any part of a Township do petition the Council for the draining of the property (describing it), the Council may procure an examination to be made by a competent Engineer of the property proposed to be drained, and may procure plans and estimates to be made of the work by the Engineer; (z)

Drainage.

Plans and estimates.

272.—If the Council is of opinion that the draining of the locality described would greatly benefit the Township, the Council may pass a By-law: (a)

By-law.

1. For providing for the draining of the locality;

Its provisions.

2. For assessing and collecting from the proprietors of the several lands immediately benefited by the draining, so much of the cost thereof, and of procuring the examination, plans and estimates to be made, and of all other expenses incident to the work, as may not exceed the benefit the lands respectively derive from such draining, and in proportion, as nearly as may be, to the benefit to each of the proprietors therefrom; (b)

Assessment for expenses.

3. For regulating the time or times and manner in which the assessment is to be paid; (c)

Time of paying.

4. For ascertaining and determining, through the Engineer, what real property will be immediately benefited by the draining, and the proportions in which the assessment should be made on the various portions of the lands so benefited, and subject in every case to an appeal to the Court of Revision and the County Court Judge, in the same manner and on the same terms, as nearly as may be, as in the case of an ordinary assessment; (d)

Ascertaining property benefited.

(z) As to the powers of fence-viewers in this respect, see 8 Vic. cap. 20, sec. 12 et seq.

(a) When a majority in numbers of the resident owners, &c., petition for the draining, &c., the Council may procure an examination to be made by a competent engineer, &c., and may procure plans and estimates, &c. (sec. 271); and if of opinion that the draining would greatly benefit the township, may pass a by-law under the section here annotated.

(b) The by-law is not to be passed unless the Council should be of opinion that the draining would greatly benefit the township, and, notwithstanding, the proprietors of the land immediately benefited are to be assessed for the cost, &c.

(c) The time or times and manner in which the assessment is to be paid, may be regulated by the by-law. No limitation is here made as to either.

(d) See the Assessment Act, 16 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 26.

Publication of By-laws.

5. But the By-law shall not be valid, unless, before the final passing thereof, the same is published once or oftener in every week, for three months, in some newspaper published in the Township, or if no newspaper is published therein, then in some newspaper published in the nearest Municipality in which a newspaper is published. (e)

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO COUNTIES, CITIES AND TOWNS.

tions so to apply.

INSPECTORS OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

274.—The Council of every county, city and town, may pass by-laws:

Inspectors of
measures:
their powers.

1. For appointing Inspectors to regulate weights and measures (g) according to the lawful standard. (h)

2. For visiting all places wherein weights and measures,

(e) Though publication is made necessary, no vote of the electors is required. The petition of the landed proprietors, presented under sec. 271, is taken as sufficient evidence of the popular wants and popular will.

(f) See note f to sec. 241.

(g) The power to appoint Inspectors of Weights and Measures was at first vested in the magistrates in quarter sessions. (4 Geo. IV. cap. 16, sec. 4, 1 sess.) The Legislature afterwards assumed that the power was transferred to Municipal Councils (12 Vic. cap. 86, sec. 12), but in 1855 removed all doubt on the point by passing an act expressly giving the power to each county and city. (18 Vic. cap. 185, sec. 1.) By the act here annotated, the power is in addition conferred upon the Councils of towns.

(h) In 1823 the Legislature set apart the sum of £75 towards purchasing a complete set of weights and measures for Upper Canada, according to the standard of the Exchequer in England (4 Geo. IV. cap. 16, sec. 2, 1 sess.), which standard was directed to remain in the custody of the Secretary of the Province. (Ib.) Upon the application of the magistrates in quarter sessions assembled in any district, the Secretary, at the cost of the district, was bound to furnish to the district a true standard of weights and measures (Ib. sec. 3); these to be deposited with District Inspectors (Ib. sec. 4). Provision was afterwards made, allowing the Municipality of any city, town, or incorporated village appointing an Inspector of Weights and Measures, to adjust weights and measures for the use of such city, town, or incorporated village, by the standard weights and measures in the possession of the District or County Inspector. (12 Vic. cap. 86, sec. 12.) Incorporated villages are no longer in terms empowered to do so; for the section here annotated applies only to "counties, cities and towns."

PUBLIC MORALS.

275.—The Council of every County, City and Town, (k) may also pass By-laws: (l)

By-laws for other purposes.

1. For enforcing the due observance of the Sabbath according to law; (m)

(j) Until provision to the contrary is made by the Municipal Councils authorized to do so, powers similar to those above mentioned are by statute given to Inspectors. (Sec. 4, Geo. IV. cap. 16; 3 Vic. cap. 17.)

(k) This, like the preceding section, seems to be as much applicable though not in terms applied to Incorporated Villages as to "Counties, Cities, and Towns." Incorporated Villages are not, as Municipalities, included in Counties. The omission was probably inadvertent.

(l) See note v to sec. 186.

(m) The following are unlawful on the Lord's day:

1. Buying, selling or trading, &c.—It is not lawful for any merchant, tradesman, artificer, mechanic, workman, laborer, or other person whatsoever, in Upper Canada, to sell or to expose to sale or to purchase any wares, merchandise, goods, chattels, or personal property, or any real estate whatsoever, on Sunday; nor to do or exercise any worldly labor, business, or work of their respective ordinary callings. (3 Vic. cap. 45, sec. 1; The Queen v. Tinning, 11 U. C. Q. B. 686; Wilt v. Lai, 7 U. C. Q. B. 585.) Conveying travellers or Her Majesty's mail by land or water, selling drugs and medicines, and such other works of necessity, and also works of charity, are excepted. (Ib.; In re Hespeler, 16 U. C. Q. B. 104.)

2. Tippling, brawling, or using profane language.—It is not lawful for any person to tipple, or to allow or permit tippling in any inn, tavern, grocery, or house of public entertainment, or to revel or to publicly exhibit himself or herself in a state of intoxication, or to brawl or use profane language in the public streets or open air, so as to create any riot or disturbance to Her Majesty's peaceable subjects. (Ib.)

3. Horse racing and other sports or games.—It is not lawful for any person to play at skittles, ball, foot ball, racket, or any other noisy game, or to gamble with dice or otherwise, or to run races on foot or on horseback, or in carriages, or in vehicles of any sort. (Ib.)

4. Fishing, hunting, shooting, or other sports.—It is not lawful for any person to go out fishing, or hunting, or shooting, or in quest of or to take, kill or destroy any deer or other game, or any wild animal, or any wild fowl, or bird, or fish, or to use any dog, gun, rifle, or other engine, or any fishing rod, net or trap, for the above mentioned

2. For preventing the sale or gift of intoxicating drink to a child, apprentice or servant, without the consent of a parent, master, or legal protector. (n)

3. For preventing the posting of indecent placards, writings or pictures, or the writing of indecent words, or the making of indecent pictures or drawings, on walls or fences in streets or public places; (o)

4. For preventing vice, drunkenness, profane swearing, obscene, blasphemous or grossly insulting language, and other immorality and indecency in streets, highways or public places; (p)

5. For suppressing tippling houses and houses of ill-fame; (q) purpose, on the Lord's day, except in defence of his, her, or their property, from any wolf or other ravenous beast or bird of prey. (lb.)

6. Bathing.—It is not lawful for any person to bathe in any exposed situation in any water within the limits of any incorporated city or town, nor within view of any place of public worship or private residence. (lb.)

6. Penalty.—An offence in any of the foregoing particulars is punishable by summary conviction. (lb. sec. 3.)

(n) The By-law may be passed to prevent the sale or gift of intoxicating drink to the classes mentioned, unless under the circumstances directed, that is, to a child, apprentice or servant, with the consent of the parent, master, or legal protector, and not otherwise. As to the general power to regulate, limit or prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors to people generally, see sec. 245.

(o) The things which may be prevented by by-law under this subsection are the following:

1. The posting of indecent placards, writings or pictures.
2. The writing of indecent words.
3. The making of indecent pictures or drawings.

A thing may be said to be "indecent" when offensive to modesty or delicacy.

(p) The offences here enumerated are classed "immorality and indecency." The power is to pass a By-law to prevent vice, drunkenness, &c., and other immorality and indecency in streets, highways or public places. Immorality or indecency in this sense may be defined as something unbecoming—not fit to be seen or heard—any action or behavior which is deemed a violation of modesty, or an offence to delicacy, as wanton actions, obscene language, and generally whatever shocks or tends to excite a blush in a spectator. (See Webster and Imperial Dictionary, "Indecency.")

(q) It is clearly agreed that keeping a bawdy house is a common nuisance, as it endangers the public peace by drawing together dissolute and debauched persons. As such, it is indictable. (Russell on Crimes, i, 322.)

10. For preventing indecent public exposure of the person and other indecent exhibitions; (v)
11. For preventing or regulating the bathing or washing the person in any public water near a public highway; (w)

(r) The power is to prevent or regulate horse racing. Horse racing is not under all circumstances illegal. (Oliphant on Horses, 288.) No person is however permitted by the law to run a horse at a race unless it is his own, nor to enter more than one horse for the same "plate," upon pain of forfeiting the horses. (18 Geo. II. c. 19.) No party can recover a wager on a horse race that is illegal within the statute. (Sheldon v. Law, 3 U. C. O. S. 85.) The proprietor of a race course is not responsible for the "purse," unless upon clear proof of an express undertaking to that effect. (Gates v. Tinning, 3 U. C. Q. B. 295.) Nor has the winner a right to recover back his "entrance money" because the purse has not been paid over to him. (Gates v. Tinning, 3 U. C. Q. B. 295.)

(s) Townships and Incorporated Villages have power to pass By-laws to prevent or regulate circus riding and other shows (sec. 259, subsec. 11); though not empowered to pass by-laws under the clause here annotated.

(t) All common gaming houses are nuisances in the eye of the law, being detrimental to the public, as they promote cheating and other corrupt practices, and entice numbers of persons to idleness whose time might be otherwise employed for the good of the community. (1 Hawk, P. C. cap. 75, sec. 6.)

(u) The ancient statutes contain very severe regulations as to vagrants. (22 Hen. 8, cap. 12; 27 Hen. 8, cap. 26; 1 Edw. 6, cap. 3; 3 & 4 Ed. 6, cap. 16; 14 Eliz. cap. 5; 18 Eliz. cap. 3; 35 Eliz. cap. 7; 18 & 14 Car. 2, cap. 12, sec. 28; 12 Anne, st. 2, cap. 28; 13 Geo. 2, cap. 24; 17 Geo. 2, cap. 5.) The last mentioned act (17 Geo. 2, cap. 5) divides vagrants into three classes. 1. Idle and disorderly persons. 2. Rogues and vagabonds; and 3. Incurable rogues.

(v) In general, all open lewdness grossly scandalous is punishable by the common law. And it appears to be an established principle, that whatever openly outrages decency and is injurious to public morals is a misdemeanor. (Russell on Crimes, 1. 326.)

(w) It has been held an indictable offence for a man to undress himself on the beach and to bathe in the sea near inhabited houses, from which he might have been distinctly seen, although the houses had been recently erected and until their erection it had been usual for men to bathe in greater numbers at the place in question. (Rez v. Crunden, 2 Camp. 89.) The judge ruled that whatever place becomes the abode of civilized men, there the laws of decency must be enforced. (Ib.)

(z) In these references there is an error—"280" should be "279."

(y) This section ought to have been extended to Towns separated under sec. 26. (See sec. 291.) Qn. Is it intended that the jurisdiction of the County Councils should extend to Towns and Incorporated Villages, as well as to Townships? It is certainly not so expressed. The part of sec. 79 (81 in act as passed) of the original bill which exempted them, was struck out in committee.

(a) The officers whose appointment is authorized are:

1. Engineers.

2. Inspectors of Houses of Industry.

3. Surgeons of Gaols.

The latter, until lately, were appointed by the magistrates in Quarter Sessions.

FERRIES.

4. For regulating Ferries between any two places in the Municipality; and establishing the rates of ferriage to be taken thereon; but no such By-law as to Ferries shall have effect until assented to by the Governor in Council. (c)

278.—Until the Council of the County or City pass a By-law regulating such Ferries, and in the cases of ferries not between two places in the same Municipality, the Governor by Order in Council may from time to time regulate such ferries respectively and establish the rates to be taken thereon, in accordance with the Statutes in force relating to Ferries. (d)

279.—The Council of every County and City may pass By-laws for the following purposes: (e)

LANDS FOR GRAMMAR SCHOOLS.

1. For obtaining in such part of the County, or of any City within the County, as the wants of the people may most require, the real property requisite for erecting County grammar school houses thereon, and for other grammar school purposes, and for preserving, improving and repairing such school houses, and for disposing of such property when no longer required. (f)

(b) In England, statutes were passed at an early period for the regulation of hawkers, pedlars, and petty chapmen (8 & 9 Will. 3, cap. 25; 9 & 10 Will. 3, cap. 25; 29 Geo. 3, cap. 26); and in Upper Canada as early as 1816. (56 Geo. 3, cap. 34.)

support of a public school "in each and every district" of Upper Canada, to be kept in places named. (47 Geo. 3, cap. 6.) This act was repealed, in 1858, by an act intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Grammar Schools." (16 Vic. cap. 188, sec. 17.) The latter enacted that the Grammar Schools then existing should be continued at the places where they were respectively held, but authorized the Board of Trustees of each such school to change the places. (Ib. sec. 15.) As to Grammar Schools established after 14th June, 1858, the places may be changed by the County Council of the County within which the school is established. (Ib.) The Trustees are also authorized in certain cases to surrender to the Crown lands unsuitable for school sites, with a view to other sites. (18 Vic. cap. 121.) The Legislature, in 1858, made a grant for the establishment of a model grammar school. (18 Vic. cap. 182.) The applicability of the section under consideration to Cities is very doubtful; for Cities are deemed Counties for municipal and for certain judicial purposes, and no other. (Sec. 889.)

(g) The Council of each County, City, Township, Town, or Incorporated Village, is authorized by 18 Vic. cap. 186, from time to time to levy and collect, by assessment, such sum or sums of money as it may deem expedient to purchase the site or sites, or to rent, build, repair, furnish, warm and keep in order a grammar school, house or houses, for providing the salary of the teacher or teachers, and all other necessary expenses of such county grammar school or schools. (Sec. 2.)

(h) The provision to be made may be a permanent one. But it must not be for attendance at any other institution than that of the University of Toronto and Upper Canada College, or Normal Grammar School.

(i) None are entitled to receive the benefit of the provision unless those who are themselves unable to incur the expense.

5. (j)

Endowing Fellowships.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO COUNTIES ONLY.

280.—The following sections numbered from 281 to 285 apply to Counties only: (k)

Extent of sections 281 to 285.

SEPARATE IMPROVEMENTS BY UNITED COUNTIES.

281.—The Councils of United Counties may make appropriations and raise funds, to enable either County separately to carry on such improvements as may be required by the inhabitants thereof. (l)

One of united counties may make improvements with union funds.

282.—Whenever any such measure is brought under the notice of the Council of any United Counties, none but the Reeves and Deputy Reeves of the County to be affected by the measure shall vote; except in case of an equality of votes for or against the measure, when the Warden, whether a Reeve or Deputy Reeve of any portion of the County to be affected by the measure or not, shall have the casting vote. (m)

Reeves of the county interested only to vote first.

283.—In all other respects, all the provisions of this Act, giving such privileges and making provision for the payment of the amounts appropriated, whether to be borrowed upon a loan or to be raised by direct taxation, shall be adhered to. (n)

Provisions of this Act for repayment to apply.

(j) Fellowships, Scholarships, or Exhibitions, endowed under this clause, are to be for competition among the pupils of the public Grammar Schools of the County.

(k) See note y to sec. 241.

(l) Such appropriations, &c., to be subject to all formalities and regulations or appropriations made for the use of the United Counties. (Sec. 283.)

(m) The improvements must be such as are required by the inhabitants of one of the United Counties. The desire for them may be signified to the Council of the United Counties, by the Reeves, &c., of the County to be affected. When brought before the notice of the Council, composed as it will be of Reeves and Deputy Reeves of the United Counties, none except the Reeves and Deputy Reeves of the County to be affected by the measure are to vote. Provision is also made for the casting vote of the Warden, whether a Reeve from such county or not.

(n) See sec. 221 et seq.

Treasurer to pay over moneys, without deduction.

In such cases the property of the county interested is alone to be assessed.

284.—The Treasurer of the United Counties shall pay over all sums so raised and paid into his hands by the several Collectors without any deduction for per centage. (a)

285.—The property to be assessed for the purpose contemplated in the four last preceding sections of this Act, shall be the same as the property assessed for any other County purpose, except that any sum to be raised for the purposes of one County only, or for the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes of one County only, shall be assessed and levied solely upon property assessed in that County, and not upon property in any other County united with it. (p)

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CITIES, TOWNS AND INCORPORATED VILLAGES.

Extent of section 287.

286.—The following section applies to the following Municipalities: (q)

1. Cities,
2. Towns, and
3. Incorporated Villages.

By-laws may be made—

287.—The Council of every city, town and incorporated village (r), may respectively pass by-laws for the following purposes: (s)

HARBOURS, DOCKS, &C.

For removal of door steps, &c.

2. For directing the removal of door-steps, porches, railings or other erections or obstructions, projecting into or over any wharf, dock, slip, drain, sewer, bay, harbour, river or water, or

(a) It is not said to whom the Treasurer is "to pay over;" but it is apprehended only to persons directly entitled to receive, such as contractors, &c., for work done.

(p) This is for the purposes intended, to effect as it were, a separation of Counties United pro tanto without severing the Union.

(q) See note y to sec. 241.

(r) Counties are not named, and of course are not empowered to pass by-laws for the purposes mentioned.

(s) By-laws.—See note v to sec. 186.

(t) The clause is restricted to public wharves, docks, &c.; for private wharves, &c., owned by private companies, are in such matters generally regulated by the owners. In 1858, an act was passed which provides for the formation of companies for the construction of piers, wharves, dry docks, &c. (16 Vic. cap. 124.)

(x) There is also a general act providing for the formation of Incorporated Joint Stock Companies for supplying Cities, Towns and Villages with water. (16 Vic. cap. 178.)

(y) The establishment of public marts or places of buying and selling, such as markets and fairs, with the tolls thereunto belonging, is enumerated by Blackstone as one of the Royal Prerogatives. In Upper Canada it is frequently exercised as to fairs.

including those established by the Crown as well as those established by municipal authority.

(a) This and the ten following clauses (9 to 18) confer power to make purely local regulations, some of which, such as the assize of bread (16) have been from the earliest time necessary, and from time to time made by some or other local authority.

(b) A nuisance has been described as any thing that works hurt, inconvenience, or damage. And nuisances are of two kinds; public or common nuisances, which affect people generally, and private nuisances, which may be defined as any thing done to the hurt of the lands, tenements or hereditaments of another. 30. For directing the keeping and returning of bills of mortality, and for imposing penalties on persons guilty of default in doing so. Bills of mortality.

Private nuisances are generally remedied by civil action. Public nuisances, then, are offences against the public order and economical regimen of the State, being either the doing of a thing to the annoyance of all the Queen's subjects, or the neglecting to do a thing which the common good requires. But the annoyance or neglect must be of a real and substantial nature, and the fears of mankind, though they may be reasonable, will not create a nuisance. Offensive trades or manufactures, of which examples are given in the following subsections, may be public nuisances.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CITIES AND TOWNS.

288.—The following sections, numbered from 289 to 291, apply to the following municipalities (h): 1. Cities; 2. Towns. Extent of sections 289 to 291.

CORONERS.

289.—One or more Coroners shall be appointed for every incorporated city and town. (i) Appointment of.

(h) See note y to sec. 241.

(i) It is not said by whom the appointment is to be made, but it is understood by the Executive. The office of Coroner is of equal antiquity with that of Sheriff. (Mirror, cap. 1, sec. 8.) The authority of a Coroner is judicial and ministerial. Judicial where one comes to a violent death, or a house or building is destroyed by fire in a city, town or village, in which cases he is to take inquest. (4 Inst. 371; 20 Vic. cap. 86.) Ministerial where the Coroner executes the Queen's writs on exception to the Sheriff, as by his being a party to a suit, or of kin to either of the parties, &c. (j) The powers given are to license intelligence offices, to regulate them, to limit the duration of the licences, to prohibit the opening of any such office without license, to fix the fee for a license,—each of which has a distinct meaning.

(k) As wooden structures are more combustible than stone or brick, the power to regulate the erection of them in Cities and Towns is conferred. For the word "specified" the word "populous" is probably intended; otherwise the expressor might as well have been "any part" as "specified parts." The word "populous" was used in the bill as introduced to the Assembly. It is not certain where or by whom it was changed.

(l) The word "police" is generally applied to the internal regulations of Cities and Towns, whereby the individuals of any City or Town, like members of a well governed family, are bound to conform their general behavior to the rules of propriety, good neighborhood, and good manners, and to be decent, industrious and inoffensive in their respective situations (See 4 Bla. Com. cap. 13); but the word, as here used, has a still more restricted meaning, for it is intended to apply to those paid men who in every City and Town are appointed to execute police laws, and who in many respects correspond with Constables of Rural Municipalities. The powers given to Cities and Towns are—1. To establish. 2. To regulate; and 3. To maintain a police.

(m) The jurisdiction of a Municipal Council is in general local, that is, confined to the Municipality which it represents. For some purposes, the jurisdiction extends beyond the locality. The acquisition of land for a cemetery is one such purpose. (Sec. 258, subsec. 3.) Land for an industrial farm, &c., is another. Power is given—1. To acquire any estate, &c., for a farm, &c. 2. To erect buildings thereon, &c. 3. To manage the same.

(n) Every Township Council may also make by-laws for raising money for the support of the poor resident in the Township. (Sec. 269.) The poor taken notice of by the English law, which is a complete system, are—1st. Poor by impotency; as the aged or decrepid, fatherless or motherless, poor under sickness, and persons who are idiots, lunatic, lame, blind, &c. 2nd. Poor by casualty; such as able-bodied persons decayed or ruined by unavoidable misfortunes, or otherwise out of employment and unable to procure employment. 3rd. Levels of cellars.

15. For ascertaining and compelling owners, tenants and occupants to furnish the Council with the levels of the cellars heretofore dug or constructed, or which may hereafter be dug or constructed, along the streets of the municipality, such levels to be with reference to a line fixed by the by-laws.

buildings.

16. For compelling to be deposited with an officer, to be named in the by-law, before commencing the erection of any building, a ground or block plan of such building, with the levels of the cellars and basements thereof with reference to a line fixed by the by-law.

Cellars, privies, &c.

17. For regulating the construction of cellars, sinks, water-closets, privies and privy-vaults, and the manner of draining the same.

places.

(p) In Cities and Towns, this is a very great convenience. It causes an expense which in amount is trifling and cheerfully borne.

(q) Drainage, as applied to Cities and Towns, is for sanitary purposes all important. An explanation of the principles of drainage cannot be expected to find a place in this work. A popular treatise on the subject, written by G. Drysdale Dempsey, civil engineer, and published by John Weale, London, England, is recommended to the Municipalities.

The company, within thirty days after communication of a notice of the price, is either to accept the same or to proceed to arbitration, pursuant to sec. 386 of this act. 3. If the sum is either accepted, or a different sum is awarded, the municipality, before levying the rate, is required to pay or secure that sum.

(f) This and the following are new and important clauses.

FIRE. (u)

1. Every proprietor of a house more than one story high, shall place and keep a ladder on the roof of such house near to or against the principal chimney thereof, and another ladder reaching from the ground to the roof of such house, under a penalty of one dollar for every omission; and a further penalty of two dollars for every week such omission continues;

(r) The Path Master, or some Path Master if more than one, is to receive the penalty. When he receives it, it is his duty to apply it to the repair and improvement of the streets, &c.

(s) See sec. 244 and notes thereto.

(t) A Police Village is not a "Municipality" within the meaning of this act. (Sec. 402, subsec. 1.) Nor are the Police Trustees, like the members of Municipal Councils, a body corporate. (Sec. 2.) A Police Village is in every respect of much less importance than a Municipality, such as a County, City, Town, or Incorporated Village. Hence it is that regulations such as Municipal Councils may themselves ordain are here ordained by the Legislature for Police Trustees. Little is left in their power or to their discretion.

(u) It ought to be an object of every householder, where a number of houses are collected together, to provide against fire. It is for this reason that the Legislature, in the clauses following, is so particular as to details.

Fire buckets. 2. Every householder shall provide himself with two buckets fit for carrying water in case of accident by fire, under a penalty of one dollar for each bucket deficient;

Furnaces, &c. 3. No person shall build any oven or furnace unless it adjoins and is properly connected with a chimney of stone or brick at least three feet higher than the house or building in which the oven or furnace is built, under a penalty not exceeding two dollars for non-compliance;

Stove pipes, &c. 4. No person shall pass a stove-pipe through a wooden or lathed partition or floor, unless there is a space of four inches between the pipe and the wood work nearest thereto; and the pipe of every stove shall be inserted into a chimney; and there shall be at least ten inches in the clear between any stove and any lathed partition or wood work, under a penalty of two dollars;

Lights in stables, &c. 5. No person shall enter a mill, barn, outhouse or stable, with a lighted candle or lamp, unless well enclosed in a lantern, nor with a lighted pipe or cigar, or with fire not properly secured, under a penalty of one dollar;

Chimnies. 6. No person shall light or have a fire in a wooden house or outhouse unless such fire is in a brick or stone chimney, or in a stove of iron or other metal, properly secured, under a penalty of one dollar;

Securing fire carried through streets, &c. 7. No person shall carry fire or cause fire to be carried into or through any Street, Lane, Yard, Garden or other Place, without having such fire confined in some copper, iron or tin vessel, under a penalty of one dollar for the first offence, and of two dollars for every subsequent offence;

8. No person shall light a fire in a street, lane or public place, under a penalty of one dollar;

9. No person shall place Hay, Straw or Fodder, or cause the same to be placed, in a dwelling house, under a penalty of one dollar for the first offence, and of five dollars for every week the Hay, Straw or Fodder is suffered to remain there;

Ashes, &c. 10. No person, except a manufacturer of pot or pearl ashes, shall keep or deposit ashes or cinders, in any wooden vessel, box or thing not lined or doubled with sheet-iron, tin or copper, so as to prevent danger of fire from such ashes or cinders, under a penalty of one dollar;

(ww) The powers of Municipal Councils respecting roads and bridges, under the former statutes, were contained in detached sections. They were difficult to trace, differing as they did in relation to the different Municipalities. The framers of this act therefore have apparently thought it better to collect together all the law of highways, so far as regards the jurisdiction of Municipal Councils, and which will be found in the following sections. A methodical arrangement, so far as the diversity of the provisions admits, has been attempted.

HIGHWAYS VESTED IN THE CROWN.

Highways,
&c., vested in the Crown.

301.—Unless otherwise provided for, the soil and freehold of every highway or road altered, amended or laid out according to law, shall be vested in her Majesty, her heirs and successors. (y)

The following is an outline of the arrangements:

1. Highways generally. (Sec. 300.)
2. Restrictions upon the powers of Councils. (Sec. 308.)
3. Formalities to be observed in passing by-laws. (Sec. 308.)
4. Compensation to owners of lands taken for roads, &c. (Sec. 310.)
5. Title to lands taken for roads, &c. (Sec. 311.)
6. Joint jurisdiction of two or more Councils. (Sec. 314.)
7. Statute labor. (Sec. 317.)
8. General powers of all Municipalities. (Secs. 317-320.)
9. Townships, Cities, Towns, and Incorporated Villages. (Secs. 321-323.)
10. Cities, Towns, and Incorporated Villages. (Sec. 324.)
11. Counties exclusively. (Sec. 325.)
12. Townships exclusively. (Sec. 329.)
13. Railways. (Sec. 332.)

Each Municipal Council should, as occasion requires, give careful attention to those sections which relate to its powers and duties with respect to roads, &c.

(x) Anciently there were but four highways in England, which were public and common highways to all the King's subjects, and through which they might pass without any toll. (James v. Johnston, 1 Mod. 281.) All others are supposed to have been made through the grounds of private persons, who had a right to prescribe tolls. (Id.) Highways in the modern sense may however exist notwithstanding the imposition of tolls; and are often constituted such by Acts of Parliament.

The following are made highways under the operation of this section:

1. All allowances for roads made by the Crown Surveyor, &c.
2. All roads laid out by virtue of any Act of Parliament of Upper Canada.
3. All roads whereon the public money has been expended for opening the same.
4. All roads on which statute labor hath been usually performed.
5. All roads passing through the Indian lands (which is very indefinite).
6. The exception is where such roads have been already altered or may hereafter be altered according to law.

(y) The soil and freehold of every highway or road altered, amended or laid out, according to law, unless otherwise provided for, is vested in her Majesty, her heirs and successors; and it is provided by sec. 322, that every public road, &c., or other highway in a City, Township, Town, or Incorporated Village, shall be vested in the Municipality, subject to any rights in the soil which the individuals who laid out such road, &c., reserved, &c.

THE MUNICIPAL MANUAL.

JURISDICTION OF MUNICIPALITIES.

302.—Subject to the exceptions and provisions herein-after contained, every Municipal Council shall have the jurisdiction over the original allowances for Roads, Highways and Bridges within the Municipality. (a)

Jurisdiction of Municipal Council.

JURISDICTION RESTRICTED.

PROVINCIAL ROADS UNDER BOARD OF WORKS.

303.—No Council shall interfere with any Public Road or Bridge vested as a Provincial Work in Her Majesty or in any Public Department or Board, and the Governor shall by order in Council have the same powers as to such Road and Bridge as are by this Act conferred on Municipal Councils with respect to other Roads and Bridges; (a) but the Governor may by Proclamation declare any Public Road or Bridge under the control of the Commissioners of Public Works, to be no longer under their control, and in that case after a day named in the Proclamation the Road or Bridge shall cease to be under the control of the Commissioners, and no tolls shall thereafter be levied thereon by them, and the Road or Bridge shall thenceforth be controlled and kept in repair by the Council of the Municipality. (b)

Roads under Board of Works not to be interfered with.

ROADS ON ORDNANCE LANDS.

304.—No Council shall pass any By-law (1) for stopping up or altering the direction or alignment of any street, lane or thoroughfare made or laid out by Her Majesty's Ordinance, or the Principal Secretary of State in whom the Ordinance Estates are vested under the Statute of this Province, passed in the nineteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign chapter forty-

Not with Ordinance roads, lands, &c.

(a) Original allowances for roads, &c., are generally allowances laid out in the first or original survey of a township, &c. (See rep. stat. 50 Geo. 3, cap. 1, sec. 12.) Over all these jurisdiction is given to the Municipal Council of the Municipality in which situate. The object is to give express authority to the Municipal Councils as respects the government of highways within their limits. (See sec. 322.)

(a) Among the exceptions to public roads, &c., being under the jurisdiction of Municipal Councils, are public roads, &c., vested as provincial works in her Majesty, or in any public department or board, such as the Department of Public Works. (See 9-Vic. cap. 37, subsecs. 7, 12, 18 and 28, and 10 & 11 Vic. cap. 24.) Over these the Governor General of the Province is to have the same powers as are by this act given to Municipal Councils with respect to other roads, &c.

(b) This provides for the transfer of a provincial road to the Municipal Council of the Municipality in which it is situate. So far as the section does so it is taken from statute 18 & 14 Vic. cap. 16, sec. 2.

five, (2) or for opening any such communication through land held by the Secretary of State for Her Majesty's Ordnance, or (3) interfering with any bridge, wharf, dock, quay or other work constructed by Her Majesty's Ordnance, or the Secretary of State, or (4) interfering with any land reserved for Military purposes or with the integrity of the public defences, without a written consent signed by the Principal Officer of Her Majesty's Ordnance acting in Canada under the authority of such Secretary of State, certified under the hand of the Commander of the Forces in Canada to be such Principal Officer and to be acting under such authority, and a By-law for any of the purposes aforesaid shall be void unless it recites such consent, authority and certificate. (c)

Council not to close roads required by individuals.

Nor to encroach upon houses, &c.

Width of roads.

WHAT ROADS NOT TO BE CLOSED.

305.—No Council shall close up any public road or highway, whether an original allowance or a road opened by the Quarter Sessions, or any Municipal Council, or otherwise legally established, whereby any person shall be excluded from ingress and egress to and from his lands or place of residence over such road, but all such roads shall remain open for the use of the person who requires the same. (d)

NOT TO ENCROACH UPON HOUSES, &c.

WIDTH OF ROADS.

307.—No Council shall lay out any road or lane more than ninety nor less than thirty feet in width; but any road, when altered, may be of the same width as formerly. (f)

(c) The object of this section is to protect roads, &c., laid out through Ordnance Lands. The Ordnance Transfer Act of 1856 divides Ordnance Lands into two schedules; the first schedule comprising all lands vested in one of her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and the second such lands as are re-vested in the Crown for the public uses of the province. (19 Vic. cap. 45, sec. 1.)

(d) Of this section the design is not with the good of the public as of an individual proprietor of land as of the public. No road, &c., is to be closed up, "whereby any person will be excluded from ingress and egress to and from his lands, &c."

(e) This section is also for the protection of private rights as opposed to public convenience. Unless there be a written consent from the owner, no Council is to authorize an encroachment on any dwelling house, &c.

NOTICE TO BE GIVEN OF BY-LAWS INTENDED TO AFFECT PUBLIC ROADS.

308.—No Council shall pass a By-law, for stopping up, altering, widening, diverting or selling any original allowance for road, or for establishing, opening, stopping up, altering, widening, diverting or selling any other public highway, road, street or lane; (g)

What notice to be given of By-laws intended to affect public roads.

1. Until written or printed notices of the intended By-law have been posted up one calendar Month previously in six of the most public places in the immediate neighbourhood of such original allowance for road, street, or other highway, road, street or lane; (h) width of the road (In re Smith and the Municipal Council of Euphemia, 8 U. C. Q. B. 222), and should, it seems, when it authorizes a road through a man's land, show where it enters and what course it takes. (Dennis v. Hughes et al, 8 U. C. Q. B. 444.) All by-laws authorizing new roads should, either by reciting the whole description of the road given in the survey or report, or by describing it fully, whether such by-laws refer to the report or not, make it plain to every one that sees the by-law where the road is to run and how wide it is to be, and should not leave the information to be gleaned from documents not referred to in the by-laws as annexed and not in fact annexed. (In re Brown and the Municipal Council of the County of York, 8 U. C. Q. B. 586; McIntyre v. the Municipal Council of Bosanquet, 11 U. C. Q. B. 460.) The same strictness does not of course apply to a by-law closing up an old road. (Fisher v. the Municipal Council of Vaughan, 10 U. C. Q. B. 492.)

(g) It ought to be observed that notice is requisite, not only before a Council shall pass a by-law "for stopping up, altering, widening, diverting or selling any original allowance," but "for establishing, opening, stopping up, altering, widening, diverting or selling any other public highway, road, street or lane." Under the old acts it was held that no notice was necessary before passing a by-law to open a new road; the clause then in force only applying to by-laws "for stopping up, altering, widening or diverting a road, &c." (Dennis v. Hughes et al, 8 U. C. Q. B. 444.) It seems that a road is not made, &c., when a by-law authorizing the making of it is passed, but only that it is authorized to be made, &c., by the proper officer acting in a reasonable manner. (Ib.) As to stopping up, &c., it is not necessary for the Council to do more than close or abolish the highway by their enactment. They are not required to fence it in, or to place any physical obstruction in the way of persons passing. They only put an end to the right of using it, and consequently to all obligation on the part of any person to respect it as a highway. The conveying away the former line of road, where they have authority to do so, is a distinct matter altogether and not necessary to the extinction of the right of way. (Johnston v. Resser et al, 10 U. C. Q. B. 101.)

IN DISPUTES RESPECTING ROADS—WHO MAY SWEAR WITNESSES, &c.

Power to administer oath in disputes respecting boundaries.

309.—In case of disputes in any Municipality concerning roads, allowances for roads, side lines, boundaries or concessions, within the cognizance of and in the course of investigation before a Municipal Council, the Head of the Council may administer an oath or affirmation to any party or witness examined upon the matters in dispute. COMPENSATION FOR LANDS TAKEN.

Owners of lands taken, to be compensated.

310.—Every Council shall make to the owners of real property entered upon, taken or used by the Corporation in the exercise of its powers in respect to roads, streets and other public communications, or to drains and common sewers, due compensation for any damages necessarily resulting from the exercise of such powers, beyond any advantage which the claimant may derive from the contemplated work; (j) and

Halton, and by their command, in pursuance of a by-law passed on 31st January, 1850, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of the Municipal Act of 1849, which came into force on 1st January, 1850, held on demurrer that it was a valid objection to the several pleas, that they did not show a calendar month's notice given previous to the passing of the by-law; that on the contrary they imported on the face of them that it could not have been given, because the by-law was passed within a month after the Municipal Act of 1849 came into operation. (Laferly v. Stock, 3 U. C. C. P. 1.)

(i) There is some obscurity in this section. It is not intended to give Municipal Councils jurisdiction to try and determine disputed boundaries, &c., but only to institute such an investigation respecting such roads or lines, &c., as are material to the exercise of the jurisdiction which the Councils possess. The section is founded on sec. 128 of the old Act 12 Vic. cap. 81, which was not in the original bill, as introduced in 1849, but was inserted before the bill became law, by some person who had no clear idea of what he was doing.

(j) Where a statute authorizes acts interfering with private rights of property, all such acts are to be taken strictly; and the persons justifying under the statute must show themselves to be right in every thing done by them. (Dennis v. Hughes et al, 8 U. C. Q. B. 444.) The any claim for such compensation, if not mutually agreed upon, shall be determined by arbitration under this Act. (h)

TITLES TO LAND OF INFANTS, &c., NOW ACQUIRED.

311.—In case of real property which a Council has authority under this Act, to enter upon, take or use without the owner's consent, Corporations, Tenants in tail or for life, Guardians, Committees and Trustees, shall, on behalf of themselves, their Successors and Heirs respectively, and on behalf of those they represent whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, married women or others, have power to act, as well in reference to any arbitration, notice and action under this Act, as in contracting for and conveying to the Council any such real property, or in agreeing as to the amount of damages arising from the exercise by the Council of any power in respect thereof. (l) In case there is no such person who can power of a Municipal Council referring proprietors to private parties for compensation, to say the least of it, is very doubtful. (Ib.; Lafferty v. Stock, 3 U. C. C. P. 1.) But a by-law closing up an old road and directing that the parties applying to have the road enclosed should pay the expenses, is not necessarily bad. (Fisher v. the Municipal Council of Vaughan, 10 U. C. Q. B. 492.) A party who accepts a sum of money in satisfaction of his right to land taken for a road, &c., is not allowed afterwards to contend that the road was illegally laid out, by reason of want of notice or other formality. (Magrath v. the Municipality of the Township of Brock, 13 U. C. Q. B. 629.) How far the owner of land upon a highway would have a claim to compensation, under this section, for any thing done by a Municipal Council in the proper exercise of its powers within the line of the highway, as originally laid out, is a question. It has been decided under the old statute 16 Vic. cap. 181, sec. 83, that as a general rule a claim to compensation for the consequences of improvement made in the proper line of the highway, could not be recognized as just or reasonable; because it was said the proprietor of land, taking possession of his lot, having a street running past it, is called upon to consider that, for the sake of the public, the street will in progress of time be made as level and as dry as it may be, either by raising the ground where it is low or by reducing hills which are inconveniently steep; and that having due regard to the make of the ground in its natural state, he has an opportunity of foreseeing such alterations in the level of the street as a regard to public convenience will lead to, and that he should be governed by that in placing his buildings so as to suit such probable alterations. (Regina v. the Municipal Council of Perth, 14 U. C. Q. B. 156.)

(h) See sec. 336.

(l) Where land is required for a public purpose, it is a very common provision that persons not otherwise entitled to convey an estate in fee simple shall, for the public purposes specified, have power to do so. (See 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 51, sec. 11.) The power of the persons described in this section to do so is confined to land which the Muni-

312.—In case any party acting as aforesaid has not the absolute estate in the property, the Council shall pay to him the interest only at six per centum per annum on the amount to be paid in respect of such property, and shall retain the principal to be paid to the party entitled to it whenever he claims the same, and executes a valid acquittance therefor, unless the Court of Chancery, or other Court having equitable jurisdiction in such cases, do in the mean time direct the Council to pay the same to any person or into Court; (n) and the Council shall not be bound to see to the application of any interest so paid or of any sum paid under the direction of such Court. (o)

Municipal Council has authority under this act to enter upon, take or use, without the owner's consent.

(m) When no person entitled under the provisions of this act to convey the land required can be found, the County Judge may, on application of the Council, "appoint a person to act in respect of the same, for all or any of the said purposes."

(n) A railway company agreed to pay a land owner, tenant for life, a sum of money for the benefit of him or other the owner for the time being, for indemnifying him from the expense of making a new road, &c., and as a compensation for the annoyance which he or such other owners might sustain in consequence of the construction of the railway; and the company agreed to pay a further sum as the price of the land taken. Both sums were paid into court. The application of the tenant for life for the absolute payment to him of the first sum was refused. The costs of the road, &c., were paid out of it, and the rest invested. (Re Duke of Marlborough Estates, 13 Jur. 788.)

(o) This is a wise provision. It is a rule in equity that a person paying money to a trustee, &c., is bound to see to the application of the money. This has been found to work such hardship, that as between individuals it is now enacted that a person paying money upon an express or implied trust, is not bound to see to the application or be answerable for the misapplication thereof, unless the contrary is expressly declared by the instrument creating the trust. (12 Vic. cap. 71, sec. 10.) In the same spirit it is, by the section under consideration, enacted that a Municipal Council paying money, &c., as authorised by the section, shall not be bound to see to the application thereof.

(q) Joint jurisdiction over certain roads.

(p) In the absence of special clauses for that purpose, the effect of a provision enabling a person under disability, &c., to convey land for some authorized public purpose, is not to alter the course of devolution of property without the consent of the owner. And therefore if a municipal council, railway company, &c., contract with incapacitated persons for the purchase of land, the money is in equity to be considered as real and not as personal estate. (Midland Counties Railway Co. v. Owen, 8 Jur. 188.) Money paid into Court by a railway company, for land taken from a person who was in a state of mental imbecility, and who continued in that state until his death, but was not the subject of a commission of lunacy, was ordered after his death not to be reinvested in or considered as land, but to be paid to his executors. (In re East Lincolnshire Railway Act, 18 Sim. N.S. 266.) Money paid into Court for land taken under the compulsory powers of the English Act 5 & 6 Wm. IV. cap. 69, for a Poor Law Union, during the life of a tenant for life, who by the failure of intermediate limitations became tenant in fee simple, passed as real estate to his heir. (In re Harness Estate, 16 Jur. 1063.) Where the purchase money of land taken under the compulsory powers of an Act of Parliament, for public purposes, is paid into Court subject to be reinvested in the purchase of land, free of expense to the parties beneficially interested, on their petition, it is impressed with real uses and is prima facie to be treated as real estate. (In re Stewart's Estates, 16 Jur. 1063.) If the person absolutely entitled to the money land has a right to elect to take it as personalty, a mere acquiescence in its remaining invested in consols during his life, and his will, by which he bequeaths personal estate only, and does not devise realty, are not such proofs of election as to prevent the funds descending on his death to his heirs. (Ib.)

(q) This section does not make any mention of Incorporated Villages or Townships. As to Townships, it is elsewhere provided that the County Council shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all roads, &c., lying within any Township of the County, and which the Council assumes as a county road, &c. (The Canada Company v. Howard, 9 U. C. Q. B. 654.)

(x) Two things here deserve attention; first, the term, and, secondly, the sum. In no statute hitherto was there express power given to compound for a term so long as five years. (s) Power was given by the Assessment Act to the Municipal Council of every township, by by-law, to operate generally and ratably, to reduce or at their discretion increase the number of days' labour to which all the parties rated on the assessment roll or otherwise should be liable, so that the number of days' statute labour to which each person should be liable should be in proportion to the amount at which he is assessed. (16 Vic. cap. 182, sec. 86.)

(a) Statute labour or its commutation may, under the Assessment Act, be enforced by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party in default; failing which, he is liable to imprisonment for any time not exceeding six days. (Ib. sec. 42 et seq.) It was under the old law held that the Municipal Council of a village had no authority to impose the performance of statute labour, or a tax in lieu thereof, except on those inhabitants who were not otherwise assessed. (In re Executors of Dickson v. the Municipal Council of the Village of Galt, 9 U. C. Q. B. 257.) The authority of an incorporated village is now in this respect equal to that of any other description of municipality. (Sec. 409.) It was also held, under the Municipal Act of 1843, that a proprietor of land could not be compelled to do statute labour in the township in which the land lay, unless he himself were a resident of that township. (Moore v. Jarroa, 9 U. C. Q. B. 238.)

(b) The power to regulate the divisions implies a power to make divisions, to which is added a power to regulate the manner in which the labour shall be performed or the commutation money expended in each division.

(c) The Jurisdiction depends on secs. 802 to 814, inclusive of this act.

PITS AND PRECIPICES.

To make regulations as to pits, &c.

(d) It was at one time contended that the Municipal Councils have only authority to change the direction of existing roads, and to widen or otherwise alter them—not to make new roads; but it is now settled that such Councils have power to make new roads through any person's lands, not merely as substitutes for other roads running near and between the same points, but to afford a passage from one point to another where there has been no passage before. (Dennis v. Hughes et al., 8 U. C. Q. B. 444.) The power to repair highways must be reasonably exercised. (Roid v. the City of Hamilton, 5 U. C. C. P. 269; Croft v. the Town Council of Peterborough, 5 U. C. C. P. 85.) A Municipal Council, for instance, in order to drain a highway, has no right to bring down water in any quantity upon the land of an individual, and leave the water to stagnate there, without showing that it could not in any way have been got rid of without throwing it on plaintiff's land, and without showing that it was not in the power of the Council to lead the water away from the plaintiff's land after the Council had conducted it there. (Brown v. the Municipal Council of Sarnia, 11 U. C. Q. B. 87.) But the Council is not responsible for injuries to the property of private persons resulting from natural causes,—thus: where, during the repair of a highway, stones and other materials collected for it about a culvert, were by a violent storm carried into a miller's raceway, the Council was held not to be liable for the damage. (Snook et al. v. the Town Council of Brantford, 14 U. C. Q. B. 255.) A by-law of a County Council appropriating a certain sum of money "to be expended on certain roads within the county (not defined) in such manner as the township and town councillors may think proper," has been held bad. (In re Conger and the Peterborough Municipal Council, 8 U. C. Q. B. 349.) So a by-law taxing the wild lands of a district, "for the purpose of improving the roads and bridges (not defined), and liquidating the debts of the district." (Doe dem. McGill v. Langton, 9 U. C. Q. B. 91.)

(e) The authority to raise money by toll on a bridge, &c., appears to exist only when necessary "to defray the expense of making or repairing the same."

(A) It has been questioned whether a Municipal Corporation has a right to sell timber trees on a road allowance, so as to impart a vested interest and possession in the trees to the vendee, and in the soil as incidental. If the vendee were not bound forthwith to remove them, they might be suffered to remain incumbering the allowance for road indefinitely. (Cochran v. Hislop, 3 U. C. C. P. 440.)

(i) Where a public road has been opened through private property, in lieu of an original allowance for road, for which compensation has been paid, the original allowance may be sold "to the parties next adjoining whose lands the same is situated." The allowance may adjoin on each side the lands of different parties, and it then becomes a question whether the Council is bound to sell to each one half of the allowance, or may sell the whole to one. Similar authority is conferred as to "any road legally stopped up and altered by the Council." If the parties entitled to preemption refuse to purchase, then and only then is the Council authorized to sell to any other person.

OLD ROAD ALLOWANCES.

When a road is substituted for an original allowance.

318.—In case any one in possession of a Concession road or side line has laid out and opened a road or street in place thereof without receiving compensation therefor, or in case a new or travelled public road has been laid out and opened in lieu of an original allowance for road, and for which no compensation has been paid to the owner of the land appropriated as a public road in place of such original allowance, the owner, if his lands adjoin the concession road, side line, or original allowance, shall be entitled thereto, in lieu of the road so laid out, (m) and the Council of the Municipality upon the report in writing, of its Surveyor, or of a Deputy Provincial Land Surveyor, (n) that such new or travelled road is sufficient for construction of Roads and other Works in Upper Canada, is 16 Vic. cap. 190. In addition to this, there are, no doubt, private acts of incorporation.

(1) A grant for a term of years is authorized for a consideration stated. The grant is to be of the rates fixed by by-law to be levied, &c. The term is not to be more than twenty-one years; and the consideration, or part consideration, is to be that of planking, gravelling, or macadamising the road, &c., or of building a bridge, &c.

(m) So far, this section provides for two cases; first, where a person in possession of a concession road or side line has himself laid out and opened a road, &c., in place thereof; secondly, where a new or travelled road has been laid out and opened by, it is conceived, the proper authority, in lieu of an original allowance for road, &c. In either of these cases, if no compensation has been paid to the owner of the land, and if his lands adjoin the concession road, side line, or original allowance, he shall be entitled to the original road allowance in lieu of the road laid out. But though entitled, it would appear from what follows, that to make his title complete there must be a conveyance from the Municipal Council to him of the original road allowance.

(n) If the Municipal Council has a surveyor in its employment, the report is to be by him; if not—by any deputy provincial land surveyor.

(p) It is not said whether the conveyance should be effected by by-law or by ordinary deed of conveyance. The proper course would be, it is apprehended, to pass a by-law authorizing the conveyance, and afterwards, in pursuance thereof, to execute a formal deed of conveyance. (In re Choate et al. and the Municipality of the Township of Hope, 16 U. C. Q. B. 424.) The power to sell the allowance for road exists when, in the opinion of the Council, it is useless to the public; as to which see Purdy v. Farley, 10 U. C. Q. B. 545.

(q) The expression, "subject to the conditions aforesaid," refers to the report of the surveyor, &c.

(r) If the person from whom the land for the new road is taken has not land adjoining the old road allowance, the allowance would be of little or no use to him. For this reason it is provided that in such case the allowance shall be sold, and the proceeds paid to the person whose land is taken for the new road.

(s) This section provides for the security of, first, a person in possession of any part of a Government allowance for road, &c., not

NOTICE OF BY-LAWS FOR OPENING SUCH ALLOWANCES.

By-law for opening, &c., roads, &c., to require notice.

AIDING COUNTIES IN MAKING ROADS AND BRIDGES.

Aiding Counties in making roads and bridges.

391.—The Municipal Council of every Township, City, Town and Incorporated Village, (u) may pass By-laws; (v)

1. For granting to the County or United Counties in which such Municipality lies, aid, by loan or otherwise, towards opening or making any new road or bridge on the bounds of such Municipality: (w) opened for use "by reason of another road being used in lieu thereof," and secondly, a person in possession of any Government allowance for road, parallel or near to which "a road has been established by law in lieu thereof," &c. A person so circumstanced is to be deemed legally possessed as against any "private person," but not as against the Crown; and he is to be deemed so possessed "until a by-law has been passed for opening such allowance," &c. So that as well against private persons as Municipal Councils, until a by-law is passed for opening, &c., he is to be deemed legally possessed. By an act of 1810, all allowances for roads laid out by public authority were declared, whether opened or not, used or not, "public highways;" (50 Geo. III. cap. 1, sec. 12) but for the security of persons in possession of them when not used, it was in 1846 enacted that no allowance for road in possession of a private person should be opened unless upon notice to him, and the passing of an order of the proper municipal authority. (9 Vic. cap. 8.) Both these enactments are now repealed by sec. 403 of this act, but are in substance re-enacted. A person in possession of a road allowance where a new road has been opened or is used in lieu of it, to save himself from all disturbance, had better acquire a legal title thereto, pursuant to sec. 318 of this act. (See Purdy v. Farley, 10 U. C. Q. B. 545.)

(d) Such was the old law. (See preceding note.) As to the computation of the time ("at least eight days before, &c."), see note d to sec. 97.

(u) Counties are not here mentioned, because the object of the section is to enable the Councils of the Municipalities named to assist the Councils of Counties.

(v) By-laws.—See note v. to sec. 186.

(w) As a rule, Councils of Municipalities, less than Counties, have not power spontaneously to assess themselves for county purposes. (See note u to sec. 186.) The power given by this clause is to grant aid by loan or otherwise towards opening or making any new road, i. e. not stating whether the same may be done voluntarily, or only upon the solicitation of the Council of the County.

HIGHWAYS IN CITIES, TOWNSHIPS, TOWNS AND INCORPORATED VILLAGES.

322.—Every public road, street bridge or other highway, in a City, Township, Town or incorporated Village, shall be vested in the Municipality, (z) subject to any rights in the soil which the individuals who laid out such road, street, bridge or highway, reserved; (a) and except any concession or other road within the City, Township or Town or incorporated Village, taken and held possession of by an individual in lieu of a street, road or highway, laid out by him without compensation therefor. (b)

Streets in cities, towns, and incorporated villages, how far vested in Municipalities.

(z) A distinction is made in this section between counties and other municipalities. The clause here annotated applies to Councils other than County Councils.

(y) A bridge between two Municipalities—Townships, for example—divided by a stream, is a good example of a work that may be executed at "joint expense" and for "joint benefit."

(x) This section it will be observed applies to Cities, Townships, Towns and Incorporated Villages. The old Act 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 15, applied to Cities and Towns only. "Townships" were introduced by the Legislative Council after the bill had passed the Legislative Assembly; and the introduction of them may give rise to a question, how far roads owned by the government, sold by the government to companies or otherwise owned by companies, are liable to be affected by this section. So long as the law was confined to Cities and Towns, and perhaps Incorporated Villages, there could be no conflict, as the roads or parts of roads therein did not pass from the government to private companies. To obviate the difficulty it will be necessary to read the section under consideration in reference to sec. 404, which provides that statutes not mentioned in this Act are not to be affected by it. Neither the 9 Vic. cap. 37, secs. 7, 12, 13, 23, sch. A.; nor 10 & 11 Vic. cap. 24, as to roads owned by government; nor 12 Vic. cap. 5, secs. 12 and 13; nor 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 57, sec. 1, respecting the sale of public works, including certain roads; nor 16 Vic. cap. 190, respecting joint stock road companies, are mentioned in this Act and are therefore not affected by it, as to the rights acquired under them. Besides it is also expressly enacted that no Council shall interfere with any public road or bridge vested as a provincial work in Her Majesty, or in any public department or board. (Sec. 303.)

(a) It is seldom if ever, in Upper Canada, that a person granting land for a public road makes any reservation as to the soil.

(b) If this section were read alone, it might be inferred that concessions or other roads taken and held possession of by an individual, in lieu of a street, &c., laid out by him, without compensation, are

To be kept in repair by the Corporation, on pain of damages.

333.—Every such road, street, bridge and highway shall be kept in repair by the Corporation, (c) and the default of the Corporation so to keep in repair, shall be a misdemeanor punishable by fine in the discretion of the Court, (d) and the Corporation shall be further civilly responsible for all damages sustained by any person by reason of such default, (e) but the action must be brought within three months after the damages have been sustained. (f) And this Section shall not apply to any road, street, bridge or highway laid out without the consent of the Corporation by By-law, until established and assumed by By-law. (g)

LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS OF STREETS.

334.—The Council of every City, Town and Incorporated Village, (h) may also pass By-laws, (i) for the following purposes:

not vested in the Municipality; but unless such a person hold a conveyance of such concession, &c., obtained under sec. 318, it is conceived his title would only be possession under sec. 819, subject to be terminated as therein enacted. (See Purdy v. Purdy, 10 U. C. Q. B. 545.)

(c) It was held, under the Municipal Act of 1849, that a Municipal Council of a township had not power to appropriate the revenue arising from a tax imposed on the owners of dogs in only one part of the township, to the improvement of the public streets and to other purposes within the limits of such part of the township. (In re Richmond v. the Municipality of the Front of Leeds and Lansdowne, 8 U. C. Q. B. 567.)

(d) Misdemeanor.—See note r to sec. 45. As a corporation cannot be compelled at the assizes or sessions to appoint an attorney, an indictment found against it must be by certiorari, moved into one of the superior courts of common law, and then proceedings be had by venire facias and distringas, if necessary, to compel the corporation to appear and plead to the indictment. (Archbold's Crown Office, 171.) When issue is joined, a record may be made up and sent down for trial before a jury, as in an ordinary case. (Ib.)

(e) Whenever it is made the duty of a corporation to do a particular thing—keep a highway in repair, for example—if from neglect of that duty injury results to a private individual, a remedy generally follows.

(f) The months intended are calendar months. (12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 11.)

(g) By-law.—See note v to sec. 186.

(h) Neither counties nor townships are mentioned. The provisions of this section are such as do not apply to rural municipalities.

2. For raising, upon the petition of at least two thirds of the freeholders and householders resident in any street, square, alley or lane, representing in value one half of the ratable property therein, such sums as may be necessary for Sweeping, Watering or Lighting the street, square, alley or lane, by means of a special rate on the ratable property therein; (k) but the Council may charge the general corporate funds with the expenditure incurred in such Making or Repairing, or in such Sweeping, Watering or Lighting as aforesaid; (l) Watering and sweeping streets.

3. For regulating or preventing the incumbering, injuring or fouling, by animals, vehicles, vessels or other means, of any road, street, square, alley, lane, bridge or other communication; (m) Preventing obstructions in streets.

4. For directing the removal of door steps, porches, railing or other erections, or obstructions projecting into or over any road, or other public communication, at the expense of the proprietor or occupant of the property connected with which such projections are found; (n) Removal of door-steps.

5. For surveying, settling and marking the boundary lines of all Streets, Roads and other public communications, and for giving names thereto and affixing such names at the corners thereof on either public or private property. (o) For marking the boundaries of and naming streets.

(j) The principle of local instead of general assessment is here sanctioned. The assessment for making or repairing any pavement, &c., may be imposed upon "the proprietors of real property immediately benefited," &c.

(k) The objects here contemplated are sweeping, watering or lighting. Assessments may be made for one or other of those objects, "upon petition of at least two-thirds of the freeholders and householders resident in any street, &c., representing in value one half of the ratable property therein," &c. As to what constitutes residence, see note r to sec. 7b.

(l) The meaning is, that for the purposes mentioned the Council may but is not bound to assess localities immediately benefited. If such be not done, of course the charge will fall upon "the general corporate funds."

(m) The power is not only to "regulate," but to "prevent," each of which has a distinctive meaning involving distinct powers.

(o) To "survey" a street may be to open a new street; to "settle" a street may be to make certain the boundaries of a street already laid out; and this done, the boundary lines may be "marked."

EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OVER ROADS.

COUNTIES.

WHAT ROADS.

Exclusive jurisdiction over certain roads by Counties.

325.—The County Council shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all Roads and Bridges lying within any Township of the County and which the Council by By-law assumes as a County Road or Bridge, until the By-law has been repealed by the Council, and over all Bridges across streams separating two Townships in the County; and over every Road or Bridge dividing different Townships, although such Road may so deviate as in some places to lie, wholly or in part, within one Township. (p)

ROADS ASSUMED TO BE MACADAMIZED.

Roads assumed to be macadamized, &c.

326.—When a County Council assumes by By-law any Road or Bridge within a township as a County Road or Bridge, the Council shall, with as little delay as reasonably may be, and at the expense of the County, cause the Road to be planked, gravelled or macadamized, or the Bridge to be built in a good and substantial manner. (q)

CERTAIN POWERS OF JUSTICES IN SESSIONS TRANSFERRED.

Certain powers of Justices in sessions transferred.

327.—All powers, duties and liabilities which at any time before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, belonged to the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions, with respect to any particular Road or Bridge in a County,

(f) It became a question under the former statute (12 Vic. 81, ss. 88 & 89), as to the municipality upon which rested the burthen of keeping in repair a bridge crossing a river, which river at the point of intersection not only divided two townships but two county municipalities. The expressions there were, roads and bridges running, lying and being between different townships, and between different counties, &c., respectively. The expression in the present section is, "over all bridges across streams separating two townships in the county," and "over every road or bridge dividing different townships, although such road may so deviate," &c. To preserve consistency, the words "or bridge" should have here followed "road." The language of the section does not, however, in any view, meet the case supposed. The section 314 speaks of a bridge wholly or "partly" between a county and an adjoining county, and the word "partly" may be held to conclude the question by showing that the jurisdiction and liability are joint. (See also ss. 316 & 327; and Lafferty v. Stock, 3 U. C. C. P. 1.)

(g) When a Municipal Council is bound to plank, gravel, or macadamize a road, and refuses to do so, a mandamus may issue to compel the performance of the duty. (In re the Municipality of the Township of Augusta and the Municipal Council of the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville, 12 U. C. Q. B. 522.)

GENERAL POWERS OF COUNTIES RESPECTING HIGHWAYS.

308.—The Council of every County shall have power to pass By-laws (s) for the following purposes:

1. For stopping up, or stopping up and sale, of any original allowance for roads or parts thereof within the County, which is subject to the sole jurisdiction and control of the Council, and not being within the limits of any Village, Town or City within or adjoining the County; but the By-law for this purpose shall be subject to the three hundred and eighth section of this Act; (t)

Sale of original allowance, &c., for roads in certain cases.

2. For preventing immoderate riding or driving of horses or other cattle on the highways, whether Township or County highways; (u)

Preventing furious driving.

3. For opening, making, preserving, improving, repairing, widening, altering, diverting, stopping up and pulling down, drains, sewers, water courses, roads, streets, squares, alleys, lanes, bridges or other public communications, running or being within one or more Townships, or between two or more Townships of the County, or between the County, and any adjoining County or City, or on the bounds of any Town or incorporated Village within the boundaries of the County, as the interests of the inhabitants of the County in the opinion of the Council require to be so opened, made, preserved and improved, and for entering upon, breaking up, taking or using Roads within or between several Municipalities.

(r) It is a question, how far this provision is at all necessary or material. Powers, duties and liabilities, as to every road or bridge is, it is believed, by the operation of this act, conferred on some municipality or other.

(s) By-law.—See note v to sec. 186.

(t) See notes to sec. 308.

(u) So as to prevent immoderate driving, the Council is invested with the jurisdiction necessary to pass by-laws for the purpose over all highways, whether township or county highways. The jurisdiction apparently does not extend to highways in towns or incorporated villages, and certainly not in cities, for cities for such purposes are deemed counties.

(v) The powers of County Councils under this clause extend to drains, sewers, water courses, roads, streets, &c.

1. Within one or more townships.

2. Between two or more townships.

3. Between the county and adjoining county or city.

4. On the bounds of any town or incorporated village.

See note p to sec. 325.

(w) "Subject to the restrictions hereinafter contained." The word "hereinafter" is clearly erroneous, and probably intended for "hereinbefore." The restrictions to which reference is made are those contained in secs. 303 to 308 inclusive of this act, which apply to every Municipal Council. In committee, there was a transposition of the clauses of the bill. The clauses containing the restriction, when the bill was introduced, followed, not preceded, the section under consideration.

(ww) Powers precisely similar to those by this clause conferred on counties are also by this act conferred on townships. (Sec. 329, subsec. 3.) This may cause some conflict of jurisdiction. With respect to counties, if the proprietor neglects or refuses, within the time limited for the purpose, to remove the trees, it is enacted that the removal may be effected by "the County Surveyor," in which case the by-law may authorize the trees to be used "by the Overseer or other officer," for any purpose connected with the improvement of the highways, &c. With respect to townships, these powers are to be exercised by "the Overseer of Highways." (Sec. 329, subsec. 8.) Where the word "Overseer" occurs in the section here annotated, it is presumed that it also means "Overseer of Highways."

For granting to any Town, Township, or Incorporated Village in the County, aid, by loan or otherwise, towards opening or making any new Road or Bridge in the Town, Township or Village, in cases where the Council deems the County at large sufficiently interested in the work to justify such assistance, but not sufficiently interested to justify the Council in at once assuming the same as a County work; (a)

and bridges.

(x) As to assessments on localities less than the whole municipality, see notes to sec. 824.

(y) A petition for local assessment in a city, town, or incorporated village, must be signed by "resident freeholders and householders," but in a county by "Electors," who must be male freeholders or householders assessed for a given sum, but not necessarily residents. (See secs. 75 & 824.)

(z) Here too there is a difference between counties and other municipalities in respect to the subject-matter of this section; for although as to counties publication of the petition, in the manner above directed is required, no publication is necessary as to cities, towns, or incorporated villages. (Sec. 824.)

(a) The power of a County Council to grant aid for the purposes mentioned exists only where the Council deems the County at large sufficiently interested "to justify the assistance," but not so much so as to justify the Council in at once assuming the work as a county work. The line of demarcation may not be in all cases easily drawn, but the decision rests with the Council, and for this reason cannot cause much difficulty.

TAKING STOCK IN OR AIDING RAILWAY COMPANIES.

Council may make by-laws:

For taking stock in
guaranteeing debentures.

For guaranteeing the payment of
&c.

1. For subscribing for any number of shares in the Capital Stock of or for lending to or guaranteeing the payment of any sum of money borrowed by an incorporated Railway Company to which the eighteenth Section of the Statute fourteenth and fifteenth Victoria, Chapter fifty-one,—(the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act) has been made applicable by any special Act; (q)

2. For endorsing or guaranteeing the payment of any Debenture to be issued by the Company for the money by them borrowed, and for assessing and levying from time to time upon the whole ratable property of the Municipality, a sufficient sum to discharge the debt or engagement so contracted; (r)

(n) The last section in terms applies only to a village or hamlet situate in one and the same township, as well as in one and the same county, but as villages are often formed at the corners of different townships, which may or may not be in different counties, it is by this section made to extend to "a village or hamlet situate in two townships, whether such townships are in the same county or in different counties." The extension is scarcely sufficient, for there are villages formed of parts of more than two townships. Orangeville is composed of parts of the townships of Mono in the county of Simcoe, of Caledon in the county of Peel, and of Garafraxa in the county of Wellington.

(o) Every form of Municipal Council is here included. (Sec. 402, subsec. 1.)

(p) By-laws.—See note v to sec. 186.

(q) Part of the 18th section of 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 51, has been made applicable to the Grand Trunk Railway Company (16 Vic. cap. 43, sec. 18) and to the Peterborough and Port Hope Railway Company (16 Vic. cap. 49), and probably to other companies, of which an enumeration is not necessary in this place.

(r) A Municipal Council may under this clause endorse or guarantee a debenture issued by the railway companies intended, and may assess and levy a sufficient sum to discharge the debt or engagement. An endorsement under the clause would seem to be deemed "a debt," while a guarantee is termed "an engagement."

(a) No Council is allowed, "unless specially authorized so to do, to give any bond, bill, note, debenture or other undertaking, for the payment of a less amount than $100." (Sec. 214.) By this clause a special authority is given for the issue of debentures in aid of railway companies, in sums "not less than twenty dollars."

(f) See sec. 192 et seq.

(a) As a rule, all debentures and other specialties duly authorized to be executed on behalf of a Municipal Corporation, must be not only for sums not less than $100 (see note a above), but be sealed with the seal of the corporation, and be signed by the head thereof, or some other person authorized by by-law to sign the same. (Sec. 209.) But debentures issued under these sections in aid of railway companies are exceptions to both the general rules.

(v) The Head of a Municipal Council is to be ex-officio a director of a railway company only when the Council of which he is Head "subscribes for and holds stock in such company to the amount of $20,000 or upwards."

is necessary, to make any branch railway on property of the Corporation, or on highways, under such conditions as the Council sees fit, and subject to the restrictions contained in the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act, and any other Acts affecting such Railway. (w)

ARBITRATIONS.

336.—In all cases of arbitration directed by this Act, the proceedings shall be as follows: (x)

Mode of appointing arbitrators and conducting arbitrations.

Third arbitrator.

Provision in case of neglect to appoint.

1. Each party shall appoint one arbitrator, and give notice thereof in writing to the other party; and when the other party is a corporation, the notice shall be given to the head of the corporation. (y)

2. The two arbitors appointed by or for the parties shall choose a third arbitrator. (z)

3. In case of an arbitration between townships, or between counties, or between a county and a city, or between a county and town, if for one calendar month after having received such notice the party notified omits appointing an arbitrator, and if for ten days after the second arbitrator has been appointed the two arbitrators omit to appoint a third arbitrator, then, in case the arbitration is between townships, the Warden of the

(w) A railway act of incorporation, if at all complete, should confer the authority direct on the company, instead of leaving the company to obtain the authority from Township Councils.

(z) The act by which parties may refer any dispute between them to the private decision of another party or parties is called a submission. The party or parties to whom the reference is made, arbitrator or arbitrators respectively. When the reference is made to more than one, and provision made that in case they disagree another shall decide, that other is called an umpire. The judgment given or determination made by an arbitrator or arbitrators or umpire is termed an award, or, more correctly, that by an umpire, an umpirage. (Tomlin. "Award.")

(y) The Head of every county and provisional corporation is the Warden thereof, and of every city and town the Mayor thereof, and of every township and incorporated village the Reeve thereof. (Sec. 65.)

(z) It is a common error to look upon a third arbitrator as an umpire. The difference between a third arbitrator and an umpire is that the former is appointed before the arbitration proceeds, and the latter after the arbitrators have entered upon the reference, and are unable to agree. There are other distinctions between the two unnecessary to be mentioned here. (Harrison's C. L. P. Act, p. 185.) The appointment of the third arbitrator is by this clause made a condition precedent to the right of the two arbitrators first appointed to act.

county within which the townships are situate, or in case the arbitration is between counties, or between a county and a city or a town, the Governor in Council may appoint an arbitrator for the party or arbitrators in default. (a)

4. In case of an arbitration between a Municipal Corporation and the owners of property to be entered upon, taken or used in the exercise of the powers of the Corporation in regard to roads, streets or other communications, or to drains and sewers, if, after the passing of the by-law, any person interested in the property appoints and gives due notice to the head of the Council of his appointment of an arbitrator to determine the compensation to which such person is entitled, the head of the Council shall, within three days, appoint a second arbitrator, and give notice thereof to the other party, and shall express clearly in the notice what powers the Council intend to exercise with respect to the property (describing it). (b)

In case of exercise of powers as to roads, drains, &c.

5. If within one month after service on the owner or owners of the property, of a copy of any by-law certified to be a true copy under the hand of the Clerk of the Council, the owner or owners omit naming an arbitrator and giving notice thereof as aforesaid, the Council or the head, if authorized by by-law, may name an arbitrator on behalf of the Council, and give notice thereof to the owner or owners of the property, and the latter shall, within seven days thereafter, name an arbitrator on his or their behalf. (c)

If the owner of property fails to name an arbitrator

(a) It is the duty of each party to appoint one arbitrator, and give notice thereof in writing to the other party. It is the duty of the two arbitrators so appointed, in ten days after the appointment of the second arbitrator, to appoint a third arbitrator. Default may be made in either particular, and provision is here made therefor. If the arbitration is between townships, the Warden of the county in which the township is situate may appoint the second or third arbitrator, as the case may require; but if the arbitration is between counties, or between a county and a city or a town, the appointment must be made by the Governor in Council.

(b) A difference is to be observed as to arbitrations between municipal councils and arbitrations between a municipal council and individuals. In the latter case the individual appoints his arbitrator, and gives due notice thereof to the Head of the Council. When he does so the Head of the Council is required, within three days, to appoint a second arbitrator, and besides to give notice thereof to the individual; in which notice must be clearly expressed "what powers the Council intend to exercise with respect to the property (describing it) belonging to the individual." It is then the duty of the two arbitrators, within seven days, to appoint a third arbitrator. (Subsecs. 2 and 6.) For form of mandamus on the Head of a municipal council to appoint an arbitrator, see The Queen v. the Council of Perth, 14 U. C. Q. B. 150.)

6. In either of the cases provided for by the two preceding clauses, the two arbitrators shall within seven days appoint a third arbitrator, and their award shall be made within one month after the appointment. (d)

7. If any such owner or occupier neglects naming an arbitrator within seven days after receiving notice to do so, or if the two arbitrators do not within seven days from the appointment of the lastly named of the two arbitrators, agree on a third arbitrator within seven days after the lastly named arbitrator's appointment, or if an arbitrator refuses or neglects to act, the Judge of the county court, on the application of either party, shall nominate as an arbitrator a fit person resident without the limits of the municipality in which the property in question is situate, and such arbitrator shall forthwith proceed to hear and determine the matters referred to him. (e)

8. The appointment of all arbitrators shall be in writing, under the hands of the appointors, or, in case of a corporation, under the corporate seal, and authenticated in like manner as a by-law. (f)

to cause to be served on the owner of the land to be affected a copy of the by-law affecting it, certified to be a true copy, under the hand of the Clerk of the Council. Then the initiative as to arbitration is to be taken by the owner so served. It is his duty, within one month after service, to name an arbitrator, and give notice thereof to the Council in the manner prescribed by the last clause. If he allows the month to expire without doing it, then the Council may take the initiative by appointing the first arbitrator, and giving notice of his appointment. If this is done the owner of the land is required, within seven days thereafter, to name the second arbitrator. The two so appointed of course name a third arbitrator before proceeding with the reference. (Subsecs. 2 and 6.)

(d) The necessity for the appointment of the third arbitrator is explained in the notes to the two preceding clauses. The appointment by this clause is in each case to be made within seven days after the appointment of the last of the two arbitrators, and the award must be made within one month after such appointment of the third arbitrator.

(e) In this respect also a difference is to be observed between an arbitration between municipal councils and a municipal council and an individual. (See note a above.) It is the duty, as we have seen, of the individual, if he has not taken the initiative within seven days after notice of the appointment of the first arbitrator by the Council, to appoint a second arbitrator. It is also the duty of the two so appointed, within seven days after the appointment of the last of them, to name a third arbitrator. If in either respect there is default made, or if any arbitrator appointed refuses to act, which he may do, or neglects to act, the Judge of the County Court has the nomination of the requisite arbitrator.

be signed by the head, &c., and by the Clerk of the Corporation. (Sec. 188.) The use of the corporate seal in the appointment of an arbitrator, is apparently a new requirement. (See Wilson v. the Municipal Council of the Town of Port Hope, 10 U. C. Q. B. 405.)

(g) As a rule, arbitrators to represent a Municipal Council must be appointed by that Council: the exception is when the Council by by-law deutes that power to the head of the Council. The language of this section is such, that it might be inferred that under any circumstances the head could name an arbitrator on behalf of the Council, and for this reason attention to this clause is particularly directed. (See subsecs. 4 and 5 above.)

(A) Where several persons are interested (as in the opening of a new road, &c.), there may be an arbitration under this act as to each person interested, or, in the option of the Council, an arbitration as to all, and the claims of all be determined by one award. In the latter case, instead of seven days only allowed by subsec. 7 for the appointment of an arbitrator either by an individual or by the County Judge, one month is given.

(i) The oath is not only to be taken by every arbitrator, but to be taken by him "before proceeding to try the matters of the arbitration."

Award, to be binding, in certain cases must be adopted by by-law within a certain time.

12. In case the award relates to property to be entered upon, taken or used as mentioned in the said fourth sub-section, and in case the by-law did not authorize or profess to authorize any entry or use to be made of the property before an award had been made except for the purpose of survey, or in case the by-law did give or profess to give such authority, but the arbitrators find that such authority had not been acted upon, the award shall not be binding on the Corporation unless it is adopted by By-law within six weeks after the making of the award; and if the same is not so adopted, the original By-law shall be deemed to be repealed, and the property shall stand as if no such By-law had been made, and the Corporation shall pay the costs of the arbitration; (j)

Notes of the evidence adduced to be taken and filed in certain cases.

13. In the case of any award under this Act which does not require adoption by the Council, or in case of any award to which a Municipal Corporation is a party and which is to be made in pursuance of a submission containing an agreement that the present sub-section of this Act should apply thereto, the arbitrator or arbitrators shall take, and immediately after the making of the award shall file with the Clerk of the Council for the inspection of all parties interested, full notes of the oral evidence given on the reference, and also all documentary evidence or a copy thereof, and in case they proceed partly on a view or any knowledge or skill possessed by themselves or by any of them, they shall also put in writing a statement thereof sufficiently full to allow the Court to form a judgment of the weight which should be attached thereto; (k)

The oath besides is not only to be taken, but subscribed. When taken and subscribed, it is to be filed with the papers of the reference.

(j) A Municipal Corporation has by statute certain powers in regard to roads, streets and other communications, and to drains and sewers, which powers are exercisable by by-law. Any award made in reference thereto, is dependent on the adoption of the award by by-law within six weeks after its making; and the original by-law is also made dependent on the passing of such second by-law. The award is not to be binding on the Corporation unless within the time limited for the purpose it is adopted by the Council. If not so adopted, the original by-law is to be deemed repealed. In this event, the Corporation is to pay the costs of the arbitration.

(k) Awards other than those described in the last note do not require adoption by the Council to render them valid. When an award not requiring such adoption, or an award to which this clause is by the submission applicable, is made, the arbitrator or arbitrators are required to do what this clause directs.

14. Every award made under this Act shall be in writing under the hands of all or two of the arbitrators and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of any of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity as if made on a submission by a Bond containing an agreement for making the submission a rule or order of such Court. (l) And in the cases provided for by the last preceding sub-section, the Court shall consider not only the legality of the award but the merits as they appear from the proceedings so filed as aforesaid, and may call for additional evidence to be taken in any manner the Court directs, and may, either without taking such evidence or after taking such evidence, set aside the award, or remit the matters referred or any of them from time to time to the consideration and determination of the same arbitrators, or to any other person or persons whom the Court may appoint as prescribed in the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1856," and fix the time within which such further or new award shall be made; (m) or the Court may itself increase or diminish the amount awarded or otherwise modify the award, as the justice of the case may seem to the Court to require. (n)

Award to be made by at least two arbitrators, and subject to Superior Courts.

Powers of the Courts in such matters.

(l) Hitherto there were two kinds of submission that might be made a rule of court; first, references by rule of court, judge's order, order of Nisi Prius; secondly, submissions in writing, by virtue of the statute 9 & 10 Wm. III., where they contain an agreement to the effect that they may be made rules of court. (Watson on Awards, 3 Edn. 45.) These were much extended by the Common Law Procedure Act, 1856, which enacts that "every agreement or submission, whether by deed or instrument not under seal, may be made a rule of one of the superior courts of law or equity in Upper Canada, on the application of any party thereto, unless such agreement or submission contain words purporting that the parties intend that it should not be made a rule of court," &c. (Sec. 97.) The effect of the clause here annotated is to place submissions under this act on the same footing as any of the foregoing described submissions. The effect of making every award under this act subject to the jurisdiction of any of the superior courts of law or equity, as if made on a submission by a bond containing an agreement for making the submission a rule or order of such case, appears to be to bring all such submissions under the statute of 9 & 10 Wm. III. The effect thereof is to give the courts power to review the awards, and if necessary enforce the performance of them by process of attachment. (See notes to Harrison's C. L. P. Acts, p. 174.)

(m) As to setting aside awards, see Harrison's C. L. P. Acts, p. 176 et seq.; and as to remitting, see same work, notes to p. 178.

(n) This is a most important provision. It enables the courts to do complete justice between the parties. The power to increase or diminish the amount awarded, is one necessary to this end; and the power being not only to increase or diminish the amount awarded, but "otherwise to modify it," is, it is believed, extensive enough to enable

(o) Counties not included, and yet County Councils are authorized to appoint pound-keepers. (Sec. 242, subsec. 2.)

(p) By-laws.—See note v to sec. 186.

(q) The two statutes referring to pounds and cruelty to animals are 1 Vic. cap. 21, sec. 35, and 20 Vic. cap. 31; both of which are in subsequent notes to this section more fully noticed.

(r) It was by statute 1 Vic. cap. 21, sec. 32 (now repealed), enacted that it should be the duty of any Pound-keeper appointed under the provisions of that act to provide himself with sufficient works or enclosures for the safe keeping of all such animals as it might be his duty to impound. By the clause under consideration, the Municipal Council of the several municipalities described is empowered to pass by-laws for providing such yards or enclosures.

(s) The 1 Vic. cap. 21, sec. 32 (now repealed), made it the duty of the Pound-keeper to impound all animals running at large, trespassing and doing damage, that might be delivered to him by any person resident within his division; and if not claimed or redeemed by the owners within periods limited for the purpose, to sell the same. Such is still the duty of the Pound-keeper. (Sec. 388, subsec. 1.)

(t) The 35th section of 1 Vic. cap. 21, which is still unrepealed, enacts that it shall be the duty of the Pound-keeper, when the owner of any animal impounded shall object to the amount of damages claimed, within forty-eight hours after the same has been impounded, to notify three disinterested resident freeholders or householders, farmers in the township, to appraise the damages, and also to judge of the sufficiency of the fence enclosing the grounds wherein such animals were found doing damage, &c.;—Qu., if not superseded by sec. 388, subsec. 17, 18 and 19.

Regulations for the

keepers.

1. If not previously replevied, the Pound Keeper shall impound any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig, or other cattle, or any poultry, distrained for unlawfully running at large, or for trespassing and doing damage, delivered to him for that purpose by any person resident within his division who has distrained the same; (w)

What animals to be

2. When the common Pound of the Municipality or place wherein distress has been made is not secure, the Pound Keeper may confine the animal in any inclosed place within the limits of the Pound-keeper's division, within which the distress was made; (x)

When the

not safe.

(u) As to the duty of every Pound-keeper to supply animals impounded with food, &c., and the provision made for reimbursing him the cost thereof, see 20 Vic. cap. 31, sec. 2.

(v) As already explained, the whole of the former act, 1 Vic. cap. 21, with the exception of sec. 35, is repealed. (See notes to sec. 337.)

(w) It has been held that a master is liable for the acts of his farm servant in impounding cattle in his absence, the servant acting within the scope of his authority. (Spafford v. Hubble, M. S. Easter Term, 7 Wm. IV.; Robinson & Harrison's Digest, p. 294.) In trespass against two defendants for seizing and taking cattle, one defendant justified as pound-keeper, and because the cattle were in the close of A., wrongfully trespassing in said close, and eating grass and corn therein, A. took the said cattle, and delivered them to the defendant as a pound-keeper within his jurisdiction, and the defendant impounded and afterwards sold them according to law; and the other defendant justified the seizure by the pound-keeper, as in the other plea, and the sale by him, and that the defendant bought the cattle as the highest bidder; to both of which pleas there was a general demurrer. Held that the plea by the pound-keeper was bad, as it did not show that he received the cattle from a person within his division, or that the close was so situate, and that the plea of the purchaser was good, as he could not be held liable to the plaintiff in trespass. (Clarke v. Durham et al, M. S. Easter Term, 8 Vic. Robinson and Harrison's Digest, p. 481.) In a plea of justification by a pound-keeper for taking a pig, when the justification was that the pig contrary to township regulations broke through a lawful fence, it was held necessary to allege that the fence was within that township, and to show the close in which the pig was trespassing at the time. (Carey v. Tate, 6 U. C. O. S. 147.)

(x) It would seem that the animal must be impounded with the Statement of demand to be made to Pound-keeper by impounder.

3. The person distraining and impounding the animal shall, at the time or within twenty-four hours thereafter, deliver to the Pound-keeper duplicate statements in writing of his demands against the owner for damages (if any), not exceeding twenty dollars, done by such animal. (y) And shall at the same time give his written agreement under seal (with a surety if required by the Pound Keeper) which agreement may be after the form following, or in words to the same effect: (z)

Form of agreement with Pound-keeper.

I, (or we, as the case may be), do hereby agree that I, (or we) will pay to the owner of the (describing the animal) by me (A. B.) this day impounded, all costs to which the said owner may be put in case the distress by me the said A. B. proves to be illegal, or in case the claim for damages now put in by me the said A. B. fails to be established;

If the animal be of a certain kind.

4. In case the animal distrained is a horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle, and if the same is distrained by a resident of the Township for straying within his premises such person, instead of delivering the animal to a Pound Keeper, may retain the animal in his own possession, provided he makes no claim for damages done by the animal, and duly gives the notices hereinafter in that case required of him; (a)

If the owner be known.

5. If the owner is known to him, he shall forthwith give to the owner notice in writing of having taken up the animal; (b)

If unknown, notice to Township Clerk.

6. If the owner is not known to the person taking up and retaining possession of the animal, such person shall, within forty-eight hours, deliver to the Township Clerk a notice in writing of having taken up the animal, and containing a description of the color, age and natural and artificial marks of the animal, as near as may be; (c) pound-keeper of the division within which it is distrained, and the Municipal Council may provide sufficient yards and enclosures for the purpose. (Sec. 887, subsec. 1.) If not sufficient, this clause enables the pound-keeper "to confine the animal in any enclosed place within the limits of the pound-keeper's division, &c."

(y) As to the determination of the demand, &c., see subsec. 17 et seq. of this section.

(z) This is to ensure perfect good faith, and to make men cautious when distraining on the property of others.

(a) This is a new provision. It enables the distrainer to impound the animal on his own premises, or elsewhere than in the public pound. This he can only do provided he makes no claim for damage done by the animal, and duly gives the requisite notice.

(b) As to the meaning of the word "forthwith," see note k to sec. 122.

The Township Clerk, on receiving this notice, shall forthwith enter a copy thereof in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall post the notice he receives, or a copy thereof, in some conspicuous place on or near the door of his office, and continue the same so posted for at least one week, unless the animal is sooner claimed by the owner; (d)

Duty of Clerk thereon.

8. If the animal or any number of animals taken up at the same time, is or are of the value of ten dollars or more, the distrainer shall cause a copy of the notice to be published in a Newspaper in the County, if one is published therein, and if not, then in a Newspaper published in an adjoining County, and to be continued therein once a week for three successive weeks; (e)

If the animals are worth ten dollars or over.

9. In case an animal is impounded, notices for the sale thereof shall be given by the Pound Keeper or person who impounded the animal within forty-eight hours afterwards, but no pig or poultry shall be sold till after four clear days, nor any horse or other cattle till after eight clear days from the time of impounding the same; (f)

10. In case the animal is not impounded but is retained in the possession of the party distraining the same, if the animal is a pig, goat, or sheep, the notices for the sale thereof shall not be given for one month, and if the animal is a horse or other cattle, the notices shall not be given for two months after the animal is taken up; (g)

him. When not known, the notice is within 48 hours to be delivered for him to the township clerk.

(d) The duty of the Clerk, when he receives the notice, is here well defined. It is—

1. To enter a copy thereof in a book to be kept by him for that purpose.

2. To post the notice, or a copy of it, in some conspicuous place, &c.

3. To continue the same so posted for at least one week, &c.

(e) This is to be done by the Clerk, in addition to the duties required of him by the preceding clause.

(f) The notice of sale is to be given within a time limited, but the sale is not to take place sooner than a specified period. No matter of what description the animal impounded is, notice of sale is to be given within forty-eight hours after the impounding; but no pigs or poultry are to be sold in less than four clear days, and no horse or other cattle in less than eight clear days.

(g) Whenever horses, bulls, oxen, cows, sheep, goats, or other cattle, are distrained by a resident of a township for straying in his premises, instead of delivering the animals to a Pound-keeper, such person may retain them in his own possession. (Subsec. 4.) If he does so, the times appointed for sale are to be extended to the periods

11. The notices of sale may be written or printed and shall be affixed and continued for three clear successive days, in three public places in the Municipality, and shall specify the time and place at which the animal will be publicly sold, if not sooner replevied or redeemed by the owner or some one on his behalf, paying the penalty imposed by law (if any), the amount of the injury (if any) claimed or decided to have been committed by the animal to the property of the person who distrained it, together with the lawful fees and charges of the Pound Keeper, and also of the fence-viewers (if any); and the expenses of the animal's keeping; (h)

14. The value or allowance as aforesaid may be recovered with costs, by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace within whose jurisdiction the animal was impounded, in like manner as fines, penalties or forfeitures for the breach of any by-law of the Municipality may by by-law be recovered and enforced by a single Justice of the Peace; (k) and the Justice shall ascertain and determine the amount of such mentioned in the clause here annotated. The "months" intended are calendar months. (12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 8.)

(h) Before being allowed to redeem, the owner may be required to pay—

1. The penalty imposed by law (if any).
2. The amount of the injury (if any).
3. The lawful fees and charges of the pound-keeper.
4. Also of the fence viewers (if any).
5. The expenses of the animal's keeping.

(i) See also stat. 20 Vic. cap. 31, sec. 2.

(j) It is enacted that not only the pound-keeper, but "every person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined, any animal, &c., shall daily furnish the animal with good and sufficient food, &c. In case it is proved by affidavit in writing, before one of the Justices aforesaid, to his satisfaction, that all the proper notices were duly affixed and published in the manner and for the respective times above prescribed, then if the owner or some one for him does not within the time specified in the notices, or before the sale of the animal, replevy or redeem the same in manner aforesaid, the Pound Keeper who impounded the animal, or if the person who took up the animal did not deliver such animal to any Pound-keeper but retained the same in his own possession, then, any Pound-keeper of the Township, shall publicly sell the animal to the highest bidder, at the time and place mentioned in the aforesaid notices, and shall, after deducting the penalty and the damages (if any) and fees and charges aforesaid, apply the produce in discharge of the value of the food and nourishment, loss of time, trouble and attendance, so supplied as aforesaid, and the expenses of driving or conveying and impounding or confining the animal, and of the sale and attending the same, or incidental thereto, and the damage when legally claimable not exceeding twenty dollars, to be ascertained as aforesaid, done by the animal to the property of the person at whose suit the same was distrained, and return the surplus (if any) to the original owner of the animal; or if not claimed by him within three months after the sale, the Pound Keeper shall pay such surplus to the Treasurer or Chamberlain of and for the use of the Municipality; (n)

the amount shall be decided by the majority of three fence-viewers of the Municipality, one to be named by the owner of the animal, one by the person distraining or claiming damages, and the third by the Pound Keeper; (o)

Fence-viewers to view and appraise damage.

18. Such fence-viewers, or any two of them shall, within twenty-four hours after notice of their appointment as aforesaid, view the fence and the ground upon which the animal was found doing damage, and determine whether or not the fence was a lawful one according to the Statutes or By-laws in that behalf at the time of the trespass; and if it was, then they shall appraise the damages committed, and, within twenty-four hours after having made the view, deliver to the Pound Keeper a written statement signed by at least two of them of their appraisement, and of their lawful fees and charges: (p)

Penalty for neglect of duty by viewers.

19. Any fence-viewer neglecting his duty as arbitrator as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty of two dollars, to be recovered for the use of the Municipality, by summary proceeding before a Justice of the Peace, upon the complaint of the party aggrieved, or the Treasurer or Chamberlain of the Municipality; (q)

Proceedings where viewers decide against the legality of a fence.

20. If the fence-viewers decide that the fence was not a lawful fence, they shall certify the same in writing under their hands, together with a statement of their lawful fees to the Pound Keeper, who shall, upon payment of all lawful fees and charges, deliver such animal to the owner, if claimed before the sale thereof, but if not claimed, or if such fees and charges are not paid, the Pound Keeper, after due notice, as

(o) This varies from the mode prescribed by sec. 35 of 1 Vic. cap. 21. (See note f to sec. 337, p. 200.)

(p) The duties of fence viewers, under this clause, may be enumerated thus:

1. To view the fence, &c., within 24 hours after notice of appointment.
2. To determine whether or not the fence was a lawful one, &c.
3. To appraise the damages committed (if fence lawful).
4. To deliver to the pound-keeper, within 24 hours after view, a written statement of appraisement, &c.

(q) There are to be in each case of dispute three fence-viewers chosen—one by the owner of the animal, one by the person distraining or claiming damages, and the third by the Pound-keeper. (Subsec. 17.) Apparently no fence-viewer so chosen has a right to decline acting, but on the contrary it is his duty to act. A neglect of duty is to be visited with the penalty inflicted by the clause under consideration.

21. In case any Pound Keeper or person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined, any animal as aforesaid, refuses or neglects to find, provide, and supply such good and sufficient food, water, and shelter to the animal, he shall, for every day during which he so refuses or neglects, forfeit a sum not less than one dollar nor more than four dollars, which shall be recoverable by proceeding before any Justice of the Peace; (s)

22. Every fine and penalty, imposed by this Act, may be recovered and enforced, with costs, by summary conviction, under the Summary Convictions Act, before any Justice of the Peace of the County, or of the Municipality, in which the offence was committed; and, in default of payment, the offender may be committed to the Common Goal, House of Correction, or Lock-up House of such County or Municipality, there to be imprisoned for any time, in the discretion of the convicting and committing Justice, not exceeding fourteen days, unless such fine and penalty, and costs, including the costs of said committal, be sooner paid; (t)

CITIES TO BE COUNTIES, &c.

In what respects Cities to be Counties.

339.—Every city shall be a county of itself for Municipal purposes, and for such Judicial purposes as are herein specially provided for in the case of all cities, but for no other. (w)

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

Heads of Councils, Mayors and Reeves to be Justices of the Peace.

340.—The Head of every Council, the Aldermen of a City, the Justices of the Peace and the Reeve of every Town, and the Deputy Reeve of every Township, Town and Incorporated Village, shall ex officio be Justices of the Peace for the whole County or union of Counties in which their respective Municipalities lie, (x) and shall not be disqualified by being an Attorney, Solicitor or Coroner. (y)

Qualification and oaths of Councillors as Justices of the Peace, when dispensed with.

341.—Justices of the Peace for any town, (z) shall have the same property qualification and take the same oaths as other Justices of the Peace, (a) but no Warden, Mayor, Re-

(w) Towns separated under sec 26, would in some measure partake of the character as cities. Cities, though forming parts of the counties in which situate, in point of territorial division do not do so for municipal purposes, nor for the purposes of representation in the Legislative Assembly. (See 14 & 15 Vic. cap. 5, and 16 Vic. cap. 152.) Towns not separated under sec. 26 and incorporated villages, though separate municipalities like townships, form territorially portions of the counties in which situate, as well as for some municipal purposes, so far as the jurisdiction of the County Councils extend; and also for judicial purposes. So cities with regard to the Assizes, the jurisdiction of the Superior Courts, and in some respects of the County Courts, form portions of the counties in which situate (but see sec. 388), but not as regards the Quarter Sessions; which Courts, though empowered to hold their sessions in the cities, possess no jurisdiction therein.

(z) This section illustrates the remarks made in the last note. It confers jurisdiction upon City Magistrates, &c., co-equal to the whole county or union of counties in which their respective municipalities are situate; but County Magistrates are deprived of jurisdiction in cities. (Sec. 348.)

(y) As are such persons from being justices by commission. (See 6 Vic. cap. 3, secs. 2 and 16.)

(x) The Crown may appoint Justices of the Peace for a town (sec. 344); and it does not appear that Justices so appointed would have any jurisdiction beyond the limits of the town. (Ib.)

(a) A Justice of the Peace, not being ex officio such, is required to have in his actual possession, to and for his own use and benefit, real estate, either in free and common socage, &c., for life, or lease for one or more lives, or originally created for a term not less than 21

342.—When a Town has been erected into a City, (c) and the Council of the City duly organized, (d) every Commission of the Peace theretofore issued for the Town, shall cease. (e)

343.—Justices of the Peace for a County in which a City lies shall as such have no jurisdiction over offences committed in the City, and the warrants of County Justices shall require to be endorsed before being executed in a City in the same manner as required by law when to be executed in a separate County. (f) But the general and adjourned Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County may be held and the jurisdiction thereof exercised within the City. (g) years, or by usufructory possession for his life in lands, &c., in the Province, of or above the value of £500, over and above incomes, and over and above all rents and charges payable out of and affecting the same. (6 Vic. cap. 3, sec. 8.) The oath of qualification is in substance the same, and the form of it is given in sec. 8 of 6 Vic. cap. 8.

(b) See sec. 175 et seq.

(c) Which may be done pursuant to sec. 15.

(d) See sec. 115.

(e) A power to issue a commission appointing Justices for a city, though not expressly recognized as in the case of towns (sec. 344), seems to be implied. At all events, the Mayor and Aldermen of a city are ex officio Justices of the Peace for such city. (Sec. 340, and sec. 344 note A.)

(f) For the purposes specified in this section, every city is a county in itself. (Sec. 339.)

(g) The jurisdiction may be exercised "within" but not over the city. Courts of Quarter Sessions may sit, issue process, try causes, and transact all other business within a city, but they have no authority to try offences committed in the city. In cities, the Recorder's Courts are substitutes for Quarter Sessions. (Sec. 348.)

(h) The common law has ever had a special regard for the conservation of the peace; for peace is the very end and foundation of civil law. The Queen is by her office and dignity royal the principal conservator of the peace within all her dominions, and may by prerogative give authority to any other to see the peace kept, and punish interfere with the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace for the County in which a Town is situate over offences committed in the Town except only so far as respects offences against the By-laws of the Town and penalties for refusal to accept or be sworn into office (i) in the Town as to which jurisdiction shall be exercised exclusively by the Police Magistrate or Mayor or Justices of the Peace for the Town. those who break it. She is also the fountain of justice, and in right of both these prerogatives has from a very early period exercised the power of appointing Justices of the Peace by commission. (Lamb, 85, 42.)

(i) Instead of "sworn," the expression should be "make the declaration of office and of qualification," or shortly "to accept or make the declaration of office, &c." (See sec. 175 et seq.)

(j) County Justices retain a general jurisdiction over towns situate within their county or union of counties, subject to the special exceptions stated in this section.

(k) "Posse Comitatus" or power of the county, according to Lambard, includes the aid of and attendance of every person above the age of fifteen, within the county. Persons able to travel are required to be assistant in this service. It is used where a riot is committed, a possession is kept on a forcible entry, or any force or rescue made, contrary to the Queen's writ or in opposition to the execution of justice. The power is usually summoned by the Sheriff. But with respect to writs that issue in the first instance to arrest in civil suits, the Sheriff is not bound to take the posse to assist him in the execution of them, though he may do so if he pleases, on forcible resistance to the execution of the process. Sheriffs, &c., are to be assisting Justices of the Peace in suppressing riots, &c., and raise the posse by charging any number of men to attend for that purpose, who may take with them such weapons as shall be necessary, and they may justify the beating and even killing such rioters as resist or refuse to surrender; and persons refusing to assist in the posse may be fined and imprisoned. It is lawful for a peace officer to assemble a competent number of people and sufficient power to suppress rebels, rioters, &c., but there must be great caution, lest under a pretence of keeping the peace, the peace officer cause a breach of it; and sheriffs, &c., are punishable for using heedless violence, or alarming the country in these cases, without just ground. (See Fomlin, Law Dig. "Posse Comitatus;" Watson's Office of Sheriff, 2 Edn. 2, 72, 102.)

extends to the trying and determining all felonies and trespasses whatsoever, though they seldom if ever try any capital offences; their commissions providing that if any case of difficulty arises, they shall not proceed to judgment but in the presence of one of the judges of the Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas, or one of the judges of Assize. And therefore murders and other capital offences are usually remitted for a more solemn trial to the assizes. The Quarter Sessions have cognisance of all offences which tend to a breach of the peace, except forgery and perjury. (The King v. Higgins, 2 East. 18.) The general words in the commission of the peace, "including all trespasses," comprehend not only direct breaches of the peace, but also all such offences as have a tendency thereto. And on this ground conspiracies and libels, or any illegal solicitations, attempts or endeavours to commit crimes, have been holden to be cognizable by Quarter Sessions. (The King v. Higgins, 2 East. 28; The King v. Summers, 8 Salk. 194; The King v. Rospel, 3 Burr. 1820.) They cannot take cognisance of forgery as a cheat, but over other cheats in general their jurisdiction is undoubted. (The King v. Gibbs, 1 East. 178.) The sessions cannot try any newly created offence, without express power given them by the statute which creates it. (Roop v. Scritch, 4 Mod. 379; The Queen v. Farrington, 1 Salk. 406.) See further, as to the jurisdiction of Quarter Sessions generally, Archbold's Sessions' Practice, p. 1, et seq., and Prov. Stat. 7 Wm. IV. cap. 4.

(r) The minimum, though not the maximum salary, it will be observed, is here given.

(u) The power to appoint a Recorder, or a Police Magistrate, rests with the Executive (sec. 353), but is not to be exercised until invoked by the Municipal Council of the municipality that requires the appointment.

(v) Words authorizing the appointment of any public officer or functionary, &c., are construed to include the power of removing him, re-appointing him, or appointing another in his stead, in the discretion of the authority in whom the power of appointment is vested. (x) The appointment of Police Clerks and Clerks of Recorder's Courts rests with the Municipal Councils. The Clerk of each Council is to act ex officio in the absence of any other appointment. Whether he acts ex officio or is appointed to act, if in receipt of a fixed salary as Clerk of the Council, the fees appertaining to his office as Clerk, either of the Police or Recorder's Court, are to be paid by him to the Municipality and form part of its funds.

(y) Though the Recorder's Court has, as to crimes and offences committed in the city, &c., the same jurisdiction and powers, and uses the like process and proceedings as Courts of Quarter Sessions (sec. 348), the days for the sittings or sessions differ. For Quarter Sessions the days are the second Tuesday in the months of March, June, September and December. (20 Vic. cap. 58, sec. 16.)

359.—The expenses of the administration of justice in criminal cases in the Recorder's Court, shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, in like manner and to the like extent as the expenses attending the administration of justice in criminal cases in the several Courts of Quarter Sessions in Upper Canada. CITY DIVISION COURT.

361.—The Governor may, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, appoint the Recorder to preside over and hold the Division Court of that Division of the County which includes the city; (n) and in such case, as long as the Letters Patent Division Court to be held by Recorder.

(i) So far the investigation authorized is to be one relating to a "supposed breach of trust or other misconduct, &c." The section extends to all members of the Council, as well as officers of the Municipality, and to all persons having contracts with the Council. The object of the enactment is manifestly to facilitate the detection and correction of abuses.

(j) The design of this part of the section is to embrace cases not falling within the preceding.

(k) It is enacted that if the Council at any time passes a resolution requesting the Recorder to make the inquiry, he shall inquire into the same. The duty is apparently an imperative one.

(l) Commissioners so appointed have the power of summoning before them any party or witnesses, and of requiring them to give evidence on oath, orally or in writing (or on solemn affirmation, if they are parties entitled to affirm in civil matters), and to produce such documents and things as such Commissioners think requisite to the full investigation of the matters into which they are appointed to examine; and the Commissioners have the same power to enforce the attendance of such witnesses, and to compel them to give evidence, as is vested in any court of law in civil cases. (9 Vic. cap. 38, sec. 1.)

(m) The Recorder is not only to report to the Council the results of the inquiry, but the evidence taken thereunder, so that the Council may thereupon arrive at some conclusion.

(n) The number of Division Courts in each county or union of counties is not to be less than three nor more than twelve, of which one Division Court is to be held in each city and county town. (13 & 14 Vic. cap. 53, sec. 8.) Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Ses-remain unrevoked, (o) the Recorder shall have the powers and privileges and perform the duties otherwise belonging to the County Court Judge as Judge of the Division Court, and during such period the authority and duties of the County Judge or Judge of such Division Court shall cease, (p) except as in this Act provided. (y)

Salary as
vision Court.

362.—The Governor in Council shall fix an annual salary to be paid to the Recorder for performing such duties, regard being had in fixing the same to the population resident within the jurisdiction of such Division Court, the amount accruing from the Court to the fee fund, the amount of the salary of the Recorder as such, and the amount of the salaries of the County Court Judges in Upper Canada, (r) and the salary shall be subject to be altered, in the like way, (s) and shall be paid out of the like fund and in the like manner as the sions assembled are authorized to declare and appoint the number, limits and extent of every such Division (Ib. sec. 4; and see 16 Vic. cap. 177, sec. 20); and may from time to time alter the number, limits and extent of such Divisions. (Ib.) This section extends only "to the Division Court of that division of the county which includes the city."

(o) It is not said whether the Letters Patent are to be "during pleasure" or during "good behaviour;" but it is believed the former is intended.

(p) See stat. 18 & 14 Vic. esp. 58; 16 Vic. esp. 177; and 18 Vic. cap. 125.

(q) See sec. 364.

(r) The Recorder is to receive an annual salary for performing the duties mentioned in the last section. The salary is to be fixed by the Governor in Council. It is not to be arbitrarily fixed, but with regard to the following data:

1. The population resident within the jurisdiction of the Division Court.
2. The amount accruing from that court to the fee fund.
3. The amount of the salary of the Recorder as Recorder. (See sec. 360.)
4. The amount of the salaries of the County Judges in Upper Canada.

(s) Every County Judge may be paid by a certain salary of not more than £660 or less than £250. The Governor in Council is authorized to fix the remuneration. In doing so he is required to have due regard as well to the population of the several counties or unions of counties, as to the amount of fees received by the County Crown Attorney, under the several statutes establishing fee funds. (8 Vic. cap. 18, sec. 64; 18 & 14 Vic. cap. 58, sec. 12; and 19 Vic. cap. 90, sec. 21; 20 Vic. cap. 59, sec. 12.) The remuneration of County Judges may be increased, or, as vacancies occur, diminished. (See 8 Vic. cap. 18, sec. 61; and 19 Vic. cap. 90, sec. 22.)

367.—In any prosecution, suit, action or proceeding to which a Municipal Corporation is a party, no Member, Officer or servant of the Corporation shall, on account of his being such, be an incompetent witness, (a) or be liable to challenge as a juror. (b)

(y) Provision is in this section made, as well for the form of the instrument as for the disposal of it when executed. It must contain a recital of the cause which renders the appointment necessary, and must be executed in triplicate. It need not of necessity be under seal. When executed in triplicate, the copies are to be disposed of as follows: one copy to be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Division Court; the second to be delivered to the person named therein; and the third to be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, for the information of the Governor General.

(z) See note to sec. 364.

(a) Although in the ordinary affairs of life temptations to practise deceit and falsehood may be comparatively few, and therefore men may in general be disposed to rely on the statements of each other, yet in judicial investigations the motives to pervert the truth and to perpetrate falsehood and fraud are so greatly multiplied, that if mis-statements were believed in courts of justice with the same indiscriminating credulity as in private life, much wrong would be unquestionably done. The danger of injustice arising from this cause, which doubtless should induce both judges and juries to watch with cautious suspicion the evidence laid before them, especially when it comes from an interested or polluted source, has till recently been thought to justify the observance of a distinction between competent and incompetent witnesses; and with a view of rendering the evil as inoperative as possible, it was long deemed expedient that the testimony of some particular classes of persons should be uniformly excluded (2 Taylor on Evidence, 2 Edn. 1040.); but of late, the rule both in England and in Upper Canada has been much relaxed. (See Prov. Stat. 18 Vic. cap. 19.) And still a distinction is to be observed between the competency and the credibility of a witness. This section makes competent in any prosecution, &c., in which a municipal corporation is a party, any member, officer or servant of the corporation. The question of competency is, whenever it arises, one to be determined by the court. (Bartlett v. Smith; 11 M. & W. 486.)

(g) The object of this section is to remove doubts as to the authority of the peace officers named to make arrests without warrant for misdemeanors not committed within their view. Great caution must, however, be exercised in making arrests under such circumstances. A magistrate's warrant is a great shield. Where an arrest is made without it, if it should turn out that the provisions of this section have been neglected, that the wrong person is arrested, or that proof is so slight that he is of necessity discharged, the officer might be held liable to an action for false imprisonment, which he would not be if shielded by a magistrate's warrant. (4 U. C. Law Jour. p. 159.) To authorize an arrest without warrant, under this section, the following things must concur:

1. There must be a complaint to the officer of a breach of the peace having been committed.
2. The officer must have reason to believe that a breach of the peace has been committed. And,
3. That there is good reason to apprehend that the arrest of the person charged is necessary to prevent his escape, or to prevent a renewal of the breach of the peace, &c.
4. Satisfactory security to prosecute is to be given by the party complaining.

Board to make Police Regulations.

(j) The object of this and the following sections is as much as possible to make the Police Force of a city independent of the City Council. The control of the force is transferred from the Council to a Board of Police, and that Board is constituted by this Act. It is made to consist of the Mayor, Recorder, and Police Magistrate. It is only when there is no Recorder or Police Magistrate, or when these two offices are held by the same person, that the Council is authorized at all to interfere with the constitution or construction of the Board.

(k) The design of the Legislature is, that the Board should consist of three persons (sec. 374); so that it will require at least two to constitute a quorum.

(l) This section relates to the constitution and number of the force. It is to consist of a Chief Constable and as many constables and other officers and assistants as the Council from time to time deems necessary; but in no case to be less in number than the Board reports to be absolutely required. The only authority of the Council is subject to the provisions of the section to fix the number of the force, but not to appoint the members of the force. (See sec. 377.)

(m) The members of the force are, it will be observed, not only to be appointed by the Board, but to hold office during the pleasure of the Board—not the City Council (see note j above), and are in other respects to be subject to the government of the Board. (See secs. 375, 379.)

retained, the words "as they may deem expedient" should follow the word "regulations." Then the section would read—"The Board shall from time to time make such regulations as they may deem expedient for the government," &c. No such regulations are to be inconsistent with this statute, or the law of the land. (See note 2 to sec. 187.)

(o) To explain the powers, privileges and duties of a Constable, would require more space than is here at the disposal of the Editor. He hopes at an early day to write and publish a treatise on the subject, founded on a Charge to the Grand Jury of the County of Simcoe, at the April sessions of 1862, by his Honor Judge Gowan.

(p) The duties mentioned in this section are imposed upon the City Council, and not upon the Board.

These duties are:

1. To fix a reasonable remuneration for the members of the force.
2. To pay the same.
3. To provide for all such offices, watch-houses, watch-boxes, arms, accoutrements, clothing and necessities, as the Board may from time to time deem requisite.
4. To pay for the same.

382.—The Gaol, Court House and House of Correction of the County in which a Town or City, not separated for all purposes from a County, (r) is situate, shall also be the Gaol, Court House and House of Correction of the Town or City; and shall in the case of such a City continue to be so until the Council of the City otherwise directs; (s) and the Sheriff, Gaoler and Keeper of the Gaol and House of Correction shall receive and safely keep until duly discharged, all persons committed thereto by any competent authority of the Town or City. (t)

Gaols and court houses to be common to counties and cities; when.

383.—While a City or Town uses the Court House, Gaol or House of Correction of the County, the City or Town shall pay to the County such compensation therefor, and for the care and maintenance of prisoners, as may be mutually agreed upon or be settled by arbitration under this Act. (u)

Compensation how to be regulated and made.

1. To erect and improve a Court House, Gaol, House of Correction, and House of Industry, upon land being the property of the Municipality.
2. To preserve and keep the same in repair.
3. To provide the food, fuel, and other supplies required for the same.

(r) No city or town is yet separated for all purposes from the county in which situate.

(s) It is declared, first, that the gaol, &c., of the county in which a town or city is situate, shall also be the gaol, &c., of the town or city; and, secondly, in the case of a city, continue to be so until the Council of the city otherwise directs. It is apparently only the Council of a city, and not of a town, that has power to direct the erection of a separate gaol, &c.

(t) For instance, Police Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of such town or city.

(u) Arbitrators were appointed by articles of agreement, dated 28th December, 1865, to settle certain differences recited as pending between the city of London and the county of Middlesex, respecting the compensation to be paid by the city to the county for the use of county Court-house and gaol, and concerning certain financial matters then depending between the respective municipalities. On the same day they awarded, first, that the stock held by the county in a certain railway should be divided in the proportion of one-fifth to be transferred to the city, the remaining four-fifths still to belong to the county; secondly, that the city should pay the county £2,675 on account of the county roads, and should keep such roads in repair within the city limits; thirdly, that the city should pay the county £1,866 in full of its portion of the county debt; fourthly, that in future each of the municipalities should pay the expenses of all prisoners committed to the county gaol by each of them respectively, and that the portion of such expense incurred by the city should be paid over by them in January of each year; fifthly, that in future the city should pay to the county one-third of all incidental expenses connected with the Court-

When the amount may be revised.

384.—In case after the lapse of five years from such compensation having been so agreed upon, or awarded, or having been settled by Act of Parliament, and whether before or after the passing of this Act, it appears reasonable to the Governor in Council, upon the application of either party, that the amount of the compensation should be reconsidered, he may, by an Order in Council, direct that the then existing arrangement shall cease after a time named in the order, and after such time the Councils shall settle anew, by agreement or by arbitration under this Act, the amount to be paid from the time so named in the Order. (v)

City Councils may erect court house, gaol, house of correction and house of industry.

385.—The Council of every City may erect, preserve, improve and provide for the proper keeping of a Court House, Gaol, House of Correction and House of Industry upon lands being the property of the Municipality, and may pass By-laws for all or any of such purposes. (w)

Upon separation, gaol and court house regulations to continue.

386.—In case of a separation of a Union of Counties, all rules and regulations, and all matters and things in any Act of Parliament for the regulation of or relating to Court Houses or Gaols in force at the time of the separation, shall extend to the Court House and Gaol of the Junior County. (x) house and gaol, including repairs and insurance, together with one-third of all expenses connected with the administration of justice not paid by Government,—such payment to be made in the month of January in each year; sixthly, that the city should pay to the county the sums mentioned in the first, second and third clauses of the award, with interest, in twelve months from the 1st of January 1856, except that the City Council should pay its share of the railway stock at the time the county debentures given therefor should become payable; seventhly, that the award should take effect on the 1st January 1856, and remain in force till the 1st January 1860. Held, that the giving to the award a retrospective effect—1st January 1856 being the time when London was declared a city—was not objectionable, but proper; that the arbitrators had authority to give time for payment, as in the sixth clause; that the limiting the continuance of the award till 1st January 1860, was inconsistent with the 12 Vic. cap. 81, sec. 200 (so far as material the same as sec. 384 of this act), and rendered the award bad as to the fourth and fifth clauses, respecting the Court-house and gaol; that the fourth clause of the award was also bad, because it authorized a retable division of the expenses, instead of awarding the payment of an annual sum (sed qu. under this act); that the fourth and fifth clauses might be separated from the rest, and the award be set aside as to them only. (In re the matter of the Arbitration between the County of Middlesex and the City of London, 14 U. C. Q. B. 334.)

LOCK-UP HOUSES.

387.—The Council of every County may establish a Lock-up-House or Lock-up-Houses within the County, and may establish and provide for the salary or fees to be paid to the Constable to be placed in charge of every such Lock-up-House, and may direct the payment of the salary out of the funds of the County. (y)

Lock-up-houses may be established by County Councils.

388.—Every Lock-up-House shall be placed in the charge of a Constable specially appointed for that purpose, by the Magistrates of the County at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace therefor. (z)

A Constable to be placed in charge of.

389.—Any Justice of the Peace of the County (a) may direct by warrant in writing under his hand and seal, (b) the confinement in a lock-up-house within his County, for a period not exceeding two days, of any person charged on oath with a criminal offence, whom it may be necessary to detain until examined and either dismissed or fully committed for trial to the Common Gaol, and until such person can be conveyed to such Gaol; (c) the confinement in such Lock-up-House, not exceeding twenty-four hours, of any person found in a public street or highway in a state of intoxication, or any person convicted of desecrating the Sabbath, and generally may commit to a Lock-up-House instead of the Common Gaol or other House of Correction, any person convicted on view of the Justice, or summarily convicted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any offence cognizable by him or them, and liable

Who liable to confinement in, &c.

(y) A "lock-up house" is a place for the temporary confinement of a prisoner, or of a prisoner committed for a short space of time. (Sec. 389.) The gaol is for the whole county, but in each county or union of counties there can be only one gaol, and that situate in the county town. But there may be several lock-up houses, and situate where most convenient. Councils of counties only are by this section authorized to establish lock-up houses; but see sec. 392.

(z) While the county gaol is to be placed in charge of the gaoler, each lock-up house is to be placed in the charge of a constable specially appointed for that purpose by Quarter Sessions.

(a) Qu. or town? It is apprehended that after "county" the word "towns" should have been inserted. The alteration was effected in committee. As the clause stands, it may be a question whether a Justice of a Town, not being at the same time a Justice of the County, has authority to commit to lock-up-houses pursuant to this section. (See secs. 340, 341 and 392.)

(b) Warrants of Justices of the Peace are in general required to be not only under hand but under seal. (See 16 Vic. cap. 178, passim.)

to imprisonment therefor under any Statute or Municipal By-law. (c)

Expense of conveying and maintaining prisoners.

390.—The expense of conveying any prisoner to and keeping him in a Lock-up-House shall be defrayed in the same manner as the expense of conveying him to and keeping him in the Common Gaol of the County. (d)

Previous Lock-up-houses to continue.

391.—Nothing herein contained shall affect any Lock-up-House heretofore lawfully established, but the same shall continue to be a Lock-up-House as if established under this Act. (e)

Lock-up-houses for persons sentenced to short imprisonment.

392.—The Council of every City, Town and Incorporated Village (f) may by By-laws, (g) establish, maintain and regulate lock-up-houses for the detention and imprisonment of persons sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten days under any By-law of the Council; and of persons detained for examination on a charge of having committed any offence; and of persons detained for transmission to any Common Gaol or House of Correction either for trial or in the execution of any sentence. (h)

(c) The following classes of offenders may be committed to lock-up-houses:

1. Any person charged on oath with a criminal offence, whom it may be necessary to detain until examined, &c.
2. Any person found in a public street or highway in a state of intoxication.
3. Any person convicted of desecrating the Sabbath.
4. Any person convicted on view, or summarily convicted, of any offence under any statute or municipal by-law.

The duration of imprisonment, it will be observed, varies in regard to the description of the offender or nature of his offence.

(d) See the Act "for defraying the expenses of the administration of justice in criminal matters in that part of the Province formerly called Upper Canada." (9 Vic. cap. 66.)

(e) Let it be observed that this section preserves only lock-up-houses lawfully established.

(f) Sec. 387 authorises the councils of counties to establish, &c., lock-up-houses. This section extends the power in some degree to councils of cities, towns, and incorporated villages.

(g) See note e to sec. 186.

(h) The persons who may, under the operation of this section, be confined in lock-up-houses are the following:

1. Those sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten days, under any by-law of the Council.
2. Those detained for examination on a charge of having committed any offence.
3. Those detained for transmission to the common gaol or house of correction.

(k) By-law.—See note s. to. sec. 186.

(l) The powers of County Councils under this clause are—

1. To establish a house of industry and house of refuge.

2. To provide by by-law for the erection and repair thereof.

3. To provide by by-law for the appointment and duties of Inspectors, Keepers, matrons, and other servants.

4. To make by by-law rules and regulations for the government of the same.

(t) The duties of Inspectors are, under this section, to keep an account showing the following:

(a) That is such persons as by the Council may be deemed fit objects to be so dealt with.

(a) See note to subsec. 8 of sec. 290.

(b) Some disputes having hitherto existed between Sheriffs and Municipal Councils, arising out of a real or supposed conflict of jurisdiction as to court houses and gaols. The object of this and the three following sections is, so far as language can do so, to remove all cause of dispute. Though it is by sec. 381 enacted that the County Council may pass by-laws for erecting, improving and repairing the gaol, &c., and shall preserve and keep it in repair, and provide the fuel, food and other supplies required; it is here enacted that the Sheriff shall have the care of the gaol, gaol offices and yard, and gaolers apartments, and the appointment of the keepers. While upon the Council rests the responsibility of keeping the building, &c., in repair, and of providing the necessaries; upon the Sheriff rests the responsibility of management and internal government.

(c) While the care of the gaol is entrusted to the Sheriff, the care of the court house is entrusted to the County Council. It is however expressly declared that the Council "shall from time to time provide all necessary and proper accommodation for the Courts of Justice (other than Division Courts) and for all officers connected with such Courts." The Judge of each County Court is empowered to appoint the times and places within the divisions of his county when and at which courts are to be holden. (18 & 14 Vic. cap. 63, sec. 8.)

City shall be regulated by by-laws.

400.—In any city not being a separate county for all purposes, but having a Gaol or Court House separate from the County Gaol or Court House (a), the care of such city Gaol or Court House shall be regulated by the by-laws of the City Council. (a)

FALSE DECLARATIONS.

Wilful statement to be a perjury.

401.—The wilful making of any false statement in any declaration required or authorized by this Act, shall be a misdemeanor, punishable as wilful and corrupt perjury. (f)

INTERPRETATION CLAUSE.

Interpretation of words.

402.—Unless otherwise declared or indicated by the context, whenever any of the following words occur in this Act, the meanings hereinafter expressed attach to the same, namely: (g)

Municipality.

1. The word "municipality" means any locality the inhabitants of which are incorporated under this Act, but it does not mean a police village.

(d) Though there is not yet any city in Upper Canada separate for all purposes from the county in which situated, yet the city may have its own gaol and court house separate from those of the county (sec. 382); and when such is the case, this section applies.

(e) By-laws.—See note v to sec. 182.

(f) This section, though added to the bill in committee of the House of Assembly, is quite unnecessary. It is provided by the Interpretation Act that the word "oath" shall be construed as meaning a solemn affirmation, whenever the context is applied to any person and case by whom and in which a solemn affirmation may be made instead of an oath, &c. (12 Vic. cap. 10, sec. 5, subsec. 13); and that the wilful making of any false statement in any such oath or affirmation shall be wilful and corrupt perjury, and that the wilful making of any false statement in any declaration required or authorized by law shall be a misdemeanor punishable as wilful and corrupt perjury. (1b.)

(g) No better mode of avoiding useless repetition in statutes exists than the recent one of appending to statutes of unusual length "an interpretation clause." So useful has it been found that, as applied to statutes generally, an Act passed in 1849, intitled "An Act for putting a legislative interpretation upon certain terms in Acts of Parliament, and for rendering it unnecessary to repeat certain provisions and expressions therein, and for ascertaining the date and commencement thereof, and for other purposes." (12 Vic. cap. 10.) The section here annotated must be read in connexion with the Interpretation Act, which contains explanations in addition to those in this section contained. In general, throughout this work, references have been made in the proper places to clauses of the Interpretation Act, when applicable.

REPEALING CLAUSE.

402.—From the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight, the following Acts and parts of Acts are hereby repealed (A), namely:

The thirty-second, thirty-third and thirty-fourth sections of the Act of Upper Canada, passed in the first year of Her Majesty's Reign, chapter twenty-one, for Regulating the appointment and duties of Township Officers; (A) 1 V. c. 21, ss. 32, 33, 34.

The Upper Canada Municipal Corporations Act of 1849. 12 V. c. 81.

The Upper Canada Municipal Corporations Law Amendment Act of 1860: 13, 14 V. c. 74.

(A) On every act professing to repeal or interfere with the provisions of a former act, it is a question of construction whether it operates as a total or partial or temporary repeal. The word "repealed" is not to be taken in an absolute, if it appears upon the whole act to be used in a limited sense. Where several Acts of Parliament upon the same subject had been totally repealed, and others repealed in part, it was held that it must have been the clear intention of the Legislature that only the part of an act particularly pointed out should be repealed. (Harrison's C. L. P. Acts, p. 522, note 1.)

(B) The only section of this Act not in terms repealed by this or other Acts is sec. 35; but in, it is apprehended, with the exception of the last proviso, virtually superseded. (See sec. 323, subsecs. 1, 3, 17, 18, 19 & 20.) The proviso is hereinafter published.

Exception. Except so much of the Schedules in either of the two last mentioned Acts as define the limits or boundaries of any City or Town, being schedule B of the Act of 1849, numbers two, three, four, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, and eleven and Schedule C of the same Act numbers one, two and three, and Schedule B of the Act of 1850, numbers one, five, twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen.

Further exception. And excepting also so much of Schedule A of the Act of 1849, as relates to Amherstburg, and excepting also so much of the two hundred and third section of the last mentioned Act, and so much of any other sections of either of the said Acts relating to any of the schedules thereof as have been acted upon or as are in force and remain to be acted upon at the time this Act takes effect. (j)

14 & 15 V. c. 109. The Upper Canada Municipal Corporations Law Amendment Act of 1851;

14 & 15 V. c. 154. The Act passed on the thirtieth August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, to enable Municipal Corporations in Upper Canada, to contract Debts to the Crown in the purchase of Public Works without imposing a Special Rate or Tax for the payment of the same;

16 V. c. 26. The Act passed on the tenth November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, to enable the Township of Stamford to make By-laws for the better government of that part of the said Township which lies in the immediate vicinity of the Falls of Niagara;

18 V. c. 151. The Upper Canada Municipal Corporations Law Amendment Act of 1853; (k)

(j) "Schedule A." of the Act of 1849, here mentioned, should be "Schedule D." The latter is mentioned in 12 Vic. cap. 81, sec. 203, but was unintentionally omitted in the schedule of the acts as passed. The omission was afterwards supplied by statute 13 & 14 Vic. cap. 64, sec. 8, sch. D. "Amherstburg" is not mentioned in 12 Vic. cap. 81, sch. A., but in sch. D.; and it is therefore believed that the mention of sch. A. in the saving clause was inadvertent. Being a manifest mistake, it is not supposed to be of any consequence. Were there any doubt of what it meant, the wording of sec. 203 of 12 Vic. cap. 81, which refers to schedule D, would remove that doubt. Moreover, the present act provides for the erection of incorporated villages, if sufficiently populous, into towns; and Amherstburg being an incorporated village, when of the requisite population, may avail itself of the provision (Sec. 16.) So much of the Upper Canada Municipal Corporations Act of 1849 and of the Act of 1850 as is not repealed, is hereinafter published. The reference to the latter in the margin as being "13 & 14 Vic. cap. 74," is erroneous. The chapter is "84" and not "74."

(k) The foregoing acts being totally repealed, no further notice is taken of them in this work.

CONFIRMING AND SAVING CLAUSES.

405.—The Head and Members of the Council, and the Officers By-laws, Contracts, Property, Assets and Liabilities of every Municipal Corporation, and the Trustees of every Police Village existing when this Act takes effect, (a) shall be deemed the Head and Members of the Council, and the Officers, By-laws, Contracts, Property, Assets and Liabilities of such Corporation.

Heads, officers, by laws, &c., constituted.

(a) In this Act there are seventeen sections. The first thirteen are effete, and sec. 14 is hereby repealed; leaving secs. 15, 16 and 17 unrepealed.

(f) See note A, p. 232.

(u) None of this act is now unrepealed. Before the Union, several sections of it were repealed. After the Union, all of it with the exception of the two sections here mentioned were repealed by 12 Vic. cap. 80. Now that these two sections are repealed, there remains no section in force.

(v) There were two sessions in the second year of the reign of George the Fourth. This act was passed in the first session, and is totally repealed.

(w) None of this act is now in force.

(x) By the repeal of a repealing statute (the new law containing nothing in it that manifests the intention of the Legislature that the former Acts shall continue repealed) the original acts are revived; but if an act is repealed by several acts, a repeal of one act or two, and not of all, does not revive the first act. If a repealing act and part of the original act is repealed by a subsequent act, the residue of the original act is revived. If an act of parliament is revived, all acts explanatory of that act are also revived. It is however usual, when no revival is intended, expressly to provide against the revival, as is done in the section here annotated. (Harrison's C. L. P. Acts, p. 538, note j.)

(y) So that apparently there is to be no repeal by implication.

Pending proceedings to continue.

406.—All proceedings on behalf of or against any existing Municipal Corporation, (c) or Police Trustees pending when this Act takes effect shall be continued under this Act, in the name in which the same are then pending. (d)

Past transactions confirmed.

407.—All things heretofore done under the enactments hereby repealed, are confirmed, except any matter which has been, or within one year after the passing of this Act, may be made the subject of proceedings at law or in equity. (e)

Previous offences may be prosecuted in the new corporation name.

408.—All offences, neglects, fines, penalties, moneys, debts, and other matters and things which immediately before this Act goes into effect might have been prosecuted, punished, enforced, or recovered under the Acts or parts of Acts hereby repealed, may be prosecuted, punished, enforced, or recovered under this Act, in the same manner, within the same time, and in the same name, and by the same process and proceedings, as if the same respectively had been committed or incurred, or had accrued or become due or payable after the taking effect of this Act. (f)

DECLARATORY CLAUSE.

Declaration of effect of Municipal Acts as to power to impose statute labour.

409.—And whereas doubts have arisen as to the power heretofore of incorporated Towns and Villages, when set apart from the Township or Townships in which the same are situate, to assess and impose statute labor in the same manner as Townships have been authorized. (g) To remove such doubts

(b) See pars. 3 and 2.

(c) A schedule of existing municipalities, so far as can be ascertained, is published in the Appendix to this work.

(d) In other words, all proceedings at law, either for or against existing municipal corporations, &c., on 1st December, 1858, shall be continued under this act under the name in which pending, notwithstanding the passing of this act.

(e) This is very important, and intended in a reasonable manner to prevent litigation. This act passed on 16th August, 1858. To question the validity or legality of any thing done under enactments by this act repealed, proceedings must be commenced either at law or in equity, within one year after 16th August, 1858. If not so questioned, all things are confirmed.

(f) The object of this section is to provide against a failure of justice, by reason of offences, &c., committed under the old acts, not being prosecuted before they cease to operate, viz., on 1st December, 1858. The remedy is to allow all such prosecutions to proceed as if the offences, &c., were committed after 1st December, 1858.

And if any person giving evidence as aforesaid under oath shall be guilty of false swearing, he shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to the same punishment and disabilities to which persons convicted of that offence in other cases are now by law liable.

10.—And be it, &c., That in no case shall any person be authorized to take away any part of the Division or Line Fence which to the said party may belong, adjoining to the most enclosure which is improved or occupied, unless the party or parties occupying the lands adjoining the same, shall, after demand made in writing by the person or persons purposing to remove part of any Line Fence, to pay for the same as aforesaid; nor without first giving due notice to such party, for at least twelve months previously to the removal of the same.

11.—And be it, &c., That when a Water Fence or a Fence running into the water is necessary to be made, the same shall be made in equal parts, unless by the parties otherwise agreed; and in case either party shall refuse or neglect to make or maintain the share to such party belonging, similar proceedings shall or may be had, as in other cases of the like kind respecting other fences in this Act mentioned.

12.—And be it, &c., That when lands belonging to or occupied by different persons, are subject to be fenced and bounded upon or divided from each other by any brook, pond, or creek, which of itself is not a sufficient fence, in such case, if the parties disagree, the same may be submitted to the three Fence Viewers, as heretofore provided; and if in the opinion of such Fence Viewers, such brook, river, pond, or creek, is not of itself a sufficient barrier, and that it is impracticable to fence at the true boundary line, they shall judge and determine how or on which side thereof, the Fence shall be set up and maintained, or whether partly on one side and partly on the other, as to them shall appear just, and reduce their determination to writing as heretofore provided in other cases; and if either of the parties shall refuse or neglect to keep up or maintain the part of the Fence to such party belonging, according to the Fence Viewers' determination in writing as aforesaid, the same may be done and performed as is in this Act before provided in other cases, and the delinquent party shall be subject to the same costs and charges, and to be recovered in like manner.

13.—And be it, &c., That when it shall appear to such Fence Viewers that the owner or occupier of any tract or parcel of land is not sufficiently interested in the opening of such Ditch or Water Course to make him a party, and at the same time that it is necessary that such Ditch should be continued across his land by the other party or parties at his or their own expense, they may award the same in manner and form aforesaid; and upon such award, such party or parties may lawfully open such Ditch or Water Course across such land as aforesaid at his or their own expense, without being deemed to have committed a trespass by so doing.

14.—And be it, &c., That if any party shall neglect or refuse upon demand made in writing as aforesaid, to open or make and keep open his share or proportion allotted or awarded to him by such Fence Viewers as aforesaid, within the time allowed by such Fence Viewers, either of the other parties may, after first completing his own share or proportion allotted to him in manner aforesaid, open the share or proportion allotted to such party neglecting or refusing to open the same, and such party so opening such other party's share shall be entitled to recover not more than the sum of two shillings per rod from the party so neglecting or refusing to open his share or proportion, in the same manner as is in this Act provided relative to Line and Division Fences.

[9th June, 1846.]

WHEREAS it frequently becomes necessary for the Executive Government to institute inquiries on certain matters connected with the good government of this Province; and whereas the power of procuring evidence under oath in such cases would greatly tend to the public advantage as well as to afford protection to Her Majesty's subjects from false and malicious testimony or representations: Be it, &c., That whenever the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, shall cause inquiry to be made into and concerning any matter connected with the good government of this Province, or the conduct of any part of the public business thereof, or the administration of justice therein, and such inquiry shall not be regulated by any special Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the government as aforesaid, by the commission to confer upon the Commissioners or persons by whom such inquiry is to be conducted, the power of summoning before them any party or witnesses, and of requiring them to give evidence on oath, orally or in writing, (or on solemn affirmation if they be parties entitled to affirm in civil matters,) and to produce such documents and things, as such Commissioners shall deem requisite to the full investigation of the matters into which they are appointed to examine, and the Commissioner shall then have the same power to enforce the attendance of such witnesses and to compel them to give evidence, as is vested in any Court of Law in civil cases; and any wilfully false statement made by any such witness on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be a misdemeanor punishable in the same manner as wilful and corrupt perjury: Provided always, that no such party or witness shall be compelled to answer any question, by his answer to which he might render himself liable to a criminal prosecution.

An Act for the protection of Mill-owners in Upper Canada.

WHEREAS it often happens that persons purchase Crown Lands and Clergy Reserves in Upper Canada from the Crown which, at the time of the purchase, and of the issuing of the patent therefor, were in the whole or in part overflowed by the waters of some mill stream, in consequence of the erection and continuation of Mill Dams thereon: And whereas it often happens that such persons, at the time they purchase such lands, are well aware of their being so overflowed, and have in consequence thereof obtained a reduction or allowance in the price paid for the same, but, nevertheless, obtain Patents for the whole of such Lots, and afterwards bring actions against the proprietors or occupiers of the Mills for the use of which such Dams have been erected: For remedy thereof, Be it, &c., That when in any action hereafter to be brought against the proprietor and occupier of any Mill, for the overflowing of, or injury to any Land, caused by the erection or continuation of any Dam for the purposes of such Mill, it shall appear that such overflowing or other injury was caused by the erection or continuation of a Dam which was built before the purchase by, and grant thereof to the Grantee of the Crown of such Land, and that such purchaser obtained a reduction in the price of such Land, or was otherwise indemnified in consequence of its being so overflowed or otherwise injured, then, the Jury on the trial of any such cause may take such facts into their consideration, and if they think it just and equitable, may, in consequence thereof, find a verdict for the Defendant in any suit so to be brought.

And if any lot has not been included in Collector's Roll.

As to pretended receipts, &c.

52.—And be it, &c., That if it shall appear to the Treasurer at the settlement to be made on the first day of May as aforesaid, that any parcel of land liable to assessment has not been assessed, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to report the same to the Clerk of the Municipality, and it shall be lawful for the Clerk of such Municipality to enter such parcel of land on the Collector's Roll of the following year or the Roll of non-residents, as the case may be, as well for the arrears omitted as for the tax of that year; and if it shall appear to the Treasurer that any parcel of land assessed has not been included in the Collector's Roll, in the return made to him by the Clerk, or that having been included in the Collector's Roll, the tax thereon has not been paid, he shall be authorized to insert such parcel of land, and the just tax thereon, in his books; or if it shall appear that any parcel of land has been placed on the return of non-resident lands made to him, which is not liable to assessment, or which has also been placed upon the Collector's Roll and the tax thereon has been paid, he shall be authorized to erase such tax from his books, and may otherwise correct any palpable error or any error which may from time to time be certified to him by the Clerks of the several Municipalities; but if any person shall produce to him in satisfaction of a tax, any paper purporting to be a receipt of any Collector, School Trustee, or other Town, Village or Township Officer, he shall not accept such proof, until he shall have received a report upon the same from the Clerk of the Municipality interested, certifying the correctness thereof.

54.—And be it, &c., That it shall be lawful for the County Treasurer, whenever he shall be satisfied that there is distress upon any lands of non-residents in arrear for taxes, to issue a warrant under his hand and seal to the Sheriff of the County, who shall thereby be authorized to levy the amount due upon any goods and chattels found upon the land, in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as are contained in the forty-second, forty-third, and forty-fourth Sections of this Act, with respect to distress made by Collectors.

If there be distress upon lands of non-residents, County Treasurer may authorize Sheriff to levy.

55.—And be it, &c., That whenever a portion of the tax on any land has been due for five years, the Treasurer of the County shall issue a Warrant under his hand and seal directed to the Sheriff of the County, commanding him to levy upon the said lands for the amount of arrears due thereon with his costs, and after the issuing of the Warrant, the Treasurer shall receive no payment on account of the sums contained in the Warrant; Provided always, that the Municipal Council of the County may, at their discretion, direct that no such Warrant shall issue to the Sheriff until some portion of the arrears shall have been due for such other period longer than five years as the said Council may by By-law prescribe, and also that they may direct such parcels of land only to be included in the warrant as are chargeable with an arrear of tax exceeding a certain sum to be determined by such Council.

56.—And be it, &c., That the Treasurer in the Warrant hereinbefore required to be issued shall distinguish such Lands as have been patented from those which are under a lease or license of occupation, and of which the fee still remains in the Crown; and the Sheriff in the advertisements hereinbefore required shall similarly distinguish the Lands patented from those the fee of which is in the Crown, and if he shall sell any of the latter Land he shall only sell the interest therein of the lessee or locatee and it shall be so distinctly expressed in the conveyance to be made by the Sheriff, and such conveyance shall give the purchaser the same rights in respect of the Land as the original lessee or locatee enjoyed, and shall be valid without requiring the assent of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

Distinction to be made in such warrant and Sheriff's advertisements between lands leased by the Crown and those granted by patent.

57.—And be it, &c., That immediately upon receipt of the Warrant, the Sheriff shall prepare a list of all the lands included therein, and the amount of arrears due on each parcel, and shall cause the same to be published for the space of three months in the government Official Gazette, and in some one newspaper published within the County, or if none be so published, in some newspaper published in an adjoining County,

16 VIC.—CAP. 183.

An Act to provide for the recovery of the Rates and Taxes intended to be imposed by certain By-laws of the late District Councils of Upper Canada.

[Assented to 14th June, 1858.]

WHEREAS the District Councils of several of the late Districts of Upper Canada, intending to carry into effect the enactments of the Act of the Legislature of this Province, passed in the Session held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to provide for the better internal government of that part of this Province which formerly constituted the Province of Upper Canada, by the establishment of Local and Municipal authorities therein, have, since the passing of the said Act, passed divers By-laws imposing rates or taxes on lands in the said Districts, and the rates or taxes so imposed, have been paid by the great majority of the inhabitants and land-holders therein; And whereas it appears that the total sum or sums to be raised under such By-Laws, and the purposes to which they were to be applied, were not first determined by some of the said District Councils, and the sums afterwards apportioned and rated on the lands in the said Districts, but a certain rate or tax of so much per acre was at once imposed on such lands, and that the said By-laws, or some of them, were otherwise informal, and contained provisions not strictly in accordance with the said Act; And whereas doubts may exist as to the true meaning and intention of the forty-first Section of the said Act, and it is expedient to remove any such doubts as to the powers intended to be conferred on such District Councils of imposing rates or taxes upon lands, and to legalise such rates as, if defective in form, were not inconsistent with the true intent and spirit of the Act above recited; And whereas in several of the said Districts certain lands were sold for arrears of taxes which had accrued under the said By-laws, and it is expedient to remove any doubts which may exist as to the legality of such sales, and to confirm them with such provisions and limitations as shall secure the owners of the lands from any injustice: Be it, &c., That from and after the passing of this Act, no By-law of any of the late District Councils of Upper Canada shall be quashed on account of any want of form, or on account or any of the provisions thereof not being in strict accordance with the letter of the Act hereinbefore recited, so long as such provisions are in accordance with the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Certain By-laws of late District Councils to be good if consistent with this Act.

Certain rates imposed by such By-laws confirmed.

Proviso.

Rate imposed by Act of U. C. 50 Geo. III. c. 8, merged in tax imposed by said By-laws in certain cases.

Otherwise in certain other cases.

2.—And be it, &c., That any rate or tax, or rates or taxes, intended to be imposed on the lands in any of the late Districts of Upper Canada, by any By-law or By-laws heretofore passed by the District Councils thereof, and not disallowed by the Governor, or quashed by any Court of competent jurisdiction, shall be held to be valid and justly chargeable on such lands, so long as the same did not in the whole exceed One Penny Half Penny currency, per acre, in any one year: Provided always, that no increase or accumulation of such rates, intended to be imposed or charged by any such By-law, in consequence of the non-payment of such rates, shall be held to be valid or chargeable on the said lands: Provided also, that if any such By-law or By-laws shall have taxed the land in any District by the acre unequally so that a different tax was intended to be levied in different Townships or localities, or a different tax upon unoccupied land from that at which land was rated on the Assessment Rolls, the whole of the land in such late District shall be held chargeable only with the lowest tax per acre at which any of the land was so intended to be rated: Provided also, that nothing in this Act shall be held to make lawful any By-law disallowed by the Governor or quashed by any Court of competent jurisdiction as aforesaid, or the tax imposed by any By-law which rated or intended to rate unoccupied land only, and not all land.

3.—And be it, &c., That if the By-laws of any of the late District Councils shall have taxed or rated land by the acre at such an amount that the rate so imposed, together with the tax of one eighth of a Penny per acre, charged on unoccupied land, in lieu of Statute labor, by the act of Upper Canada, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the Reign of King George the Third, and intituled, An Act to repeal part of and amend the Laws now in force for laying out, amending and keeping in repair the Public Highways and Roads in this Province, would in the whole amount to more than One Penny Half Penny per acre, the tax of one eighth of a Penny as aforesaid shall be held to have merged in the tax imposed by such By-laws, and the land shall not be held to be chargeable therewith; but if the By-laws of any of the said District Councils shall have so taxed or rated the lands, that the District tax and the one eighth of a Penny as aforesaid, together, did not exceed One Penny Half Penny per acre, and if the said By-laws did not expressly release the land from the said tax of one-eighth of a penny, but the said tax continued to be demanded and received, from the date of the passing of the said By-law then the unoccupied land shall be held also liable to the tax of one eighth of a penny per acre.

4.—And be it, &c. That any sum or sums of money which shall have been paid to the Collector of any Township, in satisfaction of the rates charged on the Assessment Roll, or to the Treasurer of any District, or of any County since the abolition of Districts, in satisfaction of any tax upon Mud, shall not be recoverable, although such rate or tax may have exceeded that which might legally have been chargeable, or may have been imposed by an informal By-law of the said District Councils; and no surcharge or additional demand shall be made, if the sums so received by such Collector or Treasurer fell short of what was legally chargeable. And all land for or in respect of which any such rate or tax has been so paid, shall be released from any liability or charge for the year or years in respect of which such tax was paid; but all lands liable to assessment, and upon which payment has not been so made, shall be held chargeable with such tax, as is hereinbefore declared to be chargeable upon it, notwithstanding any informality in the By-laws by which such tax was intended to be imposed, provided that such By-laws shall not have been disallowed or quashed as aforesaid.

5.—And be it, &c. That the subsequent repeal of any By-law of any District Council shall not be construed to have extinguished the arrears of the taxes imposed or intended to be imposed by such By-law, and which were due for the years previous to the repeal of the By-law: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to continue the tax for the year in which such By-law was repealed, and another By-law passed in place thereof; but in all such cases the tax or arrear of tax shall for that year be taken to be that imposed by the repealing By-law.

6.—And be it, &c. That within six months after the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of every County in Upper Canada, and he is hereby required to make out, a list of every Lot or part of Lot in this County, upon which any taxes may appear to be unpaid and in arrear, whether the said taxes accrued before or after the establishment of District Councils. And he shall set down opposite each Lot or part of Lot the total sum which shall appear to be so due and in arrear up to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, including in such total sum the proportional charge for the cost of the advertisement hereinafter required, and distinguishing the taxes due before any By-law of the late District Council came into force, the taxes due under such By-law or By-laws, and the taxes due since the establishment of County Councils. And he shall calculate the

An Act conveying to the City of Toronto certain Water Lots, with power to the said City for the construction of an Esplanade.

Preamble.

Letters Patent of U. C. 21st Feb. 1846, recited.

Order in Council 17th Aug. 1867.

WHEREAS by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the Province of Upper Canada, bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty, certain water lots or tracts of land covered with water, situate in front of the said City of Toronto, and certain parcels or slips of land situated between the top of the bank and the water's edge in the Bay, in the said City of Toronto, adjoining to the said water lots, were under the direction of an Order in Council of the 17th August, 1837, granted to the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the said City of Toronto, and their successors for ever, upon trust, to lease the said water lots, or apply them to and for the public purposes of the said City, as the Common Council of the said City of Toronto, from time to time, might think fit to order or direct: And upon the further trust that within three years from the time the said City of Toronto should occupy any of the said water lots for the uses of the said City, or lease the same, an Esplanade of one hundred feet in width, of such materials and plan as the said City of Toronto, by Act of Common Council, might order and direct, should be erected and built in front of the said lots by the said City, or the lessees of the said lots respectively, at the place designated by the letter C, on the Record maps of the Crown Land Department, and designated by the letter O upon a plan of the said City and water lots annexed to the said Letters Patent, subject also to the condition that the said Esplanade shall be kept in repair by the City or its lessees, as provided for by Order in Council of 17th August, 1837, and upon the further trust, that so soon as the proprietors of such water lots, in front of the said City of Toronto, as had been granted previously to the date of the Letters Patent hereinbefore in part recited, should comply with the terms of the said Letters Patent, and build the said Esplanade in front of their respective lots, according to the said plan adopted by the said City of Toronto, and in the place designated on the map annexed to the said Letters Patent, to convey to such proprietors the extension of the water lots adjoining to their respective lots, as by the said Letters Patent and the map annexed thereto is provided and described, and also to convey to the owners of the water lots, according to their respective estates, pieces of land at the foot of the bank, subject to such general regulations as to buildings and general improvements under the direction of the Corporation, as may be devised by the Corporation of the said City; And whereas most of the said water lots so granted to the said City of Toronto, have been leased by the said City, and the said leases contain a covenant on the part of the lessees, to build the said Esplanade within the time in the said Letters Patent mentioned, and according to the plan adopted by the Common Council; And whereas by a certain license of occupation issued by His Excellency the Governor, General, and bearing date the 29th day of March, 1853, which said license of occupation was so issued in conformity with the Orders in Council of the 9th day of December, 1852 and 29th March, 1853, His Excellency gave and granted to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the said City of Toronto, and their successors in office, license to occupy certain other parcels of land covered with water and strips of land lying in front of the said City and in the said license of occupation described, with certain reservations in the said license of occupation set forth, to have and to hold to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the said City and their successors in office, for and during pleasure, License of occupation of 29th March, 1853, under Orders in Council of 9th Dec. 1852, and 29th March, 1853, recited.

subject nevertheless to the stipulations, terms and conditions therein mentioned: And whereas the Corporation of the City of Toronto have, by their petition, prayed that authority may be given to the Common Council of the said City to erect the proposed Esplanade, in front of and upon the said water lot, according to the conditions of the said Letters Patent, License of occupation and the leases to the several tenants thereof, and to issue Debentures for the payment thereof, payable within twenty years, redeemable by an annual rate to be levied on such holders of the said water lot, whether freehold or leasehold, as are unwilling or unable to make their respective portions of the said Esplanade at their own expense, within twelve months from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three: And whereas it would greatly conduce to the prosperity and health of the said City of Toronto, that such an Esplanade should be forthwith built, and it is advisable that the prayer of the said Petition be granted: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the said City of Toronto to enter into any contract or contracts with any person or persons who may be willing to undertake the same, to erect and build an Esplanade in front of and upon the water lots in the said City, as described in the Preamble and the Letters Patent and License of occupation therein mentioned, of such materials, and according to such plan as the Common Council of the said City of Toronto may have adopted, or may hereafter adopt regarding the same, according to the provisions of the said Letters Patent.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Concession Line now forming the northern limit of the liberties of the City of Toronto, (being the allowance for road between the Park Lots and the second Concession in the Township of York,) has been found to diverge from the proper course, and the Common Council of the City of Toronto caused the same to be made straight, and expended a large sum of money in turnpiking and otherwise improving the said line of road and in building stone culverts thereon, and after such expenditure was made it was discovered that the said line in the original survey thereof had been either through carelessness or inadvertence run irregularly and crookedly, by means whereof the line of road upon which such expenditure was made is without the liberties of the said City, and the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto have no power to retain possession thereof or arrange with the owners and proprietors or others interested in the land so taken in the straightening of the said road for the value thereof or for damages claimed by them; And whereas it is expedient that authority be given to the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto, to straighten the said road and to arrange with the said proprietors or owners of land necessarily taken for that purpose, or other persons interested therein, and that such straight line should be made the northern boundary of the said City of Toronto: Therefore, &c.

The Line as straightened to be the northern boundary of Toronto; and the land gained vested in Corporation.

1.—From and after the passing of this Act the said Concession Line so straightened as aforesaid shall be taken to be and shall be the northerly boundary line of the liberties of the said City of Toronto; and all the land lying between the line so straightened and the line as originally run, together with the land contained within the said original line, shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

the thirty-third section of the Act passed in the sixteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and chaptered one hundred and eighty-one.

Municipal Act.

3.—All the land lying between the new line of road so straightened as aforesaid and the southern limit of the old line, and vested in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto by this Act, shall be held by them in trust from time to time to convey the same to the respective owners or proprietors of the land lying to the south of and immediately adjoining the said old line of road or the person or persons having the legal estate therein, according to the frontage of their respective lots thereon, so soon as such owner or proprietor, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, or any of them, shall have paid to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto, the value of their several and respective pieces of land agreed upon at any time hereafter between the said respective owners or proprietors, or other person or persons as aforesaid, and the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto; and in case such value shall not be agreed upon between them as aforesaid, within one month after the passing of this Act, the same shall be ascertained by arbitration in like manner as is prescribed in the second section of this Act; And in making their award in the premises it shall be the duty of the arbitrators to take into consideration all the circumstances which have rendered necessary the said reference; Provided always, that until the settlement of such value and the payment thereof to the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or other party whomsoever, to enclose or in any wise obstruct the said old line of road under any pretence whatsoever.

Preamble.

18 Vic. c. 22.

WHEREAS by the seventh section of the Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund Act (sixteenth Victoria, chapter twenty-two, it is provided that if any sum of money which ought under the said Act to be paid by the Treasurer of any Municipality to the Receiver General, shall remain unpaid during three months or upwards after it ought to have been so paid, then

1.—So much of the seventh section of the Act above recited as renders it necessary in all cases that the warrant of the Governor shall issue for the whole amount due by the Municipality, is hereby repealed; and it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he shall see fit, to issue his warrant to the Sheriff, directing the rate which he shall levy; Provided nevertheless, that such rate shall not be less than two shillings and six pence in the pound on the yearly value of the assessable property in the Municipality; or a proportionate rate on the actual value of such property,—reckoning the yearly value at six per cent. on its actual value—except in cases in which the proceeds of such rate would, in the opinion of the Governor, exceed the amount for which such Municipality is in default and the costs of the levy, when it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct such rate to be so levied as will, in his opinion, produce an amount fully sufficient to pay that for which the Municipality is in default and the costs of the levy, the surplus (if any) being returned to the Municipality according to law: Provided further, that it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of any Municipality in arrear for any sum of money under the said recited Act, within one month after the time when such sum of money is payable, to certify to the Secretary of the Province, the total value of the assessable property, and the rate in the pound in such Municipality, for the year next preceding such default.

2.—It shall be lawful for the Governor, in all cases in which a Municipality shall be certified to him by the Receiver General to be in default as aforesaid, to issue his warrant to the Sheriff, directing him to seize all goods and chattels, and other property or things liable to be seized in execution, lands and tenements, belonging to such Municipality, and to sell the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary to produce the amount for which such Municipality is in default and costs, as he would under execution against such Municipality, Governor may fix a rate instead of causing the whole amount in default levied at once.

Provided: rate limited, &c.

Provisions as to the liability under the said Act, of Counties united when the loan was contracted but separated before it is paid.

3.—Provided always, That whenever a loan shall have been effected on the credit of the said Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund by any Union of two or more Counties then united for Municipal purposes, but which have been or shall be afterwards separated before such loan shall have been paid, and such Counties shall upon such separation have agreed or shall hereafter agree in the manner provided by law, as to the part which each or any of them shall have in the liability arising out of such loan, then such agreement shall be the rule by which the Receiver General shall be guided in ascertaining the liability of each of such Counties, and the amount to be paid by or levied upon each of them in respect of such loan, in case of any default to pay any sum which ought under the said Act to be paid to the Receiver General in respect of the same; and any County having paid its share of such liability as ascertained shall not be liable in respect of the share thereof of the other County or Counties united with it when the loan was effected.

Municipality's share of Clergy Reserve Fund may be taken in payment.

WHEREAS many of the lands sold for taxes under the Act of thirteenth and fourteenth Victoria, chapter sixty seven, intituled, An Act to make valid the Deeds given by Sheriffs to the Assignees of purchasers of Land sold for Taxes under thirteenth and fourteenth Victoria, chapter sixty-seven, were assigned by the purchasers thereof before the period for receiving the Sheriff's deed had arrived, and the Assignees of such purchasers applied to the respective Sheriffs and received Deeds from them of the Lands so sold for taxes as aforesaid; and whereas doubts have arisen as to whether such Deeds could be properly given under the said Act to such Assignees, and whether they should not in all cases have been made directly to the Purchasers from the Sheriffs, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Therefore, &c.

I.—The Deed or Deeds made by any Sheriff who had sold lands for taxes under the above mentioned Act to the Assignee or Assignees of any Purchaser or Purchasers of such lands, shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the same had been made directly to the Purchaser or Purchasers of such lands, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

1.—Notwithstanding any thing contained in the Act before cited, or in any other Act, it shall be lawful for Provincial Land Surveyors, and they are hereby required, when called on to determine disputed boundaries in the said Townships, to ascertain and establish the division or side lines of the lots, by running such side lines as they were run in the original survey, whether the same were run from the front of the Concession to the rear, or the rear of the Concession to the front thereof, in the original survey, and to adhere to all posts, limits or monuments, planted on the division or side lines in the original survey, as being or designating corners of lots under such original survey.
